the complete check of his general assault undertaken yesterday.

"There were brief but violent artillery actions between Miette and the Alsace and northwest of Rheims. In the region of Chemin we made progress and took prisoners.

"In the Champagne yesterday evening we carried out on two sectors of the heights near Moronvilliers an operation which resulted in an important and brilliant success. Our troops captured several lines of German trenches on the slope north of Carnillet, at the Casque and at the Teton. Furthermore, all the important observation points in this region are now in our hands.

German counter-attacks were taken under our fire and thrown back with heavy losses. We took about 800 prisoners in these actions.

It is announced that the destroyed German shelters were piled high with dead.

BERLIN WAR OFFICE ADMITS GAINS BY BRITISH AND FRENCH

Battle on Arras Front Is Along a Line of More Than Nine Miles.

BERLIN (via London), May 21.—Following is the text of to-day's War Office report:

"On both sides of the Arras-Cambrai road, on a front of twelve kilometers (more than nine miles) the English attacked yesterday. At those places between the Scarpe and Sennes Brook where the enemy succeeded in penetrating our line east of Croisilles, he was driven back in a sharp counter-attack. Off-repeated attacks between Fontaines and Bullecourt met with the same fate.

"We maintained our position except at one completely demolished trench which was abandoned in accordance with our plans.

"After bitter fighting, continued through the night, the French obtained a foothold on Mount Carnillet.

"South of Nauvry, on Mount Kell, and southwest of Moronvilliers, the enemy losses yesterday were considerable.

"Around Bray and Carnay and west to Hurbelie Farm we captured enemy trenches and maintained them despite attempt at reconquest."

ITALIANS CAPTURE HILL FROM AUSTRIANS; HAND-TO-HAND BATTLE

Enemy Driven Back All Along the Line With Severe Losses, Says War Office.

ROME, May 21.—The following report has been issued by the Italian War Office:

"After severe losses, the enemy was driven back all along the line. The fighting was of the hand-to-hand order.

"In the Julian Alps section an enemy attack on the northern slopes of San Marco was repulsed.

"We took a hill between Palliova and Britovik and extended our positions further in the Vodice section.

"Hundreds of prisoners have been taken and a considerable amount of material seized."

Austria started a counter-offensive movement in the Trentino to-day, designated to relieve the ever-increasing Italian pressure on Trieste in the Isonzo fighting section.

Despatches from the Trentino front declared the enemy artillery fire had increased to great violence, particularly against the Zuzna and Posina Valley sections, the Asiago Plateau and the Sugana Valley positions held by Italian troops. These artillery attacks were followed in some places by infantry assaults. By such an offensive the enemy gained a foothold in the Posina region, but were driven out with heavy losses in men and supplies.

500 SALESMEN OUT IN CITY CAMPAIGN FOR LIBERTY LOAN

Army of Bond Experts Makes Drive From Wall Street Through Business Districts.

The campaign through Manhattan of the Liberty Loan Volunteer Army started this morning at 11 o'clock. After listening to addresses by prominent Wall Street bankers the 500 expert bond salesmen who form the army left No. 59 Wall Street and marched up Broadway to White Street and began a systematic house-to-house canvass of the big wholesale dry goods firms.

The line of march was thronged. The Seventh Regiment Band in full dress uniform heralded the army and the windows of skyscrapers were filled with cheering groups. The marchers paused a few minutes near the City Hall while the band played the "Star Spangled Banner" and then hurried on their way.

More than one hundred limousines, plastered with blue and gold Liberty Loan posters, followed the marchers. In racing cars loaned by members of the committee was the "Flying Squad," consisting of bond salesmen picked because of their big salaries and their oratorical ability. They were to "attack" the big factories and address the workers en masse. Manufacturers with large payrolls advised the Liberty Loan Committee that they would gladly give their employees time off to listen to the orators and to open their pocket-books and get in on the loan.

The biggest boost thus far given to the Liberty Loan work in this city came unsolicited from the great department stores. The Retail Merchants' Liberty Loan committee advised the main committee that big blocks of bonds would be subscribed for and sold both to department store employees and patrons on the easiest terms.

More than 100,000 working people will have an opportunity to do their bit on a basis compatible with their earning capacity. More than three million shoppers a week will be reached through the Liberty Loan booths which have been established in most of the stores without cost to the committee.

The committee responsible for this big move has adopted the Statue of Liberty as its trade mark. The members are: A. H. Hall, S. J. Bloomingdale, Paul J. Bonwit, Howard C. Brokaw, Clarkson Cowi, Howard W. Cowperthaitte, Michael Friedsam, Bernard F. Gimbel, R. J. Greenhut, Charles V. Halsey, Louis M. Hart, Edward Holbrook, E. von der L. Koch, G. Francis Lloyd, Harry J. Luce, John C. Moore, B. H. Hamm, Alexander New, C. J. Oppenheim, Herbert T. Pearson, Leo A. Price, Irving E. Raymond, Samuel W. Reynolds, S. G. Rosenbaum, S. F. Rothchild, Horace Saks, Ladore Saks, Butler Sheldon, Franklin Simon, John Sloane, Louis Stern, Jesse L. Straus, C. Alfred Wagner, H. A. Wetherby, Edward Wise, Beat & Co., Bloomingdale Bros., Bonwit, Teller & Co., Brokaw Bros., James A. Hearn & Sons, Cowperthaitte Furniture Co., H. Altman & Co., Gimbel Bros., Greenhut's, Rogers Peet, Cammeyer, Gorham, H. C. F. Koch & Co., Brooks Bros., Acker, Merrill & Condit, Tiffany & Co., A. L. Naum & Sons, Oppenheim Collins, F. W. Woolworth & Co., Rotenberg & Co., Lord & Taylor, Abraham & Straus, Saks & Co., John Wanamaker, W. & J. Sloane, Stern Brothers, R. H. Macy & Co., Arnold, Constable & Co., and United Cigar Stores Company. Louis Stewart of James McCreey & Co. is chairman. The committee has its headquarters at No. 256 Fifth Avenue.

At the new headquarters for the general committee, No. 59 Wall Street, to-day, it was announced that the retail merchants' idea was already bearing fruit. Shoppers who did not hear of the easy payment plan until late Saturday afternoon, when the department stores dropped it, had made this morning to do their share toward "financing the fighters." The slogan adopted by the merchants.

Of great value to the committee is the work of the allied advertising departments maintained by each of the big stores. These experts, who, like the bond salesmen, are the highest salaried men in their line, have made the Liberty Loan campaign a part of their advertising and, in addition, have assisted the Liberty Loan Publicity Committee in devising new posters.

From every quarter new slogans are being sent to the loan committee. Up State the farmers are urging their neighbors to "buy a bond for baby." Pennsylvania has "ring the Liberty Bell again." "Finance your boy on the firing line" meets the popular approval around Buffalo. The latest thing adopted by the local bond salesmen is a result getter. It goes like: "Don't take no for an answer." The Greenwich Savings Bank to-day subscribed for $2,000,000 of the Liberty Loan bonds.

HOBOKEN'S LIBERTY LOAN MARK OVER $5,000,000

Nearly $2,500,000 Already Subscribed—Bankers Plan Wide Campaign There.

Representatives of the nine banks and trust companies of Hoboken met to-day in the offices of the Hudson Trust Company to plan and begin a campaign for the sale of the Liberty Loan bonds. It was stated that Hoboken's subscription to the loan already amounts to between $2,000,000 and $2,500,000, but it is the intent of the banking representatives that this shall be more than doubled.

An appeal to all of the residents of the city, to every one of whom a circular will be mailed, is to be made, and the members of the Police and Fire Departments, the letter carriers, the Board of Trade and the Merchants' Association have volunteered to act as salesmen for the bonds and to distribute circulars throughout the city. A committee was formed to canvass all the 300 fraternal and social organizations of Hoboken.

The banks and trust companies decided to help the small investor by holding his security free of charge, provided the investment did not exceed $1,000. The banks will lend money at 4 1/2 per cent. up to $750,000 of the par value of the bond, pending the full payment has been limited to $750 for the period of one year.

WOMAN BEATEN BY BURGLAR. Dr. Katherine Arends, Beaten by Thief, Is Improving.

The condition of Dr. Katherine Arends, who was taken to Mount Sinai Hospital last night after she had been beaten and choked by a burglar she found in her apartment at No. 644 West End Avenue, was reported as much improved to-day. She is suffering mostly from shock.

Dr. Arends, who is about fifty years old, had her office and home on the ground floor of an old five-story brownstone house which has been converted into a building for the building in charge of a woman superintendent. Dr. Arends went to church last night. The police believe the burglar entered her window. On her return Dr. Arends saw the man in the darkened room and grappled with him. He beat her off and escaped. The police have only a vague description of him.

From $70,000 to $100,000 Net Receipts Estimated—To-Day Will Be the Closing Day.

This will be the tenth and last day of the Actors' Fund Fair at Grand Central Palace. The bazaar has been a financial success, though not so great as it would have been but for the war. Unofficial estimates last night placed the probable net returns between $70,000 and $100,000.

To-night will be "Bargain Night." All articles put up for sale or raffle, such as dolls, dishes, phonographs, pianos, automobiles, shoes, cakes, candies, dresses, shirts, shawls, fancy work, hats and jewelry, will be sold for what they will bring. The biggest crowd of the fair is expected.

The most fun last night was at the Friars' Frolic. For the first time in the history of the Friars a woman was the "Frolicker." Miss Peggy O'Neill being in charge of the entertainment. PHILBIN'S DAUGHTER SUES FOR SEPARATION

Mrs. Wetmore in California Action Charges Writer With Non-Support.

Mrs. Eugenie A. Wetmore, daughter of Supreme Court Justice Eugene A. Philbin, has filed a petition in San Francisco for separation from Louis Wetmore, stepson of Dr. James W. Markoe, and a writer. Friends here were not surprised to-day to learn of her action, as they understood more than a year ago that the couple were living apart.

The marriage of the couple 1915 was a surprise to their friends. Mrs. Wetmore, a prominent member of the Junior League, entertained extensively in her parents' home, No. 63 West Fifty-second Street, and was known as a talented amateur actress and dancer.

Mrs. Wetmore went to California, where she has many friends, about the time she and her husband disagreed, a year ago. In her petition she alleges her husband has not supported her for more than a year, and asks $200 monthly alimony.

ALL DANGER OVER FOR "MA" SUNDAY

Temperature Is Normal, and She Probably Will Be Out Soon.

"Ma" Sunday, who was operated upon for a tumor late Saturday night, is out of danger. Her temperature is down almost to normal, and it is believed her period of convalescence will be short. The news of her condition was received with cheers at the three services her husband conducted yesterday.

Dr. Howard Kelly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, who performed the operation, returned to Baltimore yesterday afternoon. At the morning service in the Tabernacle he spoke a few words on the good the Sundays had done by their revival in his city. He is a warm friend of theirs.

It was the intention of Billy and Ma to spend this afternoon and evening with Col. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, but because of Mrs. Sunday's illness the visit was postponed. They will try to get to see the Colonel before their campaign winds up on June 17. Mrs. Sunday is in the Audubon Sanitarium, No. 81 St. Nicholas place.

NEW YORK CALLED UPON TO SUPPLY 36,000 GUARDSMEN

Famous Squadron A Will Be Federalized, But Must Serve Unmounted.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, May 21.—An announcement was made by the War Department to-day of the allotment of organizations and the quota of men in the National Guard of the country totaling 428,800 for all States, including 24,700 naval militia. This figure is only that of enlisted men. Officers are examining a grand total of more than 440,000.

New York State's quota is $6,000 enlisted men, including 4,500 naval militia, practically all of which are understood to be enlisted already. The principal requirement made on New York State by the War Department is the organization of a new brigade of heavy artillery, consisting of three regiments numbering 2,649 enlisted men or approximately 3,000 officers and men.

The exact status of the National Guard strength to date is not known at the War Department, as the "figure" changes daily, according to voluntary enlistment and the guard is still under State control. Command will be taken over from New York State, however, by the Federal authorities on July 15. The prescribed organization for New York State, according to the department's schedule, is as follows:

One complete infantry division made up of these units: Division headquarters, nine regiments of infantry, one regiment of cavalry, one brigade of field artillery, one regiment of engineers, one field signal battalion, one aero squadron, four field hospitals, four ambulance companies and one train each for ammunition, supply, engineer, sanitary and headquarters.

All these commands are ready excepting the field artillery and the headquarters, engineer and sanitary trains.

The allotment also calls for the thirty-six organizations of coast artillery now in existence, numbering 4,734 men, to become a part of the general coast artillery division.

As cavalry plays very little part in the European war, separate cavalry divisions are left skeletonized in the States. A complete infantry division now includes a regiment of cavalry, but the old-time independent units of large size, such as Sheridan and Stuart made famous in the Civil War, are not wanted. New York's First Regiment of Cavalry is made a part of the infantry division, leaving on the outside Squadron A, the State's most exclusive military organization.

It will be taken into the Federal service, however, along with the rest of the troops, but for the present will serve unmounted. It will be regarded as the skeleton of a cavalry division should future occasion require expansion of that arm of the service.

Notice was issued to-day by the War Department warning against organization of new and unauthorized units intended to head off fancy local companies.

"Some States," says the bulletin, "have undertaken the organization of units which can't be utilized in the formation of complete higher tactical units. While it is desired to take full advantage of the patriotic interest stirring the country, such advantage can only come through a co-ordination and regulation in keeping with a general and basic plan. All persons desiring to offer their services in the National Guard and especially those interested in raising new units are requested to communicate with their Adjutant General of their State and to be governed by the wishes of the State authorities in carrying out the announced policy of the War Department."

Chiefs of the Bureau of Militia Affairs, speaking of New York State, said to-day:

"This is not intended to prevent the organization of additional units in New York if more men volunteer than can be accommodated in present organizations. The department merely desires to make such commands conform to the general plan of higher organization. We would be glad to authorize the organization of more units in the State if they can be recruited."

"The figures of 36,000 as the State's quota for present organization on the peace strength. We understand that the authorities are going ahead recruiting ranks up to war strength which will materially increase the numbers approximately 50 per cent."
