Short Fight Predicted When Cowler and Smith Get Together To-Night.

TOM COWLER, whose chief claim to fame at present rests upon the fact that Jim Corbett has been touting him as a coming champion and has put him through a season of coaching, meets Gunboat Smith to-night.

Western Tour Slowed Up Yanks; Donovan Plans to Change Lineup

Manager of New York Americans Says He Doesn't Know What Is Matter With Team

By Bozeman Bulger. JUST what it was that happened to the Yanks out in that western country depends is unable to say, but the fact remains that they came back to us withered in the branches, the props shot from under them and a complete absence of pep.

for buying a quail run for next fall's shooting, and I expect to be in jarring distance of the Phillies long before we get back home. And I'll tell you another thing, the club I expect to be fighting with is New York. If this race doesn't come down to a fight between the Braves and the Giants I'll be a mighty mistaken man.

M'LOUGHLIN STARTS PRACTISING TO DEFEND TITLE AT LONGWOOD

His First Appearance on Turf Courts Since His Defeat by Williams.

BOSTON, July 28.—Favorites came through successfully in the morning play on the Longwood tennis courts to-day. The hardest fought match was the contest between R. C. Seaver of Boston and G. C. Caner of Philadelphia, which the local veteran won. Other matches were nearly all settled in straight sets.

Most of Fashionable Strings Are in Saratoga or on Their Way—Another Madden "Good Tune" Fails.

By Vincent Treanor. FEW of the big stables are left to finish out the week at the Aqueduct track. As a result, selling platers, or the poor men's horses, will get a chance to win their board bills from now on.

FEDERAL LEAGUE ISSUES WARNING TO ITS PLAYERS

President Gilmore Orders Magistrates to Suspend Any Men Not Giving Best Efforts.

CHICAGO, July 28.—President Gilmore of the Federal League has notified players of the organization that they can no longer shirk their duties by hiding behind their so-called "iron-clad" contracts. In a notice issued to-day he orders club presidents to suspend players who are not giving their best efforts to their clubs. The notice reads:

THE Dundee-Britton bout, scheduled for Thursday evening of this week, has been postponed until next Tuesday to give Johnny a little more time to recover from the effect of Joe Rivers's punches.

THE speed boats are beginning to tune up for the Gold Challenge Cup race, which will be held on Manhasset Bay in the middle of August.

Commodore Blackton is the only competitor who will race with last year's boats, as he thinks Mrs. Blackton's Baby Speed Demon II, and his own Baby Heliance V, fast enough to win in spite of all the new and improved marvels of much greater power.

Charles Smith, the famous Algonac builder, has turned out a new speed wonder, six feet longer and with a lighter hull, equipped with a Sterling engine of newer model and more power.

FREDDY Welsh has always dodged one lightweight, in spite of his willingness to meet the alleged "tough ones" in decisionless bouts.

The prettiest game of the year, so far as pitching is concerned, was played at Washington between the Senators and Cleveland, Gallia of Washington was triumphant, letting the Indians get a single hit and making a shut out.

MARSTON AND SEELEY TIE FOR LOW SCORE.

MANCHESTER, Vt., July 28.—Golfers from many sections of the country were among the 112 starters in the eighteenth qualifying round in the tournament for the first President's Cup at the Wentworth Club to-day.

K. C. SEEKS INJUNCTION AGAINST BASH COMPTON

ST. LOUIS, July 28.—An effort to induce Bash Compton, outfielder, who jumped from the Kansas City Association team to the St. Louis Federals, to return to the Kansas City team was made to-day by Montague Lyon, attorney for the local Federals.

LIGHT AIRS AGAIN FOR RESOLUTE-VANITIE RACE.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 25.—Light air still prevailed when the cup defending candidates Resolute and Vanitie went out to Brenton's Reef Lightship to-day for the second in the race series off this port.

MADDEN LEADS WESTERNER AT 3-CUSHION BILLIARDS.

The first night's play in the three-cushion billiard match between Coleman F. Madden of this city and John Doyle of Detroit resulted in a victory for the local man at Doyle's Academy last night. The visiting player obtained a big lead in the early part of the contest, as his execution was splendid and his safety play very strong.

AQUEDUCT ENTRIES.
