

Fistic News John Pollock and Gossip

With $2,000 tucked away in his pocket, which was the guarantee he received for his name exhibition with Ted "Kid" Lewis at the Garden last night, Mike Gibbons left for his home at St. Paul, Minn., today accompanied by his brother Tom. The gross receipts of the show were: $7,767.50, the State receiving 7 1/2 per cent, $582.56. The tickets sold were as follows: 521 at $5, 116 at $4, 869 at $3, 189 at $2.50, 420 at $2, 1,207 at $1 and exchanges $22.

As soon as the boat was finished the managers of the Stadium A. C. who had Gibbons and Jeff Smith looked up for a ten-round bout at the Manhattan Opera House on May 20, promptly announced that it was off because they feared Gibbons' unsatisfactory battle with Lewis would hurt his drawing power.

As Tom Gibbons was leaving the Garden after the gross receipts had been counted up, a friend of his called out to him: "Hey, Tom, when are you going to fight?"

"You know I am going to be married a week from Saturday," replied Tom. "and it will be some time before I will do any fighting." Tom then smiled away to join brother Mike at his hotel in Hartford.

While Ritchie, the American lightweight champion, who has not fought in a few months, has just affixed his signature to another set of articles calling for him to take part in another ten-round battle. His opponent will be Halton Greenan, the clever California lightweight. They will clash at Portland, Ore., on the night of June 7.

Harry Pollock today secured the consent of Denny Sullivan, the new manager of Charlie "Young" Webster, the Newark heavyweight, to box the main bout of ten rounds at the opening of the Washington Park sporting club of Brooklyn, on Wednesday afternoon, following Linsky, Jack Dillon or Gusman Smith will be selected to swap punches with him.

The ten-round bout between Bill Brennan, the promising Chicago heavyweight, and Tony Ross, the rugged Italian fighter of New Castle, Pa., which was to have been fought last week at the Monroe A. C. of Rochester, N. Y., but was postponed on account of rain, will be held at the same club on next Monday night.

The ten-round contests and several preliminary bouts will be decided at the regular weekly boxing show of the Horwax Wrestling Club at Hammel's Station tonight. The fighters who will battle in the ten-rounders are Joe Mooney and Johnny Martin, and Joe Gibbs and Frankie Dixon.

Now that Phil Bloom has recovered from his attack of illness he has been matched to meet the Moran, the New Orleans lightweight, in the star bout of ten rounds at the Harlem Sporting Club on Friday evening, May 26. Young Brown and Bobby Sanders will come together in the other ten-rounder.

Johnny Howard, the hard hitting light heavyweight of Bayonne, N. J., will return to the ring again on Saturday night. He will face "Cowboy" Charley Shands, the Western "heavy," in the windup of ten rounds at the Stadium A. C. boxing show to-morrow night. Teddy Jacobs will take on Jack Goodney for ten rounds in the semi-final.

The Harlem Sporting Club will stage a ten-round slow tonight, at which colored fighters will be the principals in all the bouts. George "Kid" Cotton, the Pittsburgh heavyweight, will go against "Bough House" Ware in the main event, while "Wee Wee" Barton will face Joe De Niro in the other ten-round scrap.

Ben Rosenthal, matchmaker of the Brown A. A. of Far Rockaway, has arranged a good card of bouts for the club's regular weekly boxing show tonight. Young Carlisle of New Jersey and Johnny Mack of Brooklyn will be the principals in the stellar event of ten rounds, while Bert Spomer of Brooklyn goes on with Johnny Olson for six rounds. Bill Brown will referee.

The New Polo A. A. of Harlem will stage two ten-round bouts tonight. Fighting Joe Hyland will face Tommy White in the star and Eddie McKee and Harry Martone meet in the semi-final.

Although Champion Freddie Welsh has been suspended by the State Athletic Commission of Wisconsin from boxing at any of the clubs in that state for four months, this will not affect his standing in this state, as the state Athletic Commission here, at its meeting yesterday, refused to uphold the action of the Wisconsin body.

Jack Blarley, the east side bantam, made quite a bit in his bout with Abe Friedman, which was the semi-final in the sixteen-pound weight, that the matchmakers of the stadium A. C. immediately matched him to box Jack Syles next Wednesday night.

known origin last night destroyed the Norfolk Navy Yard's shipfitter's shop, with its machinery and equipment, and slightly damaged the adjoining boiler-makers' and plumbers' shops. Here Are Garments Chosen From Our Own Superb Stocks and Regularly Priced Up to $20 Each

Why—the matter is simply this: With the present conditions existing in the clothing trade, the price we name in our headline is little short of marvellous.

You know—everybody knows—that WOOLENS ARE HIGH, DYESTUFFS ARE ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO SECURE, LABOR IS RISING DAILY—and all this has caused the price of Men's Clothing to reach what was considered impossible bounds—and the end is not yet.

$11.85 is a moderate price for any suit of fair quality this season; but for suits of this quality it is extraordinary, so there's no need of impressing you further with the idea that YOU MUST NOT MISS THIS CHANCE WHICH WE OFFER YOU TOMORROW.

The collection of 1,700 suits is made up of small, select lots of garments produced by foremost makers, together with hundreds of broken sized lots from our own higher priced stocks. All of these suits grouped in this one sale at $11.85 give you the biggest economy opportunity the clothing trade has heard of in many months.

Now, When Every Man Is Thinking of His Summer Straw, Greenhut's Announces a "Preparedness" Sale of

Men's Imported Sennet Straw Hats $1.45

Such as Were Made to Retail Up to $3 Each. Sale, Saturday, at...

All the newest blocks, all the newest shapes, all beautifully finished; fine leather sweat-bands; superior silk linings. If we bought these hats in the regular way, our prices would have been up to $3 each; but our figure was 'way under the market quotation, and, in keeping with our policy, we share our good fortune with our customers.

The thousands of straw hats in this offering were made in Italy for American consumption, but because of shipping difficulties they were delayed fully six weeks. In fact, they were too late for the maker to secure duplicate orders. WE BOUGHT THE ENTIRE LOT. THE CASES ARE BEING OPENED AND THE HATS ARE BEING ASSORTED AS THIS ADVERTISEMENT IS WRITTEN. Sale tomorrow, offering the biggest Straw Hat value in New York at a price which usually can buy only a commonplace quality. AND THESE STRAW HATS, WE REPEAT, ARE OF THE BEST.
