

NOTES OF THE THEATRES.

Montgomery and Stone to-day began rehearsals of the new musical comedy in which they are soon to appear at the Globe Theatre.

Hilda Keenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keenan, is to marry Ed. Wynn, comedian in Zigfeld's "Follies," and retire from the stage.

"What happened at 22," the new play by Paul Wilstach, which is to be produced at the Harris Theatre on Aug. 24 by John C. Fisher, will be given its out-of-town try-out at Poughkeepsie on Aug. 21. Those who have parts in the play are Retinal Barlow, Frank Kemble Cooper, Malcolm Duncan, Robert Fischer, Charles Abbe, J. K. Hutchinson, Wadsworth Harris, Charles Silber, Carroll McComas, Estar Banks, Elizabeth Arians and Helen Crane.

Rehearsals of "Wild Oats," a comedy by Porter Emerson Browne, to be produced by Comstock and Gest, began at the Princess Theatre to-day. In the company are Homer B. Mason, who is to play the leading role; Marguerite Keeler, Edith Luckett, E. A. Eberle, George Inneson, Laura Warner and Billy Betts.

The company to appear in "Twin Beds," Margaret Mayo's farce-comedy is rehearsing at the Fulton Theatre. In the cast are Fay Wallace, Ernest Cosart, Ray Cox, John Westley, George Lawrence, Mabel Acker and William J. Phinney.

Thomas Holding will play Jerry in the "Peg of My Heart" company headed by Elsa Ryan.

Henry E. Dixey and his wife, Marie Nordstrom, will appear in a comedy by Evelyn Blanchard and Adelaide Stedman.

Announcements of engagements by the Liebler Company include those of Philip Tongo for Traddles and Emma Chambers for Flora Peggoty, in "The Highway of Life," Louis N. Parker's dramatization of Dicken's "David Copperfield," Elsie Mackay to play Virginia, Grumpy's laughter, with Cyril; Ernita Lascelles, to be George Arias's leading woman in his fifth American tour in "Disraeli," and Maude Hildyard for an important part in "The Garden of Paradise," to be produced at the Park Theatre.

Oliver Morosco is in search of young romantic actors. Like other managers he declares they are hard to find.

GIMBEL'S ROOF PARK OPEN.

Breathing Space for Employees, But Public Is Admitted, Too.

The roof park over the Gimbel store was thrown open to-day to the public for inspection of the eighty-five miniature flower gardens planted and cultivated during the season by the sections of the employees of the establishment.

The store offered prizes for the best gardens and selected the winners by a vote in which 1,200 ballots were cast. The first prize was won by the porters and elevator repair men, and the second by the women inspectors. The gardens were established in the first place to give employees open air amusement off the streets; the lunch hour; the result has been a roof garden in which the managers of the store are glad to invite patrons to spend a breathing spell away from the crowds.

This Week's Constellation of Stars:

JOAN SAWYER
Goddess of the Ballroom in striking new dances, including for the first time "Death and the Maiden," "The Blue Bird," "The Blue Bird," and "The Blue Bird." Also features in society's dancing and represents the grace in its most exquisite form.

JACK WILSON
The cleverest impromptu comedian in the world, who makes up his irreverent jokes as he goes along. He sings side-splitting parodies and will be assisted by Franklin Bates.

ADELAIDE & HUGHES
America's Foremost Technical Dancers, presenting for the first time on any stage the Chinese "TA TAO" dance which electrified Miss Newport at the opening of Mrs. Fish's Chinese tea-house.

LEW DOCKSTADER
His name is a gold-lucked guarantee of a hit. He will present "Teddy in 'My Polka.'" Lew is at his laugh-getting best.

JOSEPH SANTLEY & CO
America's favorite juvenile star, assisted by two lovely girls, in songs, dances and comedy. A new act by this Prince Charming of musical comedy.

RAY SAMUELS
The Blue Streak of Ragtime. Here is a sensational singer who is after Ruth Roy's record. She's a many times champion and has new songs and costumes.

MURPHY & RADLIFF
Two delightful comedians in "Nitty Nonsense." They are sure fire else they wouldn't be here.

EIGHT ARABS
An acrobatic desert dancers and acrobats, doing the most marvellous stunts with amazing ease.

LA VERNERE
A European palace act, presenting a treat for art lovers.

Nothing but headliners at the Palace. More stars on any one bill than in any three other theatres.
