TICHBORNE'S RETURN MYSTERY TO ROWING COLONY ON HUDSON

Columbia's Star, Declared Ineligible Few Days Ago, Is Back in Boat. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 11.—How Tichborne, star Columbia varsity oarsman who was declared ineligible on Tuesday, could suddenly be declared eligible again yesterday was the mystery which has the entire rowing colony on the Hudson by its ears.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Because of Terrible Backache. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pain in my sides, and terrible backache so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."

engineering school at Litchfield, Conn., went to No. 3, displacing Munroe. This new combination seems to Rice to be one of much promise, although he will not predict that it has more than a fighting chance. With the arrival of the Syracuse squad things began to liven up considerably, and yesterday the Orange varsity and freshman eights went out for their first long row.

Genuine Priestley Fine English Blue Serge from Bradford, England. When serges were scarce I was able to get hold of ten pieces of fine dark blue and five pieces of a handsome black, each yard stamped with Priestley's label, and no tailor in the city of New York advertises to sell Priestley's serge under $25.00 or up. They were bought originally with the intention of selling them for $15.50 for a single suit, as a leader.

The season is late and I want to close these out, suit and extra trousers, to order...
