

JARNUM & BAILEY SET ASIDE TUESDAY AS ORPHANS' DAY

Special Performance for Kid- dies Will Be Given in the Morning.

It's the kiddies' day at the circus next Tuesday morning. Barnum & Bailey's Great Show, following its custom from time immemorial, will throw open the arena to all the orphans of all New York. Notice is hereby given to the superintendents and matrons of all orphan homes in Greater New York to communicate immediately with the secretary of Barnum & Bailey's Circus at Madison Square Garden and let him know how many seats are needed.

Usually an afternoon is set aside for the pleasure of the kiddies; but advance sales have been so great and so rapid that it has been impossible to hold out accommodations for all the orphans; and it is the desire of the management that no single little dweller in the homes shall be slighted. So, hoopla! and hurrah! The great day of the year for the wards of Greater New York will be Tuesday morning. The orphans will ogle the elephants and leer at the giraffes; spot the spots of the leopard, leer at the lynx and look askance at the lions. They will wave peanuts by the peck and popcorn by the pail. They will hear the squeaks of the freaks and the callope's good old circus tunes.

They have read of Aladdin and his wonderful lamp. They will get a glimpse into the wonderful land of the genie; the Oriental pageant with its splendors of satins and silks, richly caparisoned elephants, beautiful girls and beautiful horses; barbarous Bullaboos in barbarous attire; slave girls of the seraglio guarded by fierce Gorillaas of Gorilla; girl maudslers of palanquin padded pache-derms—all will make a picture to steal away the senses, beat the imagination and enthroned pleasure long in the memory of the kiddies of Greater New York.

Then there are the thrills of the arena for the "ohs!" and the "ahs!" and "umphs" of the orphans. Queens of the air, with long, flowing hair; ethereal shapes floating in ease, on the flying trapeze; stunts on the bar, with never a jar; beautiful gowns and the merriest of clowns; girls in tight, men looking like frights; rats, cats and hats; hats in the air, chinks by the hair; Bird Millman on the tight-rope and Letzel on the loose rope; cowboys riding like Cossacks and tawny lassies with lassos; clowns creating riots with their bullaboos; juggling Japs and yawning Yaps; monkeys and funkeys and donkeys; danger in the air and fun everywhere; band playing; callope flying—your titts of thrills and spills—

It's the circus, kiddies, the CIRCUS. Don't forget the date. Next Tuesday morning. Hoopla! Now, are you ready? Three cheers for Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth! Fig-a-r-r-r!

MAKING CALL. FINDS 2 DEAD.

Woman Discovers Bodies of Niece and Young Man in Apartment.

Mrs. Margaret Heidenbach, twenty-seven, of No. 116 Marston street, and Thomas Layton, twenty-seven, of No. 211 Ralph Avenue, Brooklyn, were found dead in Mrs. Heidenbach's apartment yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Debra Kelly, of No. 435 Eighth Avenue, Manhattan, went to visit her niece, Dr. Salzman of St. John's Hospital and they had been dead four days. The police suspect the deaths were caused by coal gas or ptomaine poisoning.

An Advertisement by THE PULLMAN COMPANY

Coast to Coast.

Through the far-reaching service of the Pullman Company it is often possible to arrange a railroad journey so that the night may be spent on the train, thus effecting a saving in hotel accommodations and the hours unnecessarily used for day time travel.

The Pullman car includes in its construction not only the asset of increased safety, but every convenience afforded by the most modern hotel that can possibly be adapted to the limitations of car construction. And the service further includes the personal attention of employes trained to anticipate the individual requirements of the traveling public.

In the deserts of the Southwest; in the western mountains; in rural communities throughout the country, everywhere, regardless of local conditions, the traveler today can obtain, wherever he may board a Pullman, the same high standard of service that he would find in a Pullman car leaving the terminal of the great metropolis.

Standardized and extended to serve in equal measure travelers in practically every community, the facilities which the Pullman Company affords for convenience, safety and comfort are equalled by no other similar organization in the world.
