

MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL.

To Be Erected by the Guggenheims for Use of Private Patients.

The directors of Mount Sinai Hospital announced yesterday that work would immediately be begun on a new building for private patients. The new building, which will be the sixteenth in the hospital group, is the gift of the Messrs. Guggenheim as a memorial to their parents. It will be known as the Guggenheim Memorial and will accommodate one hundred patients.

The entire cost will be met by the Guggenheims by the consolidation of earlier donations for the construction of a building now used for private patients and hereafter to be devoted to other purposes and a new gift of $200,000.

In addition to the building it was announced that Mount Sinai Hospital received for the General Building Fund $25,000 from Murray Guggenheim and $5,000 each from several of his brothers.
