

DEATH OF PHILIP SPEED.

Popular Member of World's Staff
Victim of Bright's Disease.

Arrangements are being made today for the funeral of Philip Speed, long prominent in metropolitan newspaperdom.

Mr. Speed, who was forty-three years old, died last night in the Smith Infirmary, Staten Island. He was a native Kentuckian and began his newspaper work with the Courier Journal, Louisville. After filling important posts in New York and Philadelphia, he returned to The World, with which he was connected at the time of his death.

Mr. Speed lived at No. 166 Davis Avenue, West New Brighton. His widow was Miss May Mason of Virginia. Her father is Judge A. N. Mason of the noted Virginia family of that name. There are two daughters, Miss May Mason and Miss Jane Ewing Speed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Speed, members of an old Kentucky family. One of his sisters, Miss Nell Speed, who died some years ago, was an author of children's stories. There are three brothers, Keats Speed, managing editor of the New York Press, Ewing Speed and Dr. J. S. Speed of Chesterfield, Va. Their mother is living.

Among his newspaper associates Mr. Speed held an enviable position, not only because of his marked ability shown in any task to which he was assigned, but also because of a personality which invariably won for him the tribute of affection and esteem.

OBITUARY NOTES.

David M. Knoeland, fifty-four years old, estimated to be worth $5,000,000, died yesterday in Phipps, Wis.

Marie Dardenne, many years ago a star of the German speaking stage, died last night in Philadelphia, aged eighty-eight.

Irvine Maguire, sixty-two years of age, for thirty years a member of the New Jersey State Board of Assessors, died yesterday in Camden.

John Brent, Mayor of Trenton from 1871 to 1875, died at his home in that city yesterday in his seventy-ninth year.

Henry C. Diehl, seventy-three years old, an expert in railroad management, died Tuesday night in Montclair, N. J.

John Berry for sixty-five years a member of the New York bar, and one of the incorporators of the City Bar Association, is dead at his home, No. 78 Morton Street, Brooklyn, aged eighty-five.

To Enter Macy's with Greatest Comfort and avoid the great crowds at the 34th Street and Broadway Arcade Entrance, we suggest that our customers use any of the other five entrances, which are located as follows:
Main Entrance, on Broadway, on 35th St., which brings you to the Main Aisle, where attractive Holiday Goods are displayed on various tables.
Entrance corner 35th St. and Broadway. Leading directly to elevators which go to all floors, including the restaurant 34th Street Entrance, a few doors down from Broadway, brings you into the heart of the store.
Cigar Department entrance, on 35th St. Just a few steps above Broadway.
Further west on 34th St. is another entrance, convenient to the elevators in the rear of the store, leading to all floors.
It is our aim to make your Holiday Shopping as comfortable as possible, and to this end we respectfully ask your cooperation.

Extraordinary Just 69 Fitted Bags & Cases in a Clearance
A HASTY pre-holiday inventory of our beautiful leather goods stocks reveals 69 fitted bags and cases that just happen to be left after dozens of similar ones have been sold. Rather than continue to hold what are the last of discontinued lines, we've priced them considerably below Macy's usual low prices: low enough to move them in a day or two.
The bags are to all intents and purposes, new, attractive and decidedly smart. All fitted beautifully with a variety of toilet article fittings in Nickel, Ebony or Celluloid. Bags for both men and women in a variety of fine leathers. A Christmas opportunity "par excellence."
