

Parish Jewels in Cell, Dies.
TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 20.—Because she was not allowed to keep the attractive gown and jewelry she wore when she was committed to the New Jersey State Prison, Anna Eickert, thirty, of Newark, serving from four to seven years for larceny, committed suicide yesterday in the State Prison by strangling herself with a strip torn from her bodice.

SAYS HOUSEWIVES MUST GIVE SERVANTS A REST
Forty-two Maids Honored by Society for Faithful Services.
The time is coming soon when women will have to get through with their daily work at a fixed hour so that servants may have a part of the day to themselves, said Mrs. F. Gaddis, manager of the German Housewives' Society, to-day. She was discussing the forty-two faithful servants who got premiums yesterday at the twenty-first annual meeting of the society for having remained with the same families from two to twenty years.

HIS "SALARIES" MAKE BAD BOYS BE GOOD
Dobbs Ferry Street Commissioner Stops Bonfire Practice by Weekly Dimes to Offenders.
William Alworth, Commissioner of Public Works of Dobbs Ferry, has an idea by which he believes he can make bad boys good and keep them good. An ordinance in Dobbs Ferry prohibits making bonfires in the streets, under jail penalty. The leaves are falling from trees which line most of its streets, and boys have built many fires that have done much damage to asphalt blocks about to be laid.

Tour of Farm Loan Board.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Federal Farm Loan Board, which will leave here to-day on a tour extending to New Orleans, to hold hearings regarding location of the twelve Federal Farm Loan Banks, announced to-day that it would hold an additional series of hearings later in the Southwest.

"As maid should be no more accountable to her employer for her evenings," said Mrs. Gaddis, "than a stenographer or a factory employee." Rose Hahn got the $10 gold piece offered for twenty years of continuous service.

The Commissioner "arrested" twelve offenders and made a contract with them. He pays each 10 cents a week to build no more fires. In consequence the practice has stopped. Mr. Alworth now is advocating a municipal fund to pay bad boys to be good. He says it will be much cheaper than sending them to institutions in which the town is compelled to pay for their keep.

Lifetime WATCH
Some watches are good and other watches are expensive. Some are both.
The Lifetime Watch is good and inexpensive at $89.
It gives the purchaser satisfactory service for the term of his life without one penny's expense to him.
We give a guarantee to that effect the day the watch passes from us to the pocket of its new owner. It is an investment exempt from all taxes and assessments in the guise of repairs and replacements. At the same time it pays regular dividends in accurate time and dependable service.
It is a bond guaranteed as to principal and interest by R. H. Macy & Co.—an institution which has been established for over 58 years.
The price, $89, is the only money you'll ever spend on a Lifetime Watch.
