

Bolm Injured, Ballet Russe Changes Bill

By Sylvester Rawling. ANOTHER bit of bad luck fell upon the Ballet Russe at the Metropolitan Opera house last night...

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to be able to watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallown complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

HELP WANTED—MALE. MECHANIC—Toolmaker, machinist, engine lathe hands and machine tool repair men. High wages, factory in Newark, N. J. only competent, steady mechanics wanted.

dered by his physician to stop dancing for the present because of an injured knee. In consequence, the programme had to be upset at the last minute, and John Brown, the Comptroller of the Metropolitan Opera Company, for the second time this week had to appear before the curtain with an explanation and an apology.

Timothy Mather Spelman II, gave a composer's recital at the Funch and Judy Theatre yesterday afternoon, accompanying himself at the piano.

There was a joint recital at Aeolian Hall last night by Paula Reed, soprano; Lisbet Hoffmann, pianist, and Theodore von Hemert, baritone, with Max Lieblich their accompanist at the piano.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS REFUND SHORTAGES

Comptroller Travis by Delving into Accounts During Past Year Gets Back $48,000. ALBANY, April 14.—Examinations into municipal accounts by attaches of the State Comptroller's office have resulted in causing more than $48,000 to be returned to the villages, towns and cities, according to a special report made to the Legislature to-day by Eugene M. Travis, State Comptroller.
