

Plays for the Coming Week.

MARIE TEMPEST comes to Maxine Elliott's Theatre on Monday night in "A Lady's Name," a comedy by Cyril Harcourt.

Miss Tempest will have the role of a novelist who, in search of material for a new book, advertises for a husband, notwithstanding the fact that she is already engaged.

The candidates for her hand prove to be a wealthy explorer named Corkoran and his butler. By appealing to her predilection for adventure, the butler prevails upon Miss Vere to attend a tea in the kitchen of Corkoran's home.

Corkoran discovering the fact tries to induce her to join him in the dining-room with other friends, but she eludes both and escapes to her own rooms. Complications arise when her fiance discovers her with two club fellows. In the supporting cast will be W. Graham Brown, Lillian Cavanaugh, Daisy Belmont, Sybil Frisbee, Ruth Draper, Beryl Mercer, Henry Warwick, Rex MacDougal, Harry Lambert and Almeron Griez.

"Molly O," an operetta, with book and lyrics by Harry B. and Robert.

AMUSEMENTS.

Ladies in Daytime

Gentlemen at Night AND ALL DAY SUNDAY. Turkish and Russian Baths, with Expert Swedish Massage.

Ladies and Gentlemen DO YOU SWIM? Swimming Lessons for Ladies 10.30 A.M. to 12 P.M. Men 7 P.M. to 10.30 A.M.

50c Per Lesson SWIM AS LONG AS YOU LIVE

HAIRDRESSING AND MANICURING. SOLE BY EXPERT ATTENDANTS. BRUSH FOR PINKY BOOKLET.

THE EVERARD BATHS 28 W. 28th St. at 5th Ave.

DANCING CARNIVAL

Open Daily 11 A.M. to 11 P.M. 200 LADY AND GENTLEMEN. Not a class lesson, but a special instruction for each pupil.

Private Lessons in strictly 50c. Bowling alleys, billiards and pocket billiards. Special alleys and tables for exclusive use.

DANCING CARNIVAL Grand Central Palace, Lexington Ave. The 4th St. Entrance.

ROLLER SKATING

including SKATES 25c. The third floor of the Grand Central Palace is devoted to skating.

OPEN AFTERNOONS AND EVENINGS. CLIPPING MACHINE. SKATE AS LONG AS YOU LIVE.

GRAND CENTRAL PALACE

11 to 11 MADISON SQUARE EXPO. IN THE GARDEN. SEE YOURSELF IN THE MOVIES.

Another picture in "THE DAWN OF THE DAY." Another picture in "THE DAWN OF THE DAY."

HIPPODROME

HIP-HIP-HOORAY. WORLDS GREATEST SHOW AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

STADIUM of the City College. American Art. 12th St. at 8th Ave. MAY 23, 24, 25, 26, 27.

CALIBAN

A Shakespeare Community Masque. A SUPERB DRAMATIC SPECTACLE. Produced by THE PLAYERS.

PALISADESPARK. OPENS TO-DAY. Greater Than Ever. New Season's Games.

LUNA

THE HEART OF CONEY ISLAND. NEW FEATURES NEW ATTRACTIONS. OPENS SATURDAY, MAY 20.

Columbia

THE BEAUTY-SPOT OF THE GAY WHITE WAY. COMMENCING MONDAY, MAY 15 DAILY. SPECIAL ALL-SUMMER PRODUCTIONS.

Lea Kelly AND A BIG COMPANY IN Hello New York.

A NEW BURLESQUE IN 2 ACTS AND 15 SCENES BY JIMIE MOORE.

IN THE CAST: Lon Hascall, James Tenbroeck, Ernest Otto, Ellen Sheridan, Amelia Payne, Nettie Nelson, Tom O'Brien, Charles H. Jones, Charles H. Jones, Charles H. Jones.

MODERATE PRICES—SEATS NOW ON SALE—SMOKING PERMITTED.

"HELLO, NEW YORK," COLUMBIA'S NEW SHOW.

The summer season at the Columbia Theatre will begin Monday afternoon with a new burlesque in two acts called "Hello, New York," written by Jimmie Moore, will be produced. The scenes represent Chatham Square, a stretch of Fourteenth Street, the lobby of the Hotel McAlpin, the exterior of the Columbia Theatre, the Public Library, the platform at the New York side of Brooklyn Bridge and Luna Park.

The Lamb's All-Star Gambol will take place at the Metropolitan Opera House on Friday night and Saturday afternoon and night. "When Mr. Shakespeare Comes to Town" will reveal a minstrel first part in a new guise, with Frank Tinney as Othello, Harney Bernard as Shylock, William Morris as Hamlet, Charles J. Ross as the hard himself, Will West as Bottom, Robert B. Mantell as Touchstone, Joseph Herbert as Malvolio, Andrew Mack as Horatio and Jeffrey Benson as Iago. Frank Doane as the two Dromios, Thomas A. Wise and many others will also appear in this number. In "Mary and Her Lamb," the comedian, Julius K. Klinge will play Mary. "Every Musical Play," Nat C. Goodwin in "Imitations of Great Men," the Lamb's Septette, "Ten Minutes of Grand Opera," with Otto Goritz and Albert Reiss; "The Model," a dramatic playlet by Byron Ongley, and "A Night at the Lamb's," will be other features.

"GLORIA'S ROMANCE" AT GLOBE MAY 22.

The latest Billie Burke serial picture, "Gloria's Romance," in process of filming at the George Kleins Studios for the past six months, will have its New York opening at the Globe Theatre on May 22. The Evening World will publish the story of this serial each week on Monday. The Globe will show the various episodes in weekly instalments.

"ON THE MEXICAN BORDER" PLAY AT THE LEXINGTON.

"On the Mexican Border," a spectacular melodrama, will be the attraction at the Lexington Theatre, with matinees on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The play tells of John Swiftwind, an educated Mexican Indian, who is assistant surgeon in the United States army post in Douglas, Ariz. He suspects the chief surgeon of the post of inoculating a half-breed Mexican woman with typhus germs to study the disease. The chief surgeon had married a young nurse in Russia, whom he now believes dead. While on the way to the post the stage coach is attacked by bandits and he saves the life of a young girl. He finds out that she is addicted to the morphine habit, sympathizes with her and marries her. She accidentally injects typhus germs, but recovers. Her husband contracts the fever and dies. Swiftwind, disgusted with civilization, returns to his own people, where he learns that they are planning to attack the United States army post. He decides to ride to the post and spread the alarm, but dies on his horse. His place is taken by another, who saves the post.

PROCTOR AND PALACE VAUDEVILLE BILLS.

For the early part of next week an "all girl" programme will be given at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre. Some of the entertainers will be Blossom Seeley in new songs, Catherine Hayes and Sabel Jonsson in "Childhood Days" and Black and White, girl acrobats. Proctor's Fifty-eighth Street Theatre will have, in addition to a movie feature, Sidney Payne and company in "The Trenches," heading the vaudeville bill. For the latter part of the week Hilja Schoen and company in "Springtime" and the feature, Proctor's One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre will present the "Belmont Ponies" in songs and dances; Prince Charles, the intelligent monkey; Fox and Welles, comedians; and Sidney Payne and company in "Neutral."

The photo play at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre on Monday will be "Under the Stars and Stripes," a new moving picture will be shown each night.

The bill at the Palace Theatre will include William Mack in "An Eye for an Eye," Nora Hayes in songs, Andrew Tombs and company in "The Bride Shop" and the Sixteen Navasars Girls, instrumentalists.

NEWS NOTES OF MOTION PICTURES, FILM PLAYS AND PRODUCERS

Pearl White says she isn't to marry, so quit worrying.

Blanche Yurka, recently leading woman for E. H. Sothern, may do some film acting soon.

The Gaumont press department proudly announces that Lucille LaFollette has a bond hair that reaches to her knees, which is important, if true.

Lee Ochs of the Motion Picture Exhibitors has a new theatre. That's half the tale. Maurice Sommers is to be pianist at the theatre. That's the rest.

"Armadale" will be the first of the Gaumont three-reel productions. It will be released on May 25. There'll be a new one every two weeks after that.

Through a communication hurried to this office, the writer of this department has learned that William Farnum, the Fox star, is actually fishing for trout out in California.

The office employees of Pathe's New York exchange have sent those in charge of the Motion Picture Camera a check for $4. They all contributed.

Kay Laurell, who was married in London to Winnie Sheehan, will do Fox offices, halls from Northeast, Pa. Her maiden name was Ruth Leelan.

Johnny and Emma Ray, the Irish funmakers, are to be seen in film comedies. A company has been formed in their home town, Cleveland, Ohio, to produce a series of Photoplays Company, which will specialize in the Ray comedies.

The first of the "Lucile, the Waitress" comedies, made by Director William (Bill) Bailey for the Universal, is about ready. A big feature of these films will be like, the co-education.

Gladya Huletta of the Thanhouser Mutual films, is one of the smallest stars in captivity. She is about 5 feet tall and weighs in the neighborhood of 100 pounds. In film circles she is sometimes known as the knee-high-to-a-grasshopper beauty.

Charles Chaplin, of whom you may have heard, plays the violin now and then when he isn't making a fool of himself before the camera. He also composes music. Very frequently he will play his own compositions, and yet he's a popular fellow.

William Fox has written a letter of protest to Gov. Whitman against the Christmas-Wheeler Censorship Bill. He expresses the opinion that if there must be a censorship, it should be through a Federal measure.

During the week of May 23 many of the leading figures in the screen world will appear in person at the State Theatre. That's the Actors' Fund week at S. L. Rothapel's new house.

Tom Moore, one of the stars of the new Pathe serial, "Who's Guilty?" is frequently bothered by ambitious scenario writers who want him to use his influence to have their stories accepted by the producers. A persistent one got into the Moore's dressing room at the Arrow studio recently and shoved some manuscript at the actor.

"How much will you give me for this scenario?" asked the persistent one.

"Just ten yards' start," snapped Moore.

The other fellow took it.

"FALL OF A NATION" FILM DEFENSE PLAY.

The character of Virginia Holland in Thomas Dixon and Victor Herbert's national defense play, "The Fall of a Nation," is said to be modelled on a noted Suffragist famous for her wit and beauty, who is also a strenuous peace advocate. In the play she is misled by the peace party until she becomes an unwitting aid of a gigantic conspiracy against American freedom. After the foreign imperialists have captured America, this modern Joan of Arc realizes her error and organizes an oath-bound order of women, called the Daughters of Jael, who turn the tables on the invader and restore the United States of America.

Lorraine Huling is to be seen as the heroine. The role of the peace advocate and afterward leader of the American rough riders is played by Arthur Shirley.

"THE TEMPTERS" AT OLYMPIC THEATRE.

Patrons of burlesque will participate in a voting contest at the Olympic to determine who is the most popular girl in "The Tempters," the coming attraction. At the Friday night performance the girl who has received the greatest number of votes will be awarded a trophy prize, "Mated for a Day," a travesty on "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and "Circus Life" will be given. The company includes Bertha Gibson, Max Field, Sidney Rogers, George Bennett, William Harris, George Harrington, Ruth Everett, Fern Wayne, Mlle. Faustina, Noe Reynolds and twenty chorus girls.

"GLORIA'S ROMANCE" AT GLOBE MAY 22.

The latest Billie Burke serial picture, "Gloria's Romance," in process of filming at the George Kleins Studios for the past six months, will have its New York opening at the Globe Theatre on May 22. The Evening World will publish the story of this serial each week on Monday. The Globe will show the various episodes in weekly instalments.

"ON THE MEXICAN BORDER" PLAY AT THE LEXINGTON.

"On the Mexican Border," a spectacular melodrama, will be the attraction at the Lexington Theatre, with matinees on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The play tells of John Swiftwind, an educated Mexican Indian, who is assistant surgeon in the United States army post in Douglas, Ariz. He suspects the chief surgeon of the post of inoculating a half-breed Mexican woman with typhus germs to study the disease. The chief surgeon had married a young nurse in Russia, whom he now believes dead. While on the way to the post the stage coach is attacked by bandits and he saves the life of a young girl. He finds out that she is addicted to the morphine habit, sympathizes with her and marries her. She accidentally injects typhus germs, but recovers. Her husband contracts the fever and dies. Swiftwind, disgusted with civilization, returns to his own people, where he learns that they are planning to attack the United States army post. He decides to ride to the post and spread the alarm, but dies on his horse. His place is taken by another, who saves the post.

PROCTOR AND PALACE VAUDEVILLE BILLS.

For the early part of next week an "all girl" programme will be given at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre. Some of the entertainers will be Blossom Seeley in new songs, Catherine Hayes and Sabel Jonsson in "Childhood Days" and Black and White, girl acrobats. Proctor's Fifty-eighth Street Theatre will have, in addition to a movie feature, Sidney Payne and company in "The Trenches," heading the vaudeville bill. For the latter part of the week Hilja Schoen and company in "Springtime" and the feature, Proctor's One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre will present the "Belmont Ponies" in songs and dances; Prince Charles, the intelligent monkey; Fox and Welles, comedians; and Sidney Payne and company in "Neutral."

The photo play at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre on Monday will be "Under the Stars and Stripes," a new moving picture will be shown each night.

The bill at the Palace Theatre will include William Mack in "An Eye for an Eye," Nora Hayes in songs, Andrew Tombs and company in "The Bride Shop" and the Sixteen Navasars Girls, instrumentalists.

NEWS NOTES OF MOTION PICTURES, FILM PLAYS AND PRODUCERS

Pearl White says she isn't to marry, so quit worrying.

Blanche Yurka, recently leading woman for E. H. Sothern, may do some film acting soon.

The Gaumont press department proudly announces that Lucille LaFollette has a bond hair that reaches to her knees, which is important, if true.

Lee Ochs of the Motion Picture Exhibitors has a new theatre. That's half the tale. Maurice Sommers is to be pianist at the theatre. That's the rest.

"Armadale" will be the first of the Gaumont three-reel productions. It will be released on May 25. There'll be a new one every two weeks after that.

Through a communication hurried to this office, the writer of this department has learned that William Farnum, the Fox star, is actually fishing for trout out in California.

The office employees of Pathe's New York exchange have sent those in charge of the Motion Picture Camera a check for $4. They all contributed.

Kay Laurell, who was married in London to Winnie Sheehan, will do Fox offices, halls from Northeast, Pa. Her maiden name was Ruth Leelan.

Johnny and Emma Ray, the Irish funmakers, are to be seen in film comedies. A company has been formed in their home town, Cleveland, Ohio, to produce a series of Photoplays Company, which will specialize in the Ray comedies.

The first of the "Lucile, the Waitress" comedies, made by Director William (Bill) Bailey for the Universal, is about ready. A big feature of these films will be like, the co-education.

Gladya Huletta of the Thanhouser Mutual films, is one of the smallest stars in captivity. She is about 5 feet tall and weighs in the neighborhood of 100 pounds. In film circles she is sometimes known as the knee-high-to-a-grasshopper beauty.

Charles Chaplin, of whom you may have heard, plays the violin now and then when he isn't making a fool of himself before the camera. He also composes music. Very frequently he will play his own compositions, and yet he's a popular fellow.

William Fox has written a letter of protest to Gov. Whitman against the Christmas-Wheeler Censorship Bill. He expresses the opinion that if there must be a censorship, it should be through a Federal measure.

During the week of May 23 many of the leading figures in the screen world will appear in person at the State Theatre. That's the Actors' Fund week at S. L. Rothapel's new house.

Tom Moore, one of the stars of the new Pathe serial, "Who's Guilty?" is frequently bothered by ambitious scenario writers who want him to use his influence to have their stories accepted by the producers. A persistent one got into the Moore's dressing room at the Arrow studio recently and shoved some manuscript at the actor.

"How much will you give me for this scenario?" asked the persistent one.

"Just ten yards' start," snapped Moore.

The other fellow took it.

"FALL OF A NATION" FILM DEFENSE PLAY.

The character of Virginia Holland in Thomas Dixon and Victor Herbert's national defense play, "The Fall of a Nation," is said to be modelled on a noted Suffragist famous for her wit and beauty, who is also a strenuous peace advocate. In the play she is misled by the peace party until she becomes an unwitting aid of a gigantic conspiracy against American freedom. After the foreign imperialists have captured America, this modern Joan of Arc realizes her error and organizes an oath-bound order of women, called the Daughters of Jael, who turn the tables on the invader and restore the United States of America.

Lorraine Huling is to be seen as the heroine. The role of the peace advocate and afterward leader of the American rough riders is played by Arthur Shirley.

"THE TEMPTERS" AT OLYMPIC THEATRE.

Patrons of burlesque will participate in a voting contest at the Olympic to determine who is the most popular girl in "The Tempters," the coming attraction. At the Friday night performance the girl who has received the greatest number of votes will be awarded a trophy prize, "Mated for a Day," a travesty on "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and "Circus Life" will be given. The company includes Bertha Gibson, Max Field, Sidney Rogers, George Bennett, William Harris, George Harrington, Ruth Everett, Fern Wayne, Mlle. Faustina, Noe Reynolds and twenty chorus girls.

"GLORIA'S ROMANCE" AT GLOBE MAY 22.

The latest Billie Burke serial picture, "Gloria's Romance," in process of filming at the George Kleins Studios for the past six months, will have its New York opening at the Globe Theatre on May 22. The Evening World will publish the story of this serial each week on Monday. The Globe will show the various episodes in weekly instalments.

"ON THE MEXICAN BORDER" PLAY AT THE LEXINGTON.

"On the Mexican Border," a spectacular melodrama, will be the attraction at the Lexington Theatre, with matinees on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The play tells of John Swiftwind, an educated Mexican Indian, who is assistant surgeon in the United States army post in Douglas, Ariz. He suspects the chief surgeon of the post of inoculating a half-breed Mexican woman with typhus germs to study the disease. The chief surgeon had married a young nurse in Russia, whom he now believes dead. While on the way to the post the stage coach is attacked by bandits and he saves the life of a young girl. He finds out that she is addicted to the morphine habit, sympathizes with her and marries her. She accidentally injects typhus germs, but recovers. Her husband contracts the fever and dies. Swiftwind, disgusted with civilization, returns to his own people, where he learns that they are planning to attack the United States army post. He decides to ride to the post and spread the alarm, but dies on his horse. His place is taken by another, who saves the post.

PROCTOR AND PALACE VAUDEVILLE BILLS.

For the early part of next week an "all girl" programme will be given at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre. Some of the entertainers will be Blossom Seeley in new songs, Catherine Hayes and Sabel Jonsson in "Childhood Days" and Black and White, girl acrobats. Proctor's Fifty-eighth Street Theatre will have, in addition to a movie feature, Sidney Payne and company in "The Trenches," heading the vaudeville bill. For the latter part of the week Hilja Schoen and company in "Springtime" and the feature, Proctor's One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre will present the "Belmont Ponies" in songs and dances; Prince Charles, the intelligent monkey; Fox and Welles, comedians; and Sidney Payne and company in "Neutral."

The photo play at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre on Monday will be "Under the Stars and Stripes," a new moving picture will be shown each night.

The bill at the Palace Theatre will include William Mack in "An Eye for an Eye," Nora Hayes in songs, Andrew Tombs and company in "The Bride Shop" and the Sixteen Navasars Girls, instrumentalists.

NEWS NOTES OF MOTION PICTURES, FILM PLAYS AND PRODUCERS

Pearl White says she isn't to marry, so quit worrying.

Blanche Yurka, recently leading woman for E. H. Sothern, may do some film acting soon.

The Gaumont press department proudly announces that Lucille LaFollette has a bond hair that reaches to her knees, which is important, if true.

Lee Ochs of the Motion Picture Exhibitors has a new theatre. That's half the tale. Maurice Sommers is to be pianist at the theatre. That's the rest.

"Armadale" will be the first of the Gaumont three-reel productions. It will be released on May 25. There'll be a new one every two weeks after that.

Through a communication hurried to this office, the writer of this department has learned that William Farnum, the Fox star, is actually fishing for trout out in California.

The office employees of Pathe's New York exchange have sent those in charge of the Motion Picture Camera a check for $4. They all contributed.

Kay Laurell, who was married in London to Winnie Sheehan, will do Fox offices, halls from Northeast, Pa. Her maiden name was Ruth Leelan.

Johnny and Emma Ray, the Irish funmakers, are to be seen in film comedies. A company has been formed in their home town, Cleveland, Ohio, to produce a series of Photoplays Company, which will specialize in the Ray comedies.

The first of the "Lucile, the Waitress" comedies, made by Director William (Bill) Bailey for the Universal, is about ready. A big feature of these films will be like, the co-education.

Gladya Huletta of the Thanhouser Mutual films, is one of the smallest stars in captivity. She is about 5 feet tall and weighs in the neighborhood of 100 pounds. In film circles she is sometimes known as the knee-high-to-a-grasshopper beauty.

Charles Chaplin, of whom you may have heard, plays the violin now and then when he isn't making a fool of himself before the camera. He also composes music. Very frequently he will play his own compositions, and yet he's a popular fellow.

William Fox has written a letter of protest to Gov. Whitman against the Christmas-Wheeler Censorship Bill. He expresses the opinion that if there must be a censorship, it should be through a Federal measure.

During the week of May 23 many of the leading figures in the screen world will appear in person at the State Theatre. That's the Actors' Fund week at S. L. Rothapel's new house.

Tom Moore, one of the stars of the new Pathe serial, "Who's Guilty?" is frequently bothered by ambitious scenario writers who want him to use his influence to have their stories accepted by the producers. A persistent one got into the Moore's dressing room at the Arrow studio recently and shoved some manuscript at the actor.

"How much will you give me for this scenario?" asked the persistent one.

"Just ten yards' start," snapped Moore.

The other fellow took it.

AMUSEMENT PARKS OPEN FOR SUMMER.

Palisades Amusement Park opens its season to-day with many new attractions. Over three city blocks have been added to the "Merry Midway." "The Whip," a thrilling ride, is one of the features.

"PREPAREDNESS NIGHT" AT DANCING CARNIVAL.

"Preparedness Evening" will be celebrated to-night at the dancing carnival in the Grand Central Palace. Everything has been done to accommodate a great number of special guests. The new spring decorations include 20,000 roses.

TO BREAK UP A COLD

Use at once R & G PILLS. The TONIC LAXATIVE

They remove the poison products from the body, strengthen the action of the liver and tone up the stomach. Use as per direction slips found in each box.

R & G PILLS

Get a Box To-Night. 10c and 25c Box.

THEATRES.

THEATRES.

LEXINGTON THEATRE 515 5TH STREET & LEXINGTON AVENUE TELEPHONE GIO PLAZA

ANNOUNCEMENT!

The Lexington Theatre announces the commencement of its Summer Season. The Lexington Players will present a series of interesting, interesting melodramas and other well known plays at popular prices.

WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY NIGHT AT 8.15

ON THE MEXICAN BORDER

A PRESENT-DAY DRAMA OF OUR SOLDIER BOYS IN WAR-RIDDEN MEXICO.

With BEULAH WATSON AND ALBERT PATTERSON

NIGHTS PRICES 10-20-30-50c

NEW YORK'S LEADING THEATRES.

EMPIRE 8th & 40th St. Evs. at 8.30. Matinees Wed. & Sat. 2.30. 2.50. 3.50. 5.00. 7.50. 10.00. 12.50. 15.00. 20.00. 25.00. 30.00. 35.00. 40.00. 45.00. 50.00. 55.00. 60.00. 65.00. 70.00. 75.00. 80.00. 85.00. 90.00. 95.00. 100.00.

LYCEUM 45th St. Evs. at 8.30. Matinees Wed. & Sat. 2.30. 2.50. 3.50. 5.00. 7.50. 10.00. 12.50. 15.00. 20.00. 25.00. 30.00. 35.00. 40.00. 45.00. 50.00. 55.00. 60.00. 65.00. 70.00. 75.00. 80.00. 85.00. 90.00. 95.00. 100.00.

THE HEART OF WETONA

NEW AMSTERDAM 42nd St. Evs. at 8.30. Matinees Wed. & Sat. 2.30. 2.50. 3.50. 5.00. 7.50. 10.00. 12.50. 15.00. 20.00. 25.00. 30.00. 35.00. 40.00. 45.00. 50.00. 55.00. 60.00. 65.00. 70.00. 75.00. 80.00. 85.00. 90.00. 95.00. 100.00.

Merchant of Venice

Wm. T. W. E. Evs. at 8.30. Matinees Wed. & Sat. 2.30. 2.50. 3.50. 5.00. 7.50. 10.00. 12.50. 15.00. 20.00. 25.00. 30.00. 35.00. 40.00. 45.00. 50.00. 55.00. 60.00. 65.00. 70.00. 75.00. 80.00. 85.00. 90.00. 95.00. 100.00.

ZIEGFELD MIDNIGHT FROLIC

LIBERTY West 42d St. Evs. at 8.30. Matinees Wed. & Sat. 2.30. 2.50. 3.50. 5.00. 7.50. 10.00. 12.50. 15.00. 20.00. 25.00. 30.00. 35.00. 40.00. 45.00. 50.00. 55.00. 60.00. 65.00. 70.00. 75.00. 80.00. 85.00. 90.00. 95.00. 100.00.

SYBIL

CANDLER West 42d St. Evs. at 8.30. Matinees Wed. & Sat. 2.30. 2.50. 3.50. 5.00. 7.50. 10.00. 12.50. 15.00. 20