

300 SALOONS QUIT ON OCT. 1 DUE TO INCREASED TAX

Pint of Beer in Tin Pail Will Be Raised a Nickel To Pay License.

It'll be a sad blow to rubbers of the growler! Soon the 16-cent pint will be a thing of the past in Greater New York. The Retail Liquor Dealers' Central Association and allied organizations have decided that the huge tin pails of beer are eating up the legitimate profits of the business, and, pressed by the increased State tax

What Dyspeptics Should Eat

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity, therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, should try a meal of any food or foods in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. Do not dose an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs but get rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisurated magnesia as directed above, and note remarkable results.

Bisurated Magnesia, No. 25 E. 20th St., N. Y. C. - 437.

and the war tax, have decided that the price of a pint will go from 16 to 17 cents Oct. 1. At several meetings held in the past few weeks the various organizations rallied the measure which was determined on by the Central Association, and to-day it was announced that the Bronx liquor dealers had assented. The associations of Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, Richmond and the Bronx have now agreed to the increase in price and in a few days announcement cards will appear back of bar.

Despite the increase in the price of spirits, the liquor dealers view the future with much gloom, for it has been practically decided by over 300 saloon keepers to give up business after Oct. 1, when the State excise tax will be raised from $1,500 to $1,600 a year. The owners of hundreds of saloons in the city have been hardily sking out an existence, and the State increase, combined with the war tax they have been paying, has axed their profits away and created deficits enough to compel them to close their doors.

It is safe to say that at least 300 saloons in the city will go out of business on Oct. 1, said P. F. Keller, the President of the Central Association to-day, "and it is pretty certain that after a few months' tryout of the increased license at least 300 more will give up. Then there will be a few hundred quit throughout the State. The increase is supposed to be for a year only, to help make up the State financial deficit, but it is probable the total revenue to the State will be less than ever because of the number of men compelled to go out of business. It seems little will be gained by the increase."

Statisticians gathered by the liquor dealers' associations show that the overhead charges in saloons in the city have increased almost 100 per cent in the last ten years. Even in the poorest sections of the city the demand has been for bright electric lights, finely appointed fixtures and good, substantial, free lunches. Against this there has been a considerable falling off in the sale of whiskey, the most profitable of the saloon commodities. One who investigated the matter before the increase in the price of a pint was decided upon pointed out that in the average saloon where two bartenders are employed the war tax of 50 cents a barrel on beer amounts to $20 a week and the tax on light wines to about $5 a week. With the State tax of $15 a week making a total of $60 weekly in taxes alone, he reported to the associations that many small saloon keepers were "floored" and the better places were threatened unless something was done.

Several measures were discussed before the pint was considered. It was decided that the size of a glass of beer could not be cut much and the price would not bear an increase. Statistics were then gathered on the number of pints sold and the quanty given out, and it was found that here was the big loss. And so, in the latest effort to meet the heavy taxation, the pint consumer must pay. Rejection is expected as a matter of course in many quarters of the city, particularly in those places where laboring men have been accustomed for years to get their evening pint for a dime, but most of the dealers are in the association and the lower-ups are bringing their influence to bear on those who are not. The dealers hope the raise will be locally unanimous and believe they will win out against all protests.

WORKERS STRIKE WHEN GIVEN AN 8-HOUR DAY

Standard Oil Employees Expected to Do as Much in Eight as Nine.

"Now, then," said Charles N. Schaeffer, the bustling superintendent of the Devoe plant of the Standard Oil Company in Long Island City, addressing the 700 employees of the concern late yesterday afternoon, "beginning to-morrow, you work eight hours a day instead of nine. You know we have increased your wages from 6 to 10 per cent. All the company asks of you is that you try to do as much work in eight hours as you formerly did in nine."

Mr. Schaeffer's announcement was met with cold, clammy silence. And when the plant opened to-day none of the 100 can makers, the most vital department of the whole works, was on hand. Consequently the other 600 workmen were laid off.

Representatives of the strikers say they were driven to the top of their speed in the nine-hour day. "Eight hours' work in eight hours," is the strikers' motto.

COINCIDENCE LEADS TO BOY'S VINDICATION

Prosecutor Proves That Accused Lad Was Incompetent and Sets Him Free.

To the accidental proximity of two forged papers, exhibits in different cases, on the desk of Assistant District Attorney Wallman, Otto Kuhl, eighteen, of No. 218 East Forty-fourth Street, owes his release to-day from the Tombs.

The youth was employed by Gabriel Weil of No. 37 Madison Avenue. Last May Weil shipped some furniture to Indianapolis, Ia., by the Adams Express Company, to collect on delivery. When he failed to receive the company's money order, Weil learned that the money order had been cashed, and by some one purporting to represent him. The cashier of the express company's branch identified Kuhl as the boy who got the money, despite Kuhl's protestation of innocence.

Among a batch of indictments sent to Mr. Wallman yesterday to prepare for trial was one against Phillip Rubin, who was charged with forging

HIGHWAYMEN IN PARK.

John Foyers, twenty, of No. 314 West Forty-sixth Street and William Smith, twenty-one, of No. 141 West Sixty-second Street were held for the Grand Jury in $1,000 bail each to-day for highway robbery by Magistrate Lewis in the Yorkville police court. Within 100 feet of the Arsenal Police Station in Central Park, John Foyers, fifteen years old, a telephone operator of No. 341 West Fifty-second Street, was held up at 1:30 o'clock last night by two men. While one kept a hand over the boy's mouth, the other relieved him of a gold watch valued at $22. The boy screamed and Policemen Holland and Chase and landed the men. The watch, it is said, was found in Foyers' pocket. Foyers identified Foyers and Smith as the robbers. They pleaded not guilty.

B.R.T. OFFICIAL INDICTED FOR NOT STOPPING TRAINS

Dempsey Charged With Failure to Obey an Order of Service Commission.

County Judge Lewis received to-day from the Brooklyn Grand Jury an indictment charging John J. Dempsey, No. 188 Berkeley Place, Brooklyn, traffic manager for the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, with the misdemeanor of failing to obey the order of the Public Service Commission, charged Feb. 18, 1915, directing the company to stop Fulton Street express trains at Third Street and Fifth Avenue. Investigator for the Public Service Commission, certified that on May 18, 1915, he had watched express trains at that station and that some of them had stopped. Dempsey claimed that the order to stop the trains never reached him. It was brought out that the Public Service Commission had sent the order to former President Caidwellwood. When arraigned before Judge Lewis, Dempsey pleaded not guilty. Bail was furnished in the sum of $1,000.
