

LAST MINUTE RUSH PUTS NEW YORK'S LOAN OVER A BILLION

telegraph is greater than possible to supply. AVERAGE SUBSCRIPTION IS ESTIMATED AT $1,000.

The average subscription, it was estimated, will amount approximately to $1,000. The largest average amount for subscription in other warring countries has amounted to less than $500.

Every Federal Reserve district, with the possible exception of Atlanta and Kansas City, appeared to have exceeded its minimum allotment. Reports from these districts were slow in coming in. With thousands of banks to be heard from in the two districts, however, it seemed likely that the minimum allotment would be reached in each case.

Swelling the huge total by millions came the belated subscriptions of the banks that held back till the last moment. The clerical force of virtually every reserve bank were practically buried under a landslide of eleventh hour subscriptions.

Because of this situation the exact total subscription may not be known for many hours. The full magnitude of the country's response even may not be measured for several days, as thousands of belated subscriptions were not expected to reach the reserve banks till after the dark line of noon Standard local time.

These must be included in making up the full totals showing the nation's response. Millions of dollars, it was estimated, were transferred by telegraph from national and State banks and trust companies on behalf of their customers to the Federal Reserve banks.

San Francisco started the day with a sensational advance from a previous report of $2,000,000. The first thing officials heard this morning was that, instead of being approximately $5,000,000 under its minimum allotment, the district was hearing the minimum and probably would take its quota. The city itself oversubscribed its $42,000,000 allotment by $5,000,000.

COTTON PLANTERS AND WHEAT GROWERS FALL BEHIND. Apparent failure of the Kansas City Atlanta districts to reach their minimum, based on early reports, reflected the failure of the cotton farmers of the South and the wheat growers of the West to respond as fully as it had been estimated they would. It was pointed out that in each district the farmers have not harvested their crops and therefore are not in as strong a position to answer the call as they will be after the harvest.

The Atlanta district's total was estimated at noon at between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000. The district's minimum allotment was $60,000,000. The Kansas City district's total was reported near $100,000,000, its allotment, this afternoon.

The country reflected a tremendous demand for the so-called baby bonds. The $50 issue will be by far the most popular, it is believed. Every community flying the American flag, from the Philippines to the Virgin Islands, subscribed to the loan. Fairbanks, Alaska, the most northern town on the continent, sent a generous subscription. From the Panama Canal zone subscriptions totalled $250,000.

Chicago reported that at noon a total of $274,000,000 for the Seventh District had been counted and the estimate for the district when returns are all counted to-night, was shortly afterward raised to $325,000,000.

Hundreds of excited citizens, dispatches said, surged about the entrance of the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank as the time limit expired and weeks to this committee. Wall Street deserves much credit.

"And, finally, to the newspapers must be given the greatest amount of credit, for it was their constant hammering away during the campaign that finally aroused the people to the importance of making this loan an answer to German sneers."

Liberty Bond headquarters was much too busy this afternoon to pay much attention to compiling a list of new subscribers. Some of those which reached the publicity committee before they got to the accounting department were:

Knauth, Nachod & Kuhne, $250,000; Robert Gair Company, Brooklyn, $100,000; J. Horace Harding, $500,000; Salomon Bros., $200,000; Allan A. Ryan, $500,000; Hallgarten & Co., $50,000; W. J. Wulman & Co., $45,000; Daniel Guggenheim, $1,000,000 additional; Bioggingdale Bros., $100,000; Spencer Trask & Co., $1,700,000; First National Bank of Lake George, $5,000; Peoples Bank of Niagara Falls, $25,000; Marguerite Clark, $100,000; Municipal employees, $2,600,000; National Surety Company, $1,400,000.

New York City employees purchased $2,800,000 worth of bonds, according to figures tabulated up to 1:30 this morning. This amount was subscribed by 35,000 employees, 20,000 of whom will pay for their bonds by having small amounts deducted from their salaries from time to time. The Liberty Bond campaign made it necessary for the Central Payroll Division created such an uproar that the bank doors were closed and only those jammed inside at the time were permitted to complete their subscriptions. The mob in the street increased its clamor, necessitating police reserves being called to clear the sidewalks.

With a great pile of orders still to be tabulated, the Philadelphia reserve district reported it had loan subscriptions amounting to $146,000,000 on its books at 1 P. M. The minimum quota for the district was $140,000,000.

That St. Louis's subscription to the Liberty Loan would pass the $45,000,000 mark, $20,000,000 more than its quota, seemed evident from reports of the last hour's rush. The Eighth Federal Reserve District evidently has subscribed at least $45,000,000, five million more than its quota.

The Dallas district estimated that its allotted total of $40,000,000 had been oversubscribed by at least $2,000,000.

Richmond sent word that it would reach its district maximum of $102,000,000. Richmond oversubscribed its allotment of $7,000,000 by six million.

Boston reported that subscriptions received up to 10:30 this morning amounted to $247,000,000, an oversubscription of $7,500,000 for the district. Applications yet to be tabulated were enough to keep clerks working until late in the afternoon before the final total could be determined. Members of the committee there estimated that the subscription for the district would reach at least $255,000,000.

The Fourth Reserve District reported from Cleveland having received subscriptions in excess of $200,000,000 up to noon, with indications pointing to $250,000,000 as the final figure. The original minimum allotment for the district was $180,000,000 and a later maximum allotment was $225,000,000, which latter figure has been exceeded.

Liberty loan subscriptions in the Ninth Federal Reserve District (Minnesota) would total between $62,500,000 and $65,000,000, according to estimates by officials of the Reserve Bank here at noon. However, later reports swelled these figures. The district's minimum quota was $50,000,000.

Reports from the Atlanta district showed an eleventh hour rush to subscribe to the loan. The allotment for the Atlanta district was $60,000,000. The latest tabulated reports showed only about $55,000,000.

GOVERNMENT ITSELF SUBSCRIBES TO LIBERTY LOAN. The United States Government subscribed in the closing hours for ten million dollars of bonds under unusual circumstances. But for the objections of certain members of Congress belonging to an important committee, the subscription would have been thirty millions. The ten millions subscribed belongs to 258 Indians who are special wards of the Government, and represents only part of their enormous wealth.

A few days ago announcement was made that the Department of the Interior, as guardian for Jackson Barnett, an incompetent Indian in Oklahoma, had applied $50,000 of his money, made out of oil lands, to the Liberty Loan. Pursuing this line of inquiry, Secretary Lane, of the Interior Department, was surprised to learn that many millions of dollars had accumulated for other Indians.

There are fifty-seven other millionaires incompetent Indians like Barnett in Oklahoma in the restricted class, with the Government as guardian scattered throughout the country are 200 more under guardianship who have money to their credit in the Treasury.

The total accumulated cash of these 258 individuals amounts to about $10,000,000. The Government has invested $10,000,000 of this sum in Liberty Bonds. Three-fourths of this sum was for the fifty-eight rich incompetents like Barnett. The 200 are only moderately well to do.

Rome's allotment was $903,000. When the subscription books were closed to-day they showed that a total of $1,420,300 had been subscribed. Figuring Rome's population at 25,000, the per capita subscription there for every man, woman and child was $56.81.

Indications at 2 P. M. were that Schenectady had over-subscribed her allotment about 15 per cent. The allotment was $2,200,000. Schenectady's subscription at noon was approximately $2,500,000. The allotment was $2,000,000.

Rochester's subscription this afternoon had passed the $12,000,000 mark. It was expected that the final rush would reach the $20,000,000 allotment to the city.

Gloverville had subscribed its share of the loan by $18,000. The total was $1,325,000. At Poughkeepsie a total of $1,432,900 was subscribed by 3,000 investors. Subscribers in Dutchess County towns outside the city bring the total up to $472,500. Elmira's allotment was $1,211,000. At noon 1,523 subscribers had subscribed for $1,483,000 worth.

PRESIDENT RUSHES ACTION ON FOOD BILL IS INTRODUCED IN SENATE THIS AFTERNOON

Majority of the Upper House Favors the Administration's Bill, Poll Shows.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—President Wilson to-day renewed his efforts for early passage of the food control legislation. He conferred with Senator Martin, majority leader, and Senator Geer, Chairman of the Agriculture Committee, with the expediting of the measure in view.

As a result of the President's vigorous attitude on the bill Senator Chamberlain of Oregon introduced it in the Upper House this afternoon. The Senate will begin work on it tomorrow and may put it through ahead of the War Tax Bill and other measures.

The House has made provision to take it up Monday. Twenty-five labor leaders in Congress have inaugurated a drive in the House and Senate to overcome opposition to the bill which gives the President authority to control food prices and supplies. A poll of the Senate to-day showed that 14 Senators favor the World measure, 12 will vote against it, and 20 are non-committal.

Despite the certainty that the Administration Food Bill will pass, there are indications of a stubborn filibuster in the Upper House to prevent. Adding their voices to the urgencies of the President and the warning sounded by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, the twenty-five labor leaders who have undertaken a drive demand that Congress pass the Lever bill by July 1 or face a possible nation-wide demand for increased wages by working men.

During a spirited debate over the food problem, Senators Reed, Hardwick, Smith of Georgia and Gore, all members of the President's political party, made clear their determination to defeat the measure, if possible. Senator Reed made a vigorous attack on the plan to confer on the President authority to control the food supply of the Nation and to fix the prices to be paid for it by the people. He singled out Herbert C. Hoover, the Food Administrator, as a target for ridicule, frequently referring to the man who kept Belgium from starving in the early days of the war as "the man that the President proposed to substitute for the Constitution of the United States."

The Food Bill itself has not even been acted on in the lower House. That body is to take it up on Monday under an agreement, fight it out for a few days and then send it to the Senate. The House probably will dispose of it in sufficient time to enable its passage by the Senate by July 1, unless it is made the football of a legislative filibuster which, from the attitude of its opponents yesterday, seems imminent.

The Federal Trade Commission began to-day its investigation into the causes of advancing food prices. The inquiry will be part of the food survey to be undertaken by the Department of Agriculture when the Administration food bills are passed and information developed will be turned over to the new food administration to be created under the bill.

The Trade Commission will go first into the meat packing industry. Commissioner Davies at the head of a corps of economists and investigators will start for Chicago in a few days. In a bill just passed by Congress the Trade Commission is given $250,000 for the investigation which was ordered by President Wilson some months ago.

Heading and Price Fixing of Canned Goods Charges to-day. CHICAGO, June 15.—Alleged heading and price fixing of canned goods and potatoes were again before the Federal Grand Jury to-day. The latest allegation is that since the United States entered the war the price of canned tomatoes has trebled, jumping from 50 cents a dozen wholesale to $1.85.

British Minister Hodge Gratified by Stand of U. S. Labor. LONDON, June 15.—John Hodge, Minister of Labor, in an interview with the Associated Press to-day, expressed himself as highly gratified with the action of the American labor leaders in lending their powerful influence toward the speedy passage of the Food Control Bill.

A few minutes after the $10,000 sale at 100 2/3 was recorded, $250,000 worth sold at par. The demonstration that greeted the birth of the financial prodigy lasted for five minutes. The cheers began when the first sale was announced and grew. Automobile horns tooted; Trinity's chimes were marking the close of the loan books, but the din within the Exchange shut out all outside noise.

It is likely that before next week ends "Lib" will be quoted at 106. This is based upon a prediction made by Otto H. Kahn, the banker, who, when told of the first sale this morning, remarked: "That's nothing, Liberty Loan will be 106 when the final totals are known."

After the first outburst there were some sales at 100.01. At 12:30 o'clock the highest mark, 100.05 was reached and at 1 o'clock there was a drop when a $25,000 block sold below par at 99 49/50 or 99.99.

By a special ruling of the Board of Governors of the Stock Exchange members were permitted to deal in the loan on the floor of the Exchange, whenever "Lib" is quoted on the ticker at 99.49 it will mean 99.49 1/2.

CARDINAL MERCIER THANKS WILSON IN BELGIUM'S NAME. Gratefully Returns Appreciation of Suffering Nation for Affection Shown by Americans.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The gratitude of the Belgian nation for the relief work of America was expressed to the President to-day in a letter from Cardinal Mercier, delivered in person by the Rev. John De Ville. The letter said: "Mr. President: Often since the commencement of the war, I have had the desire to express to the people of the United States, of whom you are the highest representation, my grateful sentiments."

"You have been prodigal to us of your sympathy, of your help, of your devotion. At the very moment when you see yourself compelled to break off the diplomatic relations of your country with Germany you have had still an equanimity thought for our poor country. To the fifty delegates of the Commission for Relief in Belgium you have given the advice not to abandon us as long as the power of occupation left them free."

"May you be thanked for your magnanimity. Mr. President, and may you accept as well, I pray you, the thanks of the whole Belgian nation. Permit me to say that we shall pray to the Good God, and ask him to bless your noble country."

Remarkable Photograph Taken in Air of Gugnemer, Daring French Aviator, Poised to Strike German Flyer

The above is considered by experts in photography one of the most remarkable photos ever made in the air. Capt. Gugnemer, the great

French aviator, is in the plane to the right above about to pounce on the German plane. Capt. Gugnemer has forty-five aeroplanes to his credit. In one day he brought down four. The photo gives an idea of how the little French Nieuport machines can be maneuvered to strike most effectively at the enemy.

SPIES BETRAYED SHIP TO GERMANS, WOMAN ON BOARD

Captain of Barbara, Sunk by Submarine, Reaches United States and Tells Story.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 15.—Capt. Frank Lauren, of the American schooner Barbara, sunk by a German submarine May 24 while on a voyage from Port Arthur, Texas, for Spiez, reported on his arrival here to-day that spies at Gibraltar in some way had obtained information regarding the movements of his vessel and conveyed it to the commander of the U boat by which he was attacked.

One member of the crew was arrested at Gibraltar on Captain Lauren's complaint and locked up. There was reason to believe, the captain said, that he had been in communication with German spies. It was known, he said, that the Barbara would proceed from Spiez to Gibraltar, and the member of the crew, whose name was not revealed, was charged by the Italian authorities with furnishing information to the enemy.

While approximately seventy miles from Cape Trafalgar, Capt. Lauren was startled by a shell that whizzed over the mast of the Barbara and a moment later a submarine appeared close by. Mrs. Lauren, the Captain's wife, got in a small boat with him and pulled up alongside the submarine and heard the German commander's orders for the crew to leave as he was going to send the Barbara to the bottom. The men hardly had time to enter the lifeboats and the submarine opened fire. The marksmanship was poor. After twenty-seven shots had been fired, with the Barbara still afloat, the Germans went aboard and started fires fore and aft.

Capt. Lauren, his wife and crew had spent eight twenty hours when picked up by a Spanish brig and landed at Gibraltar. Mrs. Lauren and seven members of the crew came here with the Barbara's commander.
