

WOMAN SEIZED AS A GERMAN SPY; THREE MEN TAKEN

Suspected Messenger From Mexico Held After Soldiers at Hoboken Furnish Clue.

Four German spy suspects, one of whom a woman was reported under arrest today is the result of information obtained by regular troops in their occupation of piers and quarters of German steamship lines at Hoboken, N. J. A baggage check found in one of the steamship officers' headquarters on River Street enabled the Federal agents to redeem a small black handbag at the parcel room of a Hoboken railroad station. Papers in this bag are said to have led to the arrests.

The woman, whose last name is believed to be von Hertz or von Kertz, was apprehended at New Rochelle. Two of the men were taken in this city and the third at a farm house on the outskirts of a small Central New York town.

The papers in the possession of government agents indicate, it is said, that the woman arrived at New Rochelle less than three weeks ago from New Orleans with messages for New York plotters thought to have been sent by German agents in Mexico.

It was after the arrest of this woman that the two men were seized in New York. One of them had cards bearing the name Dubonnelly, and some personal letters in French. He spoke French and English fluently, the authorities assert (the name of German birth).

Some question as to what connections the German suspect taken at the private farmhouse had with the woman, but abundant evidence that the man is a dangerous spy was found upon a search of his papers, it is declared. A clearly striped wireless outfit, of oil, his sending force, however, was found in the barn. The dynamite separating outfit were concealed in a pocket, while the outside wire was so devised that they could be taken down during the day run up again for night operation.

Federal agents refused to discuss these reported arrests, pointing out Washington more than ever is lying upon absolute silence.

One official, very did comment on the Germanization generally in the Southern District of New York.

"The success the British and French armies at the von Hindenburg line," said, "has had a perceptible effect on Germans here. In several instances during the last few days German volunteers volunteered information as to traitorous activity of certain air countrymen. In one case this information proved valuable."

"The diplomat in which President Wilson handled the alien situation has done more than anything else to curb plotters. Germans have not been executed, nor have unnecessary acts been made. This, I believe, has finished in the German mind the thing that they will be recorded faithfully."

Saturday—A Day for Family Shopping

This is an ideal family-shopping store in which men and women can consult each other's tastes and opinions while shopping together.

Rugs from Persia

Beautiful Weaves in Room Sizes

While tastes differ in Oriental weaves it is very unusual to hear a word of protest when one extolls the beauties of Persian Rugs. In room sizes, they are particularly desirable.

We have a large collection at prices which have not been affected by the recent upward trend.

In fact the prices are under what we would be compelled to charge had we bought the rugs within the past few months. There is a worthwhile saving in every price quoted below.

Gorovan Rugs		Mahal Rugs
11.8 x 7.6	$152.00	12.4 x 8.0	$137.00
11.9 x 9.9	184.00	15.1 x 8.8	152.00
11.6 x 9.3	164.00	12.7 x 8.9	157.00
11.4 x 9.9	192.00	12.6 x 8.10	157.00
11.1 x 9.5	192.00	12.7 x 8.11	158.00
12.9 x 9.4	209.00	13.4 x 8.5	159.00

The above sizes and prices have been taken at random from a very large collection of these popular hand-made Persian Rugs.

Department of Cretonnes Specializes in Unique, Original Treatments for Summer Rooms

This helpful specialization is most noticeable to one strolling through the department—the charming curtains, the slip-covers, the screens, the out-of-the-ordinary cushions; all specially designed by our own artists, and carried out in cretonnes chosen from this collection.

These unique designs can be found nowhere else in the city and the unusual cretonnes from which they have been developed are exclusive here.

Illustrated above, treatment of window, screen, and chair for a summer bedroom. Cretonne employed is Frenchly patterned with baskets of pink flowers and striped with porcelain blue, on an ivory ground; the price $44.00

The window treatment shows valance caught up in loops with flat shirred bands of the cretonne. The curtains are bordered with uncut ivory, and Dresden tinted. The screen receives the same festooned treatment as the curtain valance. The chair has a valance, ground length a la mode.

Original sketches, estimates and cretonne samples furnished without charge, on request. Orders executed in shortest possible time—Prices for materials and work. "Lowest-in-the-City."

Basement—Fourth Floor, 35th St.

Thrift and Content

"Small profits and quick service"

President Wilson gives this as a slogan to merchants who wish to help in this hour of national peril.

It has been the guiding principle of our business for many, many years,—not that we associated it with national needs, but rather that we believed it sound business sense.

The store which is content with a reasonable profit possesses the confidence of its customers, and the store which gives quick service holds its friends against all competitors.

When we couple small profits and quick service with the assurance of "Lowest-in-the-City" prices on merchandise of dependable quality, the secret of the tremendous growth of this business is laid bare.

There always has been and always will be the store for people who believe that thrift creates content.

And certainly a contented mind is worth striving for.

Fur Storage Means Fur Insurance

Wool Wilton Rugs

Made Expressly for This Store

In the years past Wilton Rugs bought in the open market and sold by us have given satisfactory service to our many customers. This being so, is it not reasonable to expect that these rugs, now listed as our Own Merchandise (the rugs made exclusively for us), should be even more acceptable to our patrons?

These are the "Manhattan" Wool Royal Wilton Rugs. We believe they are far superior in quality and appearance to any other Wool Wilton Rugs sold elsewhere in New York.

The patterns are copies of Oriental Rugs, such as Kirmanah, Serapi, Sarouk, Kirman, Gorovan, Cashmere, Chinese and Persian effects.
