

MISS CORNELIA WOOLEY
THE OCTOBER BRIDE OF
JOHN HUYLER ACHESON

Miss Cornelia Woolley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelia Woolley of No. 450 Park Avenue, has set Oct. 25 as the date of her marriage to John Huyler Acheson. The ceremony will be at noon in St. George's Chapel, and will be followed by a reception at the Woolley residence, No. 450 Park Avenue.

Miss Woolley attended the Mount Vernon Seminary in Washington. Her brother, Lieut. Douglas Farwell Woolley, has been serving with the American Ambulance Corps in France. Mr. Acheson is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Goodrich Acheson. At the beginning of the war Mr. Acheson turned over his London residence in Regents Park to the British War Office as a war hospital.

New Military Club Opened.
The third of a series of clubs for soldiers and sailors promoted by the National Service Commission of New York City in conjunction with the Post-Office Department Welfare Bureau was opened yesterday afternoon in the building on the southeast corner of Seventh Avenue and Thirty-third Street.

A Smooth, Hairless Skin for Every Woman
(The Modern Beauty)
With the aid of a plain delatone paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for delatone, be sure you get the genuine article.—Advt.
