

SMALL BOY WHIPPED, BIG RIOT FOLLOWS; TWO MEN IN JAIL

A riot in East New York last night landed three persons in the hospital and two youths in jail, and forced Patrolman Donohue and Detective Dougherty to use their night sticks.

Herman Goldstein and Nathan Greenhouse, twenty-one years old and stepbrothers, went to their parent's rescue. Mongeni was badly hurt when Donohue and Dougherty arrived, and Dr. Marney took him to the Bradford Street Hospital along with Jere and Nathan Goldstein.

The two policemen, who had arrested the stepbrothers, took them to Mongeni's home to be identified. Almost every one in that neighborhood got busy with bricks and clubs on the prisoners. Dougherty and Donohue did their best, but before their nightsticks had the desired effect both prisoners had been badly beaten and several persons hurt.

SHAKERS TO SELL OUT.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 30.—Elder Walter Shepard, a trustee of the Shaker colony in the eastern part of the town of Enfield, confirmed the report to-day that the Shaker property—hundreds of acres of valuable tobacco land—would probably be sold within a few days to a syndicate of Hartford and New York capitalists.

Proceeds of the sale will be devoted toward rehabilitating the Lebanon settlement.
