

LENT MONEY TO WIFE OF BANKER BISHOP TO BUY FOOD, SAYS NURSE

Her Small Loans Supported Family of Millionaire, She Declares in Suit.

Testimony taken before the actual trial of James Cunningham Bishop, millionaire banker, whose wife recently divorced him, in a suit for $1,158.88 brought against him by Miss Jennie Wood, trained nurse, was made public today. Miss Wood alleges the amount is due for services performed for Mrs. Bishop and for money loaned Mrs. Bishop while the Bishops were living together. Miss Wood lives at No. 127 East Sixty-fourth street.

In her complaint she alleges that, although the Bishops were paying $10,000 a year rental for their home at No. 22 East Sixty-fifth street and were surrounded by servants and other luxuries at the time, Mrs. Bishop pleaded with her for a loan of money with which to buy food, medicines and other necessities of life for herself and children.

At various times, Miss Wood says, she lent the banker's wife money, amounting in all to $765, which represented the savings of a lifetime. Besides, she said, she nursed Mrs. Bishop and gave her electrical massage treatment, for which Mrs. Bishop agreed to pay her $25.

A commission will take the testimony of Mrs. Bishop before trial. She is now living at Newport. Miss Wood asserts that the banker's wife is receiving $15,000 a year alimony, but has failed to answer any letters demanding payment.

Mr. Bishop's defense to Miss Wood's suit is that he had no knowledge of the loans made to Mrs. Bishop or of the services performed.

"I left my wife in April, 1912," he testified, "because of her drinking and extravagance."

In May, 1912, Mr. Bishop said, he returned to Mrs. Bishop on her promise not to indulge in liquor and to live more economically, this including the giving up of Miss Wood's treatment, which, the banker added, he regarded "as an extravagance."

Asked what his income was at the time Miss Wood said she lent Mrs. Bishop money with which to buy food, medicines and other necessities, Mr. Bishop said it was from $78,000 to $110,000 a year. He testified he was a member of ten or twelve clubs.

LAWYER ESCAPES SENTENCE. Consents to Disbarment After Pleading Guilty to Fraudulent Practices.

E. Henri Finkle, who as a lawyer with offices at No. 78 Delancey street made a good living for years instituting 3,000 fake accident suits against merchants and corporations, finally being indicted on three charges of grand larceny, pleaded guilty today before Judge Nott in General Sessions.

Although Finkle, who is only thirty years old, succeeded in obtaining his victims out of thousands of dollars, Judge Nott suspended sentence upon him because of his plea of guilty. The defendant had consented before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to immediate disbarment. He was committed under indictment. Finkle's indictment last December that he had obtained more than $30,000 through the fake actions brought by him. His indictment and arrest were brought about by the Fidelity and Casualty Company.

BANKRUPTS ARE CONVICTED. Found Guilty of Concealing Assets of Failed Firm.

Shie Landau, his son, Herman, and Abraham Lippman were found guilty today in the Federal District Court of violating the bankruptcy law in concealing the assets of the wholesale grocery firm of Shie Landau from the trustee so as to get the greater share of the assets. The three guilty men were remanded until the resolution of Judge W. I. Grubb will impose sentence.

The failure involved $30,000, and in the effort to conceal the assets the stock was, on the eve of the bankruptcy, shipped from No. 228 East One Hundred and Third street to stores in the Bronx.

BAILEY MAKES A THREAT. EL PASO, TEX., AUG. 12.—Former Senator Joseph W. Bailey today announced he would enter the contest for the United States Senate in 1916 if the Democratic State convention, in session here, refused to take the resolution opposing nation-wide prohibition. Mr. Bailey made this statement when he learned of the plan of the majority to oppose the resolution.

Mr. Bailey said he would make the race, if he was necessary, to get the people of Texas. Adoption of a platform and action on resolutions were expected today.

TO STRAIGHTEN NOSE, GIRL ROBS HER AUNT

Takes $130 From Sleeping Visitor's Stocking and Starts Out to Get Beauty at Any Cost.

For most of her fifteen years Edna Widman has stood the taunts of the children in the neighborhood of her home at No. 234 Floyd street, Brooklyn, because of her ugly nose. Day before yesterday her aunt, Mrs. Fanny Rosen, of No. 107 Moore street, dropped in for a visit and took a nap on a couch. Edna observed that in a section of Aunt Fanny's stocking, which stuck out beyond her skirt, was a fat roll of yellow-backed bills. Edna took a sharp pair of scissors and performed a painless operation on the stocking which put $130 in her hands.

She put on her hat and made for Manhattan, where she had a beauty doctor straighten her nose and fill it with paraffin and dye her hair. She also invested in a silk dress, a new hat and high heeled patent leather slippers. She did not return home that night, and yesterday Detective John Kessler, at the request of her parents and Aunt Fanny, found her on Bedford avenue exhibiting her new found charms to envious friends, cousin Zeller committed Edna to the House of the Good Shepherd.

CREDITORS MAKE CHARGES AGAINST DEFUNCT BANK

Say Auto Took Away Bags at 2 o'Clock in the Morning.

A committee of twenty-five appointed by a meeting of the 3,000 depositors of the bank of Max Kobre of No. 41 Canal street, which was closed by Banking Commissioner Richards Aug. 3 with deposits of $3,800,000 on the books, called on District Attorney Whitman today. He was told that the committee had witnesses who would swear that an automobile was driven up to the bank at 2 o'clock on the morning of Aug. 7 and that in it were removed a large number of canvas bags such as are used for carrying coin, all filled tight. The District Attorney referred them to his assistant, Mr. Ellison, to furnish the names of the witnesses for an investigation.

GLYNN WANTS HEARST. Governor Would Send Him to the United States Senate.

Gov. Glynn is still insisting that William Randolph Hearst be the Tammany candidate for United States Senator to succeed Elithu Root. Friends of the Governor are of the opinion that he should be permitted to at least have something to say about the naming of his chief running mate. It is believed the Governor will stand by Hearst to the last.

According to Tammany men there is just a chance now that Gov. Glynn will not be a candidate. If he is not, they will elect the Governor, and the Tammany men who have no use for the newspaper editor as a candidate are still in hope that they will bring the Governor around to their way of thinking. State Chairman William Church Caborn is still in the race for the Senatorship.

CONNOR IS LEGAL ADVISER. The House Workmen's Compensation Commission has appointed Jeremiah F. Connor of Oneida, N. Y., as counsel to the commission.

Mr. Connor has been counsel to the State Conservation Commission since June 18, 1913. He served as City Clerk of the city of Oneida in 1902-03, as City Attorney in 1906-07, and was elected City Judge in 1909.

He was appointed Deputy Attorney-General in the office of Attorney-General Carmichael in April 15, 1911, and remained in the Attorney-General's office until appointed as counsel to the Conservation Commission.

SHIP BILL TO CONFERENCE. WASHINGTON, AUG. 12.—The shipping bill to grant American register to foreign-built ships was sent to conference by the House today after Senate amendments had been disagreed to.

The House, in view of the importance of the bill, named Democratic Leader Underwood and Republican Leader Mann conference managers in addition to the regular conferees.

MRS. DURYEA GRANTED $4,000 A YEAR ALIMONY

Wife of Insane Man Who Killed His Father Will Now Return From France With Her Son.

Supreme Court Justice Hendrick today granted to Mrs. Chester B. Duryea, whose husband is in the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, where he was sent after killing his aged father, Gen. Hiram Duryea, in Brooklyn, some months ago, an increase from $30 a week to $4,000 a year alimony. The original amount was divided into two parts, $30 for the support of Mrs. Duryea and $10 for the support of her fourteen-year-old son, Chester B. Duryea Jr.

Attorney Warren McConihe stated that $30 weekly was altogether too small an amount for the wife and son of a man who had just inherited $1,200,000 in property from his father. Mother and child are now in Dinard, France. The husband and father is hopelessly insane and growing steadily worse, said the attorney. He said his client in March, 1914, obtained a legal separation. He asked $4,200 alimony. Millard F. Tompkins, attorney for the Franklin Trust Company, committee of the incompetent's estate, said that while the company did not object to an increased allowance for alimony he thought $4,000 a year would be a sufficient sum. The value of the inherited estate, he said, was nearer $500,000 than $1,200,000.

$40,000,000 TO BUY SHIPS. House Bill Authorizes Appropriation for Trade Carriers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—A bill to appropriate $40,000,000 to buy ocean going ships to carry American trade was introduced in the House today by Representative Moxley of West Virginia. They would be auxiliary vessels for the navy.

"Gets-It" for Corns Sure as Sunrise

New Plan. Corns Shrivelled, Vanish. Until "GETS-IT" was born nobody was ever sure of getting rid of a corn. Corn treatments nearly all contained the same ingredients, only some were liquid, some in solid form.

piasters, some "wrappers" and some in solid form. Now comes "GETS-IT" with a newly discovered formula—the corn cure on a new principle and a simple plan that never fails. That is why "GETS-IT" has grown in three years to be the biggest-selling corn cure the world has ever known.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

A Never Failing Way to Banish Ugly Hairs

(Aids to Beauty) No woman is immune to superfluous growths, and because these are likely to appear at any time, it is advisable to always have some delatone powder handy to use when the occasion arises.

A paste is made with some of the powder and water and spread upon the hairy surface; in about 5 minutes this is carefully removed and the skin washed. You will then find that your skin is entirely free from hair or fuzz. Be sure, however, to get real delatone.—Adv't.
