

LOVED YOUKER GIRL FOR SIX YEARS, ORPET TESTIFIES

Prisoner Swears They Were Not Engaged, but There Was an Understanding to Wed.

HE TELLS OF MARIAN.

WAKEFIELD, Ill., June 27.—Will H. Orpet, charged with the murder of Marian Lambert, resumed the witness stand today. In previous testimony Orpet told of his meeting with Marian on Feb. 9 and her death. He did not see her again until he saw her dying convulsions. He supported the theory that the episode of passion which caused death was taken in powdered form and not in solution, as testified by expert toxicologists called by the prosecution. Orpet testified that he had seen a white powder on her face and hand, he said. The powder would be given her to relieve a supposed delicate condition, he said, was simply molasses and water. He said he knew that she could not be fit and adopted this subterfuge to relieve her mind, as she kept insisting in letters that she was alarmed over her condition. Attorney Ralph F. Potter of the defense in beginning in-day immediately asked about the water and molasses which Orpet said to Marian to relieve her mind. One of these bottles he said to her the other he brought to her on Feb. 9, the day of her death. "I bought the bottle of six ounces size of Otto Peterson and filled it two-thirds full in my room," he said. He testified yesterday that Marian when he met her in Helena Wood in last September. It was on this trip that the relations between the young pair passed the bounds of morality. He witness admitted that he was "You were desperately in love with Marian, weren't you?" "But think that some later, judging from my letters." "You can't remember independently of your letters, how your love developed?" "No, sir." Mr. Orpet called attention to a letter which the defendant wrote to Marian last September, in which Orpet spoke of "this kind of weather makes me think of fasting." "What do you mean by fasting?" asked Mr. Orpet. "That means paying attention to a girl," explained Orpet. "When did you begin to love Marian?" "Early in the spring of 1915." "When did your feeling change?" "Late in September." "After your trip to the woods with her?" "Perhaps." "Did you have any regrets?" "I was honest with her." Orpet said he had only one year of chemistry in his studies at the University of Wisconsin. "And you know quite much about potassium cyanide?" "If I ever studied about cyanide I have forgotten it." "When you considered quite an expert?" "Not by Celestia Youker?" "No, sir." Miss Youker, it appeared, was an excellent student of chemistry, but when Orpet was called upon to discuss the subject with her he had to refer to his text book on the subject, he said. For a half hour questions and answers were of a nature that women hung their heads and men were plainly uncomfortable, but Mr. Orpet went on relentlessly. The young witness, faced by his father and his mother, turned his head as he replied. There was a sigh of relief as "Exhibit One"—a letter from Orpet to Marian—was called to the witness's attention.

ride which Marian and Orpet took last September. It was on this trip that the relations between the young pair passed the bounds of morality. He witness admitted that he was "You were desperately in love with Marian, weren't you?" "But think that some later, judging from my letters." "You can't remember independently of your letters, how your love developed?" "No, sir." Mr. Orpet called attention to a letter which the defendant wrote to Marian last September, in which Orpet spoke of "this kind of weather makes me think of fasting." "What do you mean by fasting?" asked Mr. Orpet. "That means paying attention to a girl," explained Orpet. "When did you begin to love Marian?" "Early in the spring of 1915." "When did your feeling change?" "Late in September." "After your trip to the woods with her?" "Perhaps." "Did you have any regrets?" "I was honest with her." Orpet said he had only one year of chemistry in his studies at the University of Wisconsin. "And you know quite much about potassium cyanide?" "If I ever studied about cyanide I have forgotten it." "When you considered quite an expert?" "Not by Celestia Youker?" "No, sir." Miss Youker, it appeared, was an excellent student of chemistry, but when Orpet was called upon to discuss the subject with her he had to refer to his text book on the subject, he said. For a half hour questions and answers were of a nature that women hung their heads and men were plainly uncomfortable, but Mr. Orpet went on relentlessly. The young witness, faced by his father and his mother, turned his head as he replied. There was a sigh of relief as "Exhibit One"—a letter from Orpet to Marian—was called to the witness's attention.

Overseas condition of the stock market was in evidence soon after the opening. While first quotations were slightly below last night, large buying orders made their appearance and a sharp rally occurred. Prices moved up from 1 to 2 points in a spirited covering movement. Further improvement was made in recovery of prices in the second hour. United States Steel sold at $41.25, up 1-7/8 from the earlier low. Reading up 2 3-8, Crucible up 4, Anaconda up 2 3-8, Bismuth up 1 1-4, and prices in general showed considerable gains. Activity was less at midday and prices eased off from best. Market in late trading was reactionary from the high and prices sagged off on profit taking sales.

WALL STREET.

Overseas condition of the stock market was in evidence soon after the opening. While first quotations were slightly below last night, large buying orders made their appearance and a sharp rally occurred. Prices moved up from 1 to 2 points in a spirited covering movement. Further improvement was made in recovery of prices in the second hour. United States Steel sold at $41.25, up 1-7/8 from the earlier low. Reading up 2 3-8, Crucible up 4, Anaconda up 2 3-8, Bismuth up 1 1-4, and prices in general showed considerable gains. Activity was less at midday and prices eased off from best. Market in late trading was reactionary from the high and prices sagged off on profit taking sales.

Table with columns: High, Low, Last, Chg. Includes various stock market listings such as Allegheny, Am. Steel, and others.

Table with columns: Item, Price, Change. Includes items like Wheat, Corn, and Cotton.

ITEMS FOR INVESTORS.

Texas & Pacific's gross earnings increased $1,000,000 from July 1, 1915, to third week of June, 1916.

In eleven months ended May 31 Third Avenue earned $3.10 per cent on its stock, and indications are that figures for full year ending June 30 will show over 4 per cent earned.

Great Northern Railway, regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent, payable Aug. 1 to stock record July 7.

Central Leather Company, regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent, on common stock, payable Aug. 1 to stock record of July 10.

North Pacific quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share, an increase of 25 cents over previous dividend.

Union Pacific's gross earnings increased $2,149,664 in May. Net after tax increase $1,888,157. Eleven months' gross increased $15,735,858. Net after tax increased $5,649,380.

Atchafalpa, regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent, on common stock, payable Sept. 1 to stock record July 31.

Anaconda Copper Company, quarterly dividend of $2, an increase of 50 cents, payable Aug. 28 to stock record July 22.

CHICAGO WHEAT AND CORN MARKET.

Table with columns: Month, Open, High, Low, Close, Net Chg. Includes data for Wheat and Corn.

NEW YORK COTTON EXCHANGE.

Table with columns: Month, Open, High, Low, Close, Net Chg. Includes data for Cotton.

Finds Her Aged Husband a Suicide.

At the end of a long, dim hallway in the rear of their hardware shop at No. 1214 Boston Road, the Bronx, Mrs. Matilda Sutton this morning found the body of her sixty-year-old husband, Frederick, hanging to a transom bar. He had been dead several hours. Poor business and despondency, she said, accounted for the suicide.

DOG LEADS SEARCHERS TO BODY OF WOMAN

Takes Them to Swamp Where Mistress, Missing a Week, Lay With Throat Gashed.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 27.—Mrs. Alice Treadwell, a member of an old and wealthy family of Weston, near here, was found dead today in a swamp more than a mile from her home. Her dog, who had disappeared nearly a week ago, led a group of searchers to the spot. The Weston medical examiner believes that Mrs. Treadwell committed suicide. A porridge evidently had been used to cover a vein in her throat. Mrs. Treadwell had been despondent. After searching parties had beat the woods and swamps for many miles about the Treadwell home for some days without success, the Treadwell dog returned bedraggled to its home Sunday evening. Whining it started into the woods several times, but such time distressed the party that followed. This morning the animal led neighbors of Mrs. Treadwell to the place where her body lay hidden from view in a swamp.

WILLIAM BEALS DEAD.

Veteran Business Man Was a Pioneer in Boston's Commercial Life.

BOSTON, June 27.—The death of William Beals, June 24, at the age of ninety-five years, marked the passing of one of Boston's old-time merchants. He started in business with the dry goods commission house of Beals & Upham, and for many years was a partner, and then, with George W. Baker, formed the partnership of Baker & Beals, exporters and mill agents. Mr. Beals was the son of William Beals, at one time owner and publisher of the Boston Post. He leaves one son, Edward Mauran Beals. Mr. Beals was active in the development of Boston, he having been closely affiliated with many of the banks in his early days. He was on the first board of directors of the Five Cent Savings Bank, being a trustee for many years.

Senator McCran of Paterson Weds.

PASSAIC, N. J., June 27.—Senator Thomas F. McCran of Paterson, and Miss Frances O. Martin, daughter of Mrs. Abby Martin, of No. 272 Bloomfield Avenue, were married here today at St. Nicholas's Roman Catholic Church by the Rev. Anthony Stein. After the honeymoon Senator and Mrs. McCran will live in Paterson.

Here's an enterprise you may help to float

KAPO KANTSINK SWIM-WINGS

Thank the Isle of Java for making possible this combination of swimming-teacher and life-preserver. The chief ingredient is a vegetable fibre known as kapok. This when especially treated by us is four times as light as cork and simply won't sink. Swimmers and bathers, young or old, in salt water or fresh, may venture forth as far as they choose without fear or danger of drowning. Even cramps don't count.

FOR SALE IN NEW YORK BY John Wanamaker, Gimbel Brothers, R. H. Macy & Co., Abercrombie & Fitch Co., H. C. F. Koch & Co., Inc., N. Y. Sporting Goods Co., F. A. O. Schwarz, Showering, Daly & Gales, Liggett Drug Stores, Riker-Hegeman Drug Stores

Or sent by us on receipt of price, $1.50. Fully guaranteed. Two sizes, for Children and Adults. State which you desire. Write for booklet describing our complete line of KAPO NEVERSINK coats, waists and swimming-belts. Also cushions for canoes, boats and yachts.

KAPOMANUFACTURING CO. 114-116 Bedford St. - Boston, Massachusetts

Sunday World Wants Work Monday Morning Wonders

Cigarettes were born 'midst Virginia's sunshine!

AND cigarette tobacco to be good certainly needs the mellow sunshine of old Virginia. Here's one reason why Virginia is known as "the tobacco man's tobacco": because Virginia gives to a cigarette the one thing no other tobacco can give—that noticeable liveliness called "character." Sun-goldened, lively, mellow Virginia—that's Piedmonts! ALL Virginia! Nowonder Piedmonts satisfy smokers. No wonder Piedmonts give smokers that "character" they want—every whiff. You ask for Piedmonts today and see!

Piedmont Cigarette advertisement featuring the brand name, 'The ALL Virginia cigarette', and pricing: '10 for 5¢ Also Packed 20 for 10¢'. Includes an image of a cigarette pack.

TEETH advertisement for Dr. Caine, 'The Careful Dentist', located at 748 LEXINGTON AVE. Offers 'INTERCHANGEABLE BRIDGE' and 'SETS OF TEETH'.

Advertisement for 'WHEN you go on your vacation this Summer have your favorite paper mailed to you every day.' Lists rates for Evening World, Daily World, and Sunday World.

'A Wheat Field on Your Breakfast Table' advertisement for FORCE TOASTED WHEAT FLAKES. Features an illustration of a wheat field and a person holding a wheat stalk. Text describes the benefits of the product.