

UP-TO-DATE AND NEWSY

BEST SPORTING PAGE IN NEW YORK

EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN

NONE BUT THE BRAVES DESERVE THE LEAD--BUT HOW'RE THEY GOING TO GET IT?

Copyright, 1914, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

R. Edgren's COLUMN

It Remains Now Only to See if the Braves Can Keep Their Nerve and Start Another Spurt.

ROAMER TAKES ANOTHER STAKE AT SARATOGA TRACK

Champion of the Three-Year-Olds Wins the Huron by Five Lengths.

SARATOGA RACE TRACK, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Andrew Miller's Roamer picked up 128 pounds in the $3,500 Huron Handicap this afternoon, conceded weight in chunks to all his opponents and won in a gallop. The 128 pounds included an eight pound penalty. Punch Bowl chased him all the way, sticking rather closer than usual, but at the end he was lag weary, and Roamer was five lengths in front. Gainer closed some ground on the leaders from the stretch turns home, but Punch Bowl had enough left to beat him two lengths for the show money. Addie M. threatened in the stretch, but soon died away.

FIRST RACE. Yadopeep, at 2, was the opening event winner. She was not the pacemaker, as she usually is, being outrun to the stretch by Hamie and Dakota. She looked safely pocketed, nearing the home turn, but Schutinger wisely pulled her to the outside and in the drive home she caught Dakota, and went the stretch away. Dakota, after running a cracking good race, stuck it out gamely in the stretch run and saved the place from Miss Sandstone, who came very fast in the last eighth.

SECOND RACE. Virile won the mile and five-sixteenths race, second on the card, from Guy Fisher, with Anyport third. Beethoven, the long shot of the race, who had been schooling over the jumps, tried to steal away in the final part. He opened up a rap of a dozen lengths when the stretch was reached. There, however, he began to back up and Guy Fisher, who had been the far turner, was able to overtake him. Virile and Guy Fisher then appeared to have the race to themselves, but Anyport began moving up and so did Paton. From the stretch home it was a hard drive. Virile outdistained Guy Fisher to win by a length. Anyport hung badly at the end and did not get him out of the place by two lengths.

THIRD RACE. Dismiss, overcoming all kinds of hard luck and coming from the rear in the run from the far turn home, won the two-year-old selling race, third on the card, getting up in the final sixteenth to beat the Beverwyck Stable's two-year-old, Virile. Dismiss, who had been the far turner, was able to overtake him. Virile and Guy Fisher then appeared to have the race to themselves, but Anyport began moving up and so did Paton. From the stretch home it was a hard drive. Virile outdistained Guy Fisher to win by a length. Anyport hung badly at the end and did not get him out of the place by two lengths.

FIFTH RACE. Executor breezed home in the fifth after laying off the pace until around the stretch turn. Northern had led practically all the way, leading the field into the stretch by three lengths. Taylor, however, had made too much use of him and he had little left to stall off Executor's rush. Louise Travers ran one of her old time races closing fast in the stretch to get show money. Wooden Shoes away badly, moved around his field in the back stretch. He could not come on, however.

M'NAMARA MAKES 73 IN WESTERN GOLF TOURNEY. MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 25.—Tom McNamara of Boston and J. M. Barnes, Whitehorse Club, Philadelphia, withdrew score of 73, led the field of early starters in the Western open golf tournament at the Lakeside Country Club today. McNamara took 36 going out and 37 coming in. The next low score was that of Robert C. Fosbick of Topeka, Kan., who had 74.

GEORGE H. ROBERTSON GIVES THE REMEDIES FOR ALL AUTO TROUBLES. George H. Robertson, winner of the Vanderbilt Cup in 1907 and holder of many automobile records, in the Evening World Saturday answers all questions about machine trouble, gives traffic suggestions and maps out pleasure routes for Evening World readers. Send your auto troubles in writing to George H. Robertson, Automobile Editor.

Ritonia Clearance Sale OF Imported Suitings Formerly $30 to $50 (to Measure) $23.75 All good, fashionable patterns, matchless suit. Hudson Terminal Building. 30 Church St., cor. Day St.

SPORTING. Races Wednesday & Sat. Night. Madison Meadows, Saratoga, N. Y. Motor-racing, Saratoga, N. Y. 5:30 P.M. Saratoga, N. Y.

HIGHLANDERS.

(Continued from First Page.)

this afternoon he is on the baseball blacklist. But the White Sox and Highlanders finished up their series just the same. Bens pitched for the Sox and King Cole undertook the job for the home nine. Some 2,500 people saw them do it.

FIRST INNING—Wolfe walked. Weaver singled to right, sending Wolfe to second. Collins forced out Wolfe, Cole to Maisei. Fournier forced Collins, Boone to Peck, Weaver reaching third. Fournier stole second. Demmitt fouled to Sweeney. NO RUNS.

SECOND INNING—Schalk was safe on Peck's high throw. Blackburne was called out on strikes. Breton walked. Wolfe was called out on strikes. Sweeney made a quick throw to Mullen and caught Walsh napping off first. NO RUNS.

THIRD INNING—Weaver beat out an infield hit, Collins fled to Cree. Fournier forced Weaver, Mullen to Peck. Boone threw out Demmitt. NO RUNS.

FOURTH INNING—Schalk fled to Peck. Blackburne fled to Cree. Cree cracked a hot single past Peck. Walsh forced Breton. Peck to Boone. NO RUNS.

FIFTH INNING—Wolfe threw out on strikes. Collins singled to right. Fournier singled to right, Collins going to second. Demmitt fouled to Sweeney. NO RUNS.

SIXTH INNING—Mayer fled to Hartzell. Blackburne fled to Peck. Breton walked. Lathrop forced Breton. Maisei beat out an infield hit. Maisei stole second. Maisei out stealing third, Mayer to Breton. NO RUNS.

SEVENTH INNING—Wolfe walked. Weaver singled to centre, Wolfe going to second. Collins lined out on strikes. Demmitt walked, filling the bases. Mayer struck out. NO RUNS.

EIGHTH INNING—Peck threw out Blackburne. Breton fled to Cree. Lathrop struck out. NO RUNS.

COLE was called out on strikes. Boone singled to left. Boone stole second. Hartzell walked and Boone was out stealing third, Mayer to Breton. Cook out to Fournier unassisted. NO RUNS.

BOSTON-CHICAGO.

(Continued from First Page.)

between the Cubs and Braves. Vaughan was in the game yesterday for only one and a half innings and was in his best form because of the work out. The sun was out bright to-day and it brought the fans out in much larger numbers than on the opening day of the series. The players were all feeling on edge for the big battle and put in a fast preliminary practice.

FIRST INNING—Leach made a great running catch of Whitted's long fly to left centre. Evers was out. Vaughan to Haier. Cather singled to centre. Maranville lined to Schulte. NO RUNS.

SECOND INNING—Leach came in and got Schmidt's high one. Smith walked. Mann forced Smith, Sweeney to Corriden. Gowdy bounced to Haier unassisted. NO RUNS.

THIRD INNING—James popped to Vaughan. Whitted stroled. Evers popped to Corriden. Corriden's throw beat Cather. NO RUNS.

FOURTH INNING—James popped to Vaughan. Whitted stroled. Evers popped to Corriden. Corriden's throw beat Cather. NO RUNS.

FIFTH INNING—James struck out. Whitted bounced a single off Vaughan's glove. Evers popped to Corriden. Cather singled to centre on which Whitted went to third. Cather took second on the throw to third. Maranville beat out a slow bouncer to Sweeney. Whitted scoring and Cather went to third. Cather scored and Manville went all the way to third, when Vaughan's throw caught Zimmerman asleep on third. Maranville tried to steal home and was out to Vaughan to Bresnahan. TWO RUNS.

SIXTH INNING—Reher replaced Bresnahan for Chicago and Bresnahan went to second in place of Sweeney. Vaughan threw Schmidt out. Smith struck out. Bresnahan threw Whitted out. NO RUNS.

SEVENTH INNING—Evers fled to Good. Cather out the same way. Maranville grounded to Haier unassisted. NO RUNS.

EIGHTH INNING—Evers fled to Good. Cather out the same way. Maranville grounded to Haier unassisted. NO RUNS.

NINTH INNING—Wolfe walked. Weaver singled to centre, Wolfe going to second. Collins lined out on strikes. Demmitt walked, filling the bases. Mayer struck out. NO RUNS.

COLE was called out on strikes. Boone singled to left. Boone stole second. Hartzell walked and Boone was out stealing third, Mayer to Breton. Cook out to Fournier unassisted. NO RUNS.

Hagen Says He Owes Success To Heeding Vardon's Advice

(Continued from First Page.)

WALTER HAGEN

WALTER HAGEN, the twenty-two-year-old Rochester professional who won Francis Ouimet's national golf title at Chicago, says his success is due to heeding Harry Vardon's advice to "shoot straight to the flag." Hagen, like the famous English champion, sacrifices distance for accuracy, and the results speak for themselves.

Hagen, a well-built youth weighing about 145 pounds, doesn't play a flashy game. Probably one of his best accomplishments is his steadiness. Opposition must be very keen to rattle the steady-going young national champion. Hagen showed an impressive sign of this trait at Brookline last year when some one told the Rochester youth that Ray, the English champion, did the links in 70.

"That's great!" said Hagen, and he went out for his afternoon round and peeled off a 71. Those who saw Hagen win his title at Midlothian say that his putting was simply marvellous. But to hear Hagen say it he was just consistent on the greens. But it was Hagen's sensational putting that gave him a new course record for Midlothian at 68 strokes on his first championship round. On that round Hagen thought nothing of sinking fifteen and twenty-foot putts. On the sixteenth hole he ran down a thirty-footer, to the amazement of a large gallery.

After making his record 68 round, Hagen returned scores of 74, 75 and 78, for a total of 290, which gave him a one-stroke advantage over Chick Evans, who came in second in the national championships. Walter Hagen was born in Rochester, took up the game of golf early and has been playing ever since. Hagen first showed signs of his ability at Brookline, where many said he would be heard from. And young Mr. Hagen let the old players hear from him sooner than they expected. As George Low, the Baltusrol veteran, puts it, "We older pros must now make way for Hagen and the younger stars."

It was announced at Minneapolis last night that Hagen will not participate in the Western open golf tournament which begins there to-day.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE. AT ROCHESTER. BALTIMORE: 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 - 3. ROCHESTER: 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 1. Batteries—Morrisette and Irwin; Keeffe and Williams.

AT BUFFALO. PROVIDENCE: 0 0 0 0 0 3 2 0 0 - 5. BUFFALO: 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 1. Batteries—Mays and J. Onalow; Rader and Stephens.

AT MONTREAL. NEWARK: 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 0. MONTREAL: 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 - 1. Batteries—Schacht and Smith; Dale and Madden.

AT TORONTO. JERSEY CITY: 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 0. TORONTO: 0 1 1 2 0 0 0 0 - 4. Batteries—Gilbert and Tyler; Hoern and Kelly.

Champion Kid Williams Booked for Four Bouts

Bantam Title Holder to Box Once in Brooklyn and Three Times in Philadelphia.

By John Pollock.

KID WILLIAMS, world's bantam-weight champion, has four matches booked. On Sept. 7 he will meet Young Solberg for ten rounds at the Broadway Sporting Club of Brooklyn. Williams's other three fights will take place before the Olympia A. C. of Philadelphia. On Sept. 14 he will box Louisiana and on Sept. 28 he will take on Kid Herman of Pekin, Ill. The Olympia club is to select his third opponent within the next three weeks. The champion will receive $4,000 for his three bouts in Philadelphia.

A ten-round battle between crack bantamweights will feature the card at the Rockaway Beach A. C. to-night when Frankie Burns and Mike Rosen, two keen Jersey City rivals, come together in the main bout of ten rounds. Burns was handed a surprise when he met Kid Taylor of Brooklyn last week, after having decisively beaten out six bantams in succession. This time he declares that he won't be taken off his guard and he predicts that he will stop Rosen.

Marty Brown, the east side fighter, has been signed up for three battles. Next Saturday night, he meets Danny Ridge at the Irving A. C. on Sept. 4 Willie Herman at the University A. C. of Cambridge and on Sept. 7 Tommy Ginty at the Olympia A. C. of Harlem.

At the Broadway Sporting Club of Brooklyn to-night Eddie Wallace and Benny Leonard will clash in the star bout. Wallace is the idol of Brooklyn's ghetto, while Leonard is regarded by his new manager, Billy Gibson, as a possible featherweight champion.

Benny Murphy, who is now managing Joe Jeannette's affairs, has arranged three bouts for the clever Hoboken heavyweight, Saturday he'll cross mitts with Lester Johnson at the Broadway Sporting Club, on Sept. 7 with Cleve Hawkins at the Olympia A. C. of Montreal and on Sept. 12 with Jim Smith at Martinsville, O.

Joe Rivers, who began training at Los Angeles yesterday for his fight with Willie Beecher, Labor Day, signed to fight Joe Mandot twenty rounds in New Orleans on Oct. 3. They will meet in the New Arena. The articles call for 132 ring side.

When Gunboat Smith arrives from abroad this week he will not be kept idle long for the want of an opponent, as Sam Fitzpatrick, manager of Charley Weinert, will be at the docks to meet the Gunner and will band him a challenge on behalf of the Newark heavyweight. Weinert, who has seen Smith in most of his fights around here, has a very decided opinion on the outcome of a contest with the Gunboat.

Los Angeles and Thomas C. Bundy, Los Angeles, beat Dean Mathey, Cranford, N. J., and George M. Church, New York, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. All-comes' final singles championship tournament: Second round (concluded): H. E. Brookes, Australia, by default. Third round: H. C. Johnson, Boston, beat B. C. Hoppin, New York, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4. F. C. Inman, New York, beat D. Cunningham, New York, 6-0, 6-1, 6-4. G. F. Touchard, New York, beat W. L. Fate, New York—6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 25.—Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco and Thomas C. Bundy of Los Angeles successfully defended their titles of lawn tennis doubles champions of the country to-day by defeating Dean Mathey of Cranford, N. J., and G. M. Church of New York in straight sets. The scores were 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Except for brief periods in the first and third sets McLoughlin and Bundy were masters of the situation throughout. Both Mathey and Church showed flashes of brilliancy and kept down the scores by remarkable court covering. They aimed nearly all their returns at Bundy, but the little Southern Californian stood the fire stoutly and sent back stinging shots. McLoughlin was wild at times, but backed up his partner on nearly all occasions. The points were as follows: First Set: McLoughlin and Bundy—4 4 3 4 0 1 5 7 4 4—36-6. Mathey and Church—6 0 5 0 4 4 3 5 1 1—29-4. Second Set: McLoughlin and Bundy—2 4 4 4 4 0 4 28-4. Mathey and Church—4 0 2 1 2 0 4 2—15-2. Third Set: McLoughlin and Bundy—4 6 2 4 4 3 0 4 2 4—33-6. Mathey and Church—2 4 4 0 2 5 4 2—13-8.

In the meantime singles matches were being run off on all the courts, with the contest between R. Norris Williams 2d of Philadelphia and W. M. Johnston of San Francisco as the feature. Williams was forced to play his highest tennis in the first three sets, for Johnston tied the score in the second set. The Californian weakened in the last set and Williams ran out the match three sets to one. Nearly all the morning matches were decided in straight sets. As soon as the play opened the officials announced the default of Norman E. Brookes, the Australian, whose place in the second round in singles had been kept open two days. Summary: National doubles championship, challenge round: Maurice E. McLoughlin, San Francisco.

Table with columns for Club, W, L, P, and Standings for various leagues including National League, American League, and International League.