Holzwasser Home Talks No. 19

One part of our business we take great pride in—outfitting young couples about to start housekeeping. A natural bond of sympathy seems to exist between the world and young lovers. We've made this "open house" to the just-married—made the prices lower, the terms less. They always repay us by recommending their friends. We expect to do a land-office business during Leap Year. We've taken Dan Cupid into our confidence. Recently accessible from West Side by 5th or 8th St. Crossroads Cars.

BENZOMINT

WEE JAKIE SCHARF
IS LITERARY GENIUS
OF THE BOYS' CLUB

Won His Spurs and Watch by Writing About His Organization.

FUND NEARS $100,000.

Saturday Night's Big Benefit Will Materially Swell That Amount.

If you want to know what time it is, just go over to No. 730 East Ninth Street and ask Jacob Scharf, thirteen years old. He knows, and he'll be glad to tell you. Proudly he'll pull out from his pocket a brand new, shiny watch and announce the sun verdict with a fine air of superiority which at once makes him the envy and despair of all the other boys of the neighborhood.

The reason Jacob is so proud of his new timepiece is that it marks him a person of literary ability and prominence, for he has gained it by winning first prize in the letter writing contest among the boys of the east side, which was conducted by Supt. Louis De Forest, Downer of the Boys' Club of Avenue A, in connection with the campaign of the Boys' Club Association for a $500,000 fund to improve that organization and the Newboys' Home Club, at Eleventh Street and Second Avenue.

The letters submitted in the contest by the members of the Boys' Club, at Tenth Street and Avenue A, contained many a scribbled sheet that is worthy of classification as a "human document." For nearly a week the boys have been scribbling away night and day polishing their literary efforts, and now that Jacob's has proved the best, he is even more prominent in the neighborhood than Sammie Adee, who won fame by dancing with Ruth St. Denis, or Sammie Glazer, who gained his glory by heading the delegation of boys who called on Mayor Mitchel.

THE HUMAN INTEREST LETTER THAT WON PRIZE.

Jacob Scharf's prize-winning letter was as follows:
"Mr. Downer,
"Dear Sir: I will write to you to-day of how I became acquainted with the Boys' Club and what I think of the proposed annex of the club.
"On a Friday, I can't just remember the date, but it was in the year 1913, as I passed on Avenue A I saw a small boy, about seven years old, standing in front of the Boys' Club. Being of an inquisitive character, I wanted to know what that boy was standing there for. The little man stood half perplexed and half amused. We're going to see movies, mister." The man displayed a smile, "I thought it was something like that, but what time does the show begin?" "Well, I dunno; sometimes it begins 7 o'clock and sometimes half-past 5."
"The man took out his watch and consulted it for a few seconds and then remarked: "You had better get some, Johnny, have your supper and get warm, then come back." The little fellow answered somewhat reluctantly: "But they will take my place, then I will not get a good seat." The man then took the little boy into a candy store and bade the boy choose a cent's worth of candy.

"That was anything left over I will eat it." He then said "good night" and the last I saw of him he was running around the corner holding the long stick. I then determined to find out what kind of building it was that had been spoken of. I learned that information on Monday and immediately saved up 19 cents for a Junior ticket, which I learned admitted me to the gymnasium from 2 to 8 P. M., to the game room from 8 to 10 P. M., and to moving picture shows once in two weeks we must give the stars and tees a chance to see their show.

Three years later, I am now twelve years old and still am a member of the Boys' Club. Our club is now crowded with various members. We are going to have a new building, a new gymnasium, a new moving picture place and a large swimming pool. We will now have room for 80,000 many hundred more boys. If you want to have a good time, get healthier and stronger and more intelligent, join this club. It is situated on Avenue A and Tenth Street.

"The Boys' Club for almost forty years has taken in any boy who roamed the streets for a lot of New York's poorest quarters and taught him how to employ his leisure time properly. It is realized that the faults which so often wreck bright prospects are committed not during the hours of school and business, but in the leisure which is so good who know how to use it.
"The Boys' Club helps a boy to form his career; helps to fit him for a more worthy career; gives him a chance to follow it; guards his leisure whilst he is following, and sets his ambition to the good of himself and those to whom he belongs or who belong to him.
"The Boys' Club Association, 361 A St. N. Y. C.
The following boys' letters won them honorable mention: Israel Kaplan, Julius Barasch, Max Sechter, Peter Sammartino and M. Witelnick. Max Sechter wrote:
"Nobody in the world thinks how happy I am of this club. I am very fond of its building, checkers and pool. I love the show last Friday. Can you tell me if there is another club better than this one in all the world? I surely pay 2 cents in 3 weeks. I promise it. I'd like to see the building up already and so do everybody. I am right fond of the club."
"No. 305-7 East Fifth Street."

IT WILL BE A MONSTER BENEFIT FOR FUND.
Great things financially are expected by the workers for the fund from the big benefit entertainment that is to be given Saturday night at the Boys' Club of Ave. A, Tenth Street and Ave. A, under the direction of H. F. Holtzhusen. A long array of theatrical stars and prominent people of sporting and newspaper circles will be present to help in the entertainment.
By courtesy of Pat Casey, Miss Lillian Russell and Valeska Suratt will lend their beauty and vocal talents to the affair, sharing the headline honors.
The song writing contingent will be headed by no less a person than Irving Berlin, who will bring with him a trio to sing his latest song hits. Fred Fischer, who has many a popular song to his credit, will also be "among those present" and Collyer will sing the latest hits of the Leo Feist Music Publishing Company.
The eyes of the boys of the club will no doubt be centered upon Frank Moran, probable contender for the heavyweight boxing championship, who may be Jess Willard's next opponent. Moran will referee two wrestling bouts between mat artists from the collection of stars now showing at the Manhattan Opera House. Cartoonists R. Goldberg and better Ed and Alfred Frush will show off the tricks of their trade on a blackboard and the Russian Balalaika Orchestra will play, through the courtesy of Samuels Bros. Improvisors.

Miss Marcel Albus, through courtesy of her manager, Ben Atwell, will sing her latest songs, accompanied by the orchestra, and more music will be provided by Irving Golden, a popular singer singing Witmark & Sons songs hits, and by Lew Kempper, Fred Schram and Charlie Bayha in a musical sketch.
The comedy of the entertainment will be furnished largely by Agnes Dunne and F. Conkright. In an entertaining skit, and by Ed. Appold, comedy boxer.
Arthur Liebstein, European violinist, will play several of his own compositions. Madeline Harrison will give artistic dances, accompanied by the Balalaika Orchestra, and the modern songs will be illustrated by Clifton Webb and Gloria Goodwin, who has been understood to Mrs. Vernon Castle.

One of the guests of honor will be Joe Hedgus, who will open the evening with an address. Stephen Grant Stone, former star of the Columbia University football team, has secured a donation of cigars, cigars and refreshments for those who will witness the entertainment.
Tickets to the benefit performance are being sold for $1 and $2 at the campaign headquarters, No. 57 Chambers Street, and by Supt. Downer, at the Boys' Club, Tenth Street and Avenue A.
Up to noon yesterday the total of the fund was $5,193.55. A number of large individual donations is expected before the week ends.

Peerless Bowling Club Hall.
On next Saturday evening, Jan. 29, the Peerless Bowling Club of the Bronx will their annual ball at Schmitz's Casino, No. 2944 Westchester Avenue, being sold for $1 and $2 at the campaign headquarters, No. 57 Chambers Street, and by Supt. Downer, at the Boys' Club, Tenth Street and Avenue A.
The officers of the club are: Louis Passante, President; Adolph Helms, Vice President; William Altmann, Secretary; Louis G. Munch, Treasurer; Thomas Schotzabel, Assistant Treasurer; and Charles Ploch, Sergeant at Arms.

FIRE DRIVES OUT MANY.

Blaze in Factory Building Spreads to Tenement.
Fire in the six-story factory building at Nos. 513-515 West Twenty-ninth Street early to-day spread to the five-story tenement and three-story addition next door and drove eleven families to the street.
The blaze was discovered by Policeman Moran of the West Thirty-seventh Street Station. It started on the sixth floor in the premises of the Mayhews & Stephens Co., manufacturers of a stained glass substitute, and dropped to the floor below, occupied by the Charles J. Bogue Electrical Supply Co. After Deputy Chief Martin turned in a second alarm the fire was put out. The damage is estimated at $15,000.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—do this you must reach your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.
Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent. of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.
They bring about that experience of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by every one, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.
You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
