HUNDRED MILLION NEW LOAN GIVEN BY U. S. TO RUSSIA

Strengthens Belief in Washington That Republic Will Keep on Fighting.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The United States Government to-day extended a further credit of $100,000,000 to Russia.

This is the Government's answer to gloomy rumors that fear of Russian collapse had created a feeling of unrest and lack of confidence in this country.

Russia's credit is now $75,000,000—a beginning of the efforts this Government will make to assist the new democracy to its feet.

Secretary of State Lansing officially denied to-day reports of a general pessimism in Government quarters of the Russian situation.

"I don't think there is any feeling that Russia is on the verge of a collapse. In fact, she is stronger to-day than she was a month ago, both from the general government and military standpoint."

The recommendations of the Root mission, he added, are about to be carried out.

Granting of a loan, ships and supplies to her by the United States will have the probable effect of composing difficulties forecast in recent confidential advices from Ambassador Francis.

As a reply to Foreign Minister Tserenko's note of Aug. 3, Secretary Lansing to-day sent the following:

PERSHING'S ARMY ANXIOUS TO FIGHT, NOT TO "DIG IN"

Importance of Keeping Under Cover Not Easily Impressed on Them.

AMERICAN TRAINING CAMP IN FRANCE, Aug. 24 (By the Associated Press).—One of the greatest problems American officers have before them is impressing upon their men the absolute importance of learning the best way of keeping under cover.

The American soldier is not a natural "digger-in." He is much like his Canadian brother in arms in that respect, for it is an old saying on the British front that "Canadians will die in the last ditch, but never dig it."

It is the American spirit, as it was that of the Canadians, to upstand and fight, but the world war has long since passed that stage, and now, in the long wear and worry of a struggle of attrition, the best commander is the one who best conserves his men by keeping them under cover.

One of the great reasons why the Germans still are in France and Belgium is their wonderful facility for digging themselves in. They have a perfect passion for it, and an incentive as well, for the allied artillery never ceases to pound them day and night.

The German belief that they can dig faster than a modern army can advance is one of the principles of their defensive tactics. Notwithstanding all that has been told along this line, notwithstanding the heroic efforts to rouse his enthusiasm over the pick and shovel, the American soldier has remained decidedly lukewarm.

He came to France to fight the Germans, he says, and not to dig a hole and look at them through a spyglass. The French, Canadian and Australian soldiers all resented the idea of digging in and would not admit the necessity of doing so until bitter losses taught them a dearly bought lesson.

It is purely a matter of temperament, and there seems to be little doubt now that only actual battle experience will convince American soldiers that the ability to take advantage of any bit of cover is one of the greatest assets the modern man at arms can have.

"It seems a shame to have to curb the first fine fighting spirit of our troops," said an American training officer yesterday, "but the men must be made to understand as far as possible that impetuosity must be subordinated to steadiness. This has become a time-clock war. The men must advance in given time and go no further. Every step of infantry advance must first be worked out with the artillery, and when the plan is arranged it must be strictly adhered to. We realize that it will be difficult to hold our men to this plan. If they see a battle going on their favorite impulse will be to push on as fast as they can."

New French Cannon Bigger Than Guns Used By Germans

Reports from Verdun to-day show use by the French of new artillery, of 400-millimeter caliber, in their Verdun assault.

Previously it was reported that Germans were hurling 341-millimeter shrapnel shells at the French. This would mean a shell of 16.5 inch diameter.

MUST BEAT BRITAIN AT WHATEVER COST, KAISER TELLS ARMY

Declares England Is Instigator of the War and Chief Enemy of Germany.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 24.—England, the arch enemy of Germany, must be beaten down at whatever cost, Emperor William told his troops while on a visit to the Flanders front on Wednesday.

An official statement issued in Berlin says that the Emperor addressed deputations from all detachments which have had a share in meeting the British attacks. He said he felt impelled to express his thanks and his full recognition of the heroic gallantry shown by the troops from all parts of Germany in the hard fighting of the last week.

The Emperor referred to the marked contrast between the German and Anglo-French points of view, and continued: "It is in God's hands when in his wisdom he will give us victory. He has taught our army a hard lesson, and now we are going to pass the examination. With the old German confidence in God we shall show what we can do."

WILSON MAY REPLY TO PLEA OF POPE BEFORE CONGRESS

check would indicate the date of the transfer. It is not known whether France had submitted the check to the United States.

The fifth and sixth points concern special territorial questions, about which the Holy Father does not and could not propose any definite and concrete solution. Consequently he confines himself to expressing the wish that said questions shall be examined in a conciliatory spirit, taking into consideration, as far as possible, any just aspirations of the people.

The Holy See wishes to emphasize the fact that the appeal was not suggested by any of the belligerent powers and was not to the particular advantage of any warring nation.

Finally, the Holy Father said nothing about democracy and the democratization of any existing Government, because history teaches us that a form of government imposed by arms does not and cannot live, and also out of respect for the free will of the people themselves who, having the right of universal suffrage, may choose whatever form of government they please.

"For the rest, democracy will receive such an impulse from the war that wisdom must prevent it deteriorating into any excessive forms, such as anarchism."

Pope Said to Favor Indemnity for France as Well as Belgium. LONDON, Aug. 24 (By Associated Press).—Telegrams received here from Rome say that prominent persons at the Vatican, interpreting the Pope's peace note, assert that Pope Benedict believes an indemnity is necessary for the restoration of Belgium and Northern France, and also that the Pope takes the view that restoration of Serbia is essential, but did not mention it in his note, as he believed the whole Balkan question could be dealt with more effectively by negotiation as a separate problem.

From the same source it is said that issuance of the peace note was preceded by unofficial conversations with prominent Germans in an endeavor to obtain Germany's consent to provisions for restoration of invaded territories.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 24.—The proposed prohibition of bathing at home in Germany to save fuel and soap is called rank folly by the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin. The paper says many public baths already are closed owing to a lack of coal and attributes notable increases in skin diseases, dysentery and other disorders to enforced uncleanliness.

The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung also points out the increase in cases of dysentery in Berlin, a high percentage of which is fatal, while typhoid, which is spreading, also is causing uneasiness.

PERJURY IS CHARGE AGAINST REYNOLDS IN SEASIDE PARK INQUIRY

check would indicate the date of the transfer. It is not known whether France had submitted the check to the United States.

When informed that they had to-day of the Reynolds indictment, Mayor Mitchell said:

"The indictment of Mr. Reynolds is a personal matter, in that it relates to the truth of what Mr. Reynolds stated when he affirmed that he had no ownership in the land in question. That was in 1912, during Mayor (Raynor's) administration, when I had no contract with, or responsibility for, the Corporation (Council) who guarded the city's interests in the condemnation proceedings."

"The indictment raises no question in which I, as Mayor of the city, am interested. It does not raise any question as to the price paid for the land and doesn't touch the city government. That price was determined by three commissioners appointed by Justice Mearns of the Supreme Court."

A question as to whether Reynolds had ownership in the Rockaway Park property has been brought up for two years. It is known that the Mayor, as soon as he heard of the matter, made inquiries to learn whether Reynolds had any interest in the land. He was satisfied, he has stated, that Mr. Reynolds's sworn statement of 1912 was true.

BOMB MAKERS GO TO PRISON FOR DURATION OF THE WAR. Judge Wadhams Finds No Evidence to Connect Police With Hirsch and Melinger.

Sanctioned to the penitentiary as alien enemies "who had exhibited tendencies inimical to the peace within the United States," Wolf Hirsch and George Melinger, former employes of the Roosevelt Hospital, began their terms to-day. The extent of their sentences will depend largely upon the duration of the war, if the recommendation of Judge Wadhams is regarded.

Hirsch and Melinger were arrested May 28 with a can containing picric acid and other explosives in their possession. They confessed that they had intended to place the bomb in the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. to create a scare in Wall Street that would influence a decline in stocks.

Lafore Scherer, counsel for Hirsch, said the men made the bomb at the instance of a policeman and on this statement Judge Wadhams accepted the plea of guilty and ordered an investigation.

"Bombers" to Be Limited in France. PARIS, Aug. 24.—Bombers are being warned by the Ministry of War that the day is coming when they can have only a fixed allowance of popular brands of tobacco and cigarettes. The supply is again deficient and it is impossible to increase the output. The chief cause of the trouble is the great increase in consumption since the war.

Canadians Hold Troops to the City of Lens.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Heavy fighting was kept up through the night south of Lens, the War Office announced. The British now hold the German trenches immediately northwest of the latterly captured Green Crazier.

Following is the text of to-day's War Office statement: "There fighting continued in the night south of Lens as a result of which we hold trenches immediately northwest of the Green Crazier. The enemy losses in the close fighting have been especially heavy."

"The enemy artillery has been active in the night southeast of Ypres. "Hostile raiders were repulsed in the night by the Portuguese at two points northwest of La Bassee."

Green Crazier is a great heap of slag in the midst of the railway yards, a few blocks from the main railway station of the city itself. Canadians doggedly pressed forward to it Thursday night. Desperate counter attacks, succeeding further assaults by the Canadians, kept the line here in a constant battle all day yesterday and last night. For the most part it was bayonet to bayonet fighting, with gas playing on massed reserve troops behind.

The slag heap is actually in Lens itself. Hereafter fighting has been in the suburbs.

Berlin Admits Loss of Hill 304; Claims Defeat of British. BERLIN, Aug. 24 (via London).—The evacuation by the Germans of Hill 304, the famous stronghold on the Verdun front, is announced by the War Office. It is said only a weak garrison had been left there.

On the British front, the statement says, the Germans to-day wrested from their opponents the gains recently made by them south of the Ypres-Menin Road.

Twenty-one British tanks were destroyed by German troops when they vainly sought Wednesday to advance south of the Ypres-Menin Road.
