

DEATH AVENUE'S FOES GAIN IN NEW DRIVE ON STATE'S LAWMAKERS

Assembly Committee Reports
Boylan-Ellenbogen Bill for Track Removal.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)
ALBANY, March 23.—The fight to clear Death Avenue and Riverside Drive of New York Central tracks was advanced to-day before the Legislature, when the Boylan-Ellenbogen bill was favorably reported by the Assembly Cities Committee in accordance with a decision reached after a struggle that lasted until after midnight this morning. The Senate Committee on Public Service will report the bill after its next meeting.

This bill declares the tracks a nuisance and allows the city and the railroad company fifteen months to come to an agreement as to their relocation. If no agreement is reached, the Borough President of Manhattan is authorized to tear up the tracks all the way through Eleventh Avenue and along Riverside Drive.

The temper of the Assembly is to pass the measure promptly, but in the Senate it is held back by Senator Brown of Watertown. A technical motion by Senator Boylan yesterday to hasten consideration in that body was checked by an objection from Senator Brown and the bill compelled to take the slow, regular course.

All the influence of railroad representatives is being exerted to delay as usual this renewed effort to clear away the dangerous and unsightly tracks. A measure similar to this, the Saxe bill, was passed ten years ago, but juggled into ineffectiveness. Another bill got through the Assembly last year, but was killed in the Senate. A determined city government and public now demand action.

RECRUITING URGED BY IRISH BISHOP IN LENTEN LETTERS

Dr. Healy of Tuam Especially Urges Irishmen to Be Ready to Resist Germans.

DUBLIN, March 16 (Associated Press).—The Irish Roman Catholic Bishops in their Lenten pastoral letters make the most emphatic exhortation in favor of recruiting. Dr. Healy, Archbishop of Tuam, hopes that while the people will till their fields they will also be ready to fight for them against all comers, especially against the Germans.

"Irishmen are able to fight," he writes, "as they have well proved on every battlefield in Europe. They do not want their fertile acres seized by the foe. What is to save them but the strong arms and courageous hearts of the Irish people and their allies?"

He hopes that they will rally to the flag, "not by compulsion or coercion, but from a sense of duty as becomes free men."

Cardinal Logue speaks of the war as "not only the greatest and most destructive war in history, but a war that seems to have stirred to their lowest depths the worst and most depraved of human passions. The distinction between soldier and civilian seems to be ignored. Even neutrals and their property are no longer immune from destruction. Peaceful citizens travelling by sea with their wives and children are sent to the bottom without warning. Men, old and young, helpless women and innocent children, often in their beds at night, are made victims of a sudden and terrible death."

The Bishop of Limerick in his pastoral, predicts that the war will leave the world in a condition of direst poverty, and speaks of the storm which will break over European society when the war is over.

"If anyone thinks," he says, "that the millions of working men trained to arms in Europe will settle down peacefully to starvation at the end of the war in order to help reamass fortunes for their 'betters,' he may have a rude awakening."

LONDON, March 23.—It is reported that the Gallopier lightship, at the mouth of the Thames, has not been torpedoed, as was reported by Lloyd's, but has been withdrawn from its station.

AMBASSADOR PAGE PROTESTS ARREST OF AMERICANS IN ITALY

ROME (via Paris), March 22.—Thomas Nelson Page, American Ambassador to Italy, to-day visited Baron

Sonnino, the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, to make representations regarding cases of Americans who complained of ill treatment in Italy. Since the beginning of the war several Americans have been arrested on suspicion, two cases of arrest occurring at Como, where difficulty was experienced in communicating with American Consuls and the arrested Americans were held for several days before being able to prove their identity. Other Americans have been expelled from Italy.

Special attention was drawn to the case of Harry Montagner, who was denounced by the military authorities and whose expulsion was desired and insisted upon, despite the efforts of the American Ambassador to have it revoked. Prominent Americans and Italians have testified that Mr. Montagner is a distinguished student of Italian history, that he has been noted for his filial sentiments and that he has organized a celebration of the Alpine clubs on one of the mountain peaks.

Baron Sonnino promised that all the cases mentioned by the Ambassador would be examined again in the most friendly spirit, as Italy relations in the continuance of the best relations with the United States.
