

BOY ARRESTED AFTER FIRE IN APARTMENT HOUSE

Police Say That He Told Them He Had Set Many Blazes for Fun.

Following eight fires in May at the apartment house No. 292 West Seventy-eighth Street, Theodore Olsen, fifteen, of No. 410 Amsterdam Avenue, was arrested last night by Assistant Fire Marshal Tierney, Willis and Brophy and locked up on a charge of juvenile delinquency. Immediately after Olsen had been stopped by the three men as he came out of the apartment house shortly after 6 o'clock another fire was discovered in the cellar, but was quickly put out. According to the police Olsen confessed last night at the Fourth Branch Detective Bureau that he had set four of the fires discovered at the apartment where he was arrested and also seven others in the neighborhood. The only explanation Olsen gave was that he liked to see the fires burn. Olsen was a delivery boy for J. J. Materson, a grocer, No. 314 Broadway, and would set the fires from the paper and straw packing of the boxes in which he carried his parcels. The boy was released early this morning in the custody of his father.

SCALDED IN SULPHUR.

Workman Who Fell into Boiling Vat Will Die, Recovery Injured. Frank Egan, twenty-four years old, of No. 251 Sanford Street, Williamsburg, fell into a vat of boiling sulphur at the National Sulphur Works, Ross Street and Wallabout Basin, early today. The vat was level with the floor and he lost his balance striking the fluid. John Carroll of No. 57 Franklin Avenue and Patrick Smith of No. 64 Wythe Avenue, fellow workmen, were badly scalded getting Egan out. No hope for his recovery is held at Williamsburg Hospital.

When Seeing Is Believing

When you see this large assortment of Suits for Men $19.75 & Young Men

You will realize just what the Macy "cash buying and selling plan" will do for you. When you examine the smart English Sacks in 1, 2 and 3 button effects, the snappy, close fitting "pinch-back" Norfolds, with patch pockets and narrow lapels, even the more conservative models—when you examine the unfinished worsteds, cassimeres, chevots, flannels, homespun, and other fabrics of which they are made—when you see how well they are tailored with full, half and quarter linings—then you will come to the conclusion that $19.75 will buy, at Macy's, a great deal more clothing value than other New York stores can offer. Others at $14.75 to $38.50.

More About That $16.75 Sale Most of the suits in stock were $18.50 and $19.75—some of them were higher

We took these suits from our regular stock and added to them a special purchase of similar quality. High grade worsteds, chevots, serges, cassimeres, flannels, unfinished worsteds, silk mixtures and homespun in English Sacks with two or three buttons, patch or slope pockets; a variety of conservative models and the smart "pinch-back" Norfolds.

White Flannel Trousers, $3.49 Made of good quality material, fully shrunken. Belt straps and cuff bottoms. Others at $4.75 to $6.75.

Men's Golf Suits, $19.75 With long trousers or knickerbockers. Homespun, Donegals and Cassimeres made up in new Norfolk models. Others at $16.75 to $29.75.

Youths' "Pinch-Back" Suits, $12.75 Sizes 15 to 19 years

These suits are designed to bridge the gap between the "short trousers suits" and the "Young Men's Clothes." They are made in the same smart effects and snappy styles as the clothes for older men, but slightly varied to fit the more youthful face and figure. They may be had in flannel, gray, green, tan, brown or oxford tweeds, also some in club checks. All are tailored in the popular "pinch-back" model, as illustrated, and have the same finish as our men's clothes at higher prices. Made in "stouts" as well as "regulars." Bring your son to this department for his first long trousers. We know just what these boys like, and have assembled clothes that will appeal to them.

Separate Outing Trousers White or Striped Flannel $3.49 | Gray Flannel $3.49 | White Duck $3.75 | Khaki $3.49
