FRENCH PIERCE GERMAN LINES NORTH OF AISNE

Take Prisoners Belonging to Four Different Divisions of Crown Prince's Army.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The French last night attacked the German lines on the Aisne front after a heavy bombardment. The War Office statement says:

"After particularly effective preparation a series of detail operations enabled us to penetrate the German defenses in the region of Brayenne-Loennols and Laffaux Mill. We destroyed German defenses and brought back 100 prisoners belonging to four different divisions. An enemy attempt against our small posts in the Chevreux salient was repulsed.

"Between the Miette and the Aisne we carried out an attack in the course of which we inflicted serious losses on the enemy and captured materials. In the Champagne one of our detachments penetrated the German trenches, pursued the retreating enemy, and after a spirited combat returned to its own lines.

"On the right bank of the Meuse we repulsed a German attack north of Chailion-Sous-Les-Cotes.

"Twenty bombs were dropped by aviators last night in the region of Dunkirk. No victims are reported. On Oct. 16 two German airplanes were brought down by Section 410 of the Automobile Artillery."

British Report Repulse of German Troops—Artillery Active.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—"We repulsed a hostile raiding party last night east of De Vermeilles," says today's official statement. "We had no casualties.

"On the battle front the enemy's artillery activity has been directed chiefly against positions in the neighborhood of the Menin Road and against Danneboke."

Weakness

If you who are weak, anemic or run-down could realize what a short course of Wincarnis would mean to you—you would not continue to suffer needlessly. You would get a bottle of Wincarnis at once and, from today, begin to derive the strength and vitality that Wincarnis promotes.

KAISER'S TRIP SOUTH "STEP TOWARD PEACE"

But His Desire "Has Nothing in Common With That of Lloyd George and Asquith."

ZURICH, Switzerland, Oct. 19.—"The journey of Emperor William and Foreign Secretary von Kuehlmann should be regarded in a certain sense as a preliminary step toward peace," says the Neueste Nachrichten of Munich.

"The Emperor's conversations at Neuchâtel and Constantinople certainly mean the examination of every possibility in that direction, although it would be a mistake to conclude that the decision might embody concessions to the nature of a programme of annexations by the enemy. The peace by conciliation which we desire has nothing in common with that of Lloyd George and Asquith."

SENIORITY RULE SET ASIDE.

New Army Promotions to Be Based Solely on Fitness.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The historic seniority rule for army promotions was formally set aside today to govern promotions in the National Army and National Guard. Officers of either the Regular Army or the National Guard are held to be equally eligible for temporary appointment or promotion, which may be based solely on demonstrated fitness without regard to seniority.

STORM WARNING!

DON'T TAKE YOUR CORN STRAIGHT, WARNS BURBANK

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—"America must not attempt to introduce corn mixed with other foods, into its diet. If it does a marked decline in the strength of the people will result."

This was the warning sounded today by Luther Burbank, plant wizard, at the California land show here. Corn, Burbank explained, lacks nitrogen—a vital substance to make it eligible for a dominating place in America's war diet.

But Burbank did not mean to cast reflections upon the value of corn when mixed with other foods. Combined with beans or other fats, he said, corn meal becomes a valuable foodstuff, the fats supplying the nitrogen which corn itself lacks.

3,000 QUIT AUSTRIAN ARMY TO JOIN SERBIANS

Jugoslav Regiment, With Officers at Its Head, Surrenders to the Rumanians.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—An entire Austrian regiment (approximately 3,000 men), with officers at its head and carrying their own arms, has surrendered to Rumanians along the Ruro-Romanian front, according to cables received today.

The report stated that the regiment was composed almost entirely of Mohabene Serbs from Bosnia. The colonel declared they were all Jugoslavs and surrendered voluntarily in order to enlist in the Jugoslav legion now being formed out of the reorganized Serb army.

The recent agreement between the Serbian government at Corfu and the Jugoslav committee in London with respect to the establishment of a Jugoslav state is being received with enthusiasm by the Slav population in Austria-Hungary, the colonel stated. The officers of the regiment declared they expected fresh desertions, especially among the Czechs and Catholic Croatian soldiers.

RUSSIAN FLIES OVER CAUCASUS MOUNTAINS

Highest Peak in Region of Flight Is 16,546 Feet—Trip Takes Ten Hours.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 19.—A Russian aviator has arrived at Vladikavkaz after a flight of ten hours from Tiflis, across the Caucasus Mountains.

North of Tiflis the Caucasus Mountains are broken by a deep defile, the Darial Pass, through which passes the only road across the mountains, that connecting Vladikavkaz with Tiflis. The road is about sixty miles long. The highest point in this region is Mount Kazbek, which reaches a height of 16,546 feet.

BIG SUBMARINES WORKING IN PAIRS TO ROB FOOD SHIPS

Operate Off the Beaten Track and Sink Steamers Spurlos Versenk.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Germany's giant U boats are now robbing food ships of their cargoes, according to reports. The submarines are operating off the beaten track, apparently several hundred miles outside the old danger line zone around Great Britain and France.

Numerous cargo ships have recently been listed as "missing." In the light of this German lawlessness, the vessels are now given up as sunk without a trace left, particularly as in many cases their cargoes were fats, which Germany needs so badly.

The newer U boats are sufficiently large to permit stowage of a large portion of a captured cargo. Because of this capacity the War Trade Board has been particularly loath to ship out cargoes for European neutral ports. This also explains why merchant ships now require heavy convoys for protection.

These convoys are causing much of the apparent difficulty Germany and Austria are having with their submarine fleets. The two nations reported yesterday indicate Teuton sea-men, despite their discipline, are un-nerved by the anti-submarine work of the Allies and America.

WOMAN DOCTOR AIDS THREE INJURED POLICEMEN

A heavy stone fractured the right leg of Hinds. A moment later some man swung a garbage can at Policeman Frank Springs, breaking his left leg. A shower of missiles was falling on the bus and a bolt ripped the scalp of Policeman Thomas Ward.

Elbowing her way through the press came a woman.

"Out of the way—I'm a doctor," she called, and she was permitted to pass. She gave first aid to the policeman, and when the ambulance came she lifted the two men with broken legs into the stretchers. Ward's scalp wound was dressed by the ambulance surgeon.

A cordon of police surrounded the building to prevent further damage. Several arrests were made.

Strikers gave way as the police advanced. Wherever the police advanced the strikers gave way sullenly, retreating into stores and even homes which had been thrown open to give them welcome. But no sooner had the police passed on to another block than the strikers were back.

Two blocks away, at Park and Washington Avenues, is Public School No. 55. Between that school and No. 42 parades marched constantly. Strikers from No. 42 merged with those from No. 55 and refused to break ranks until they saw the police. Mothers formed "kibitzing crowds" and returned every time they were dispersed. Several windows were broken at No. 42, the second largest school in the Bronx.

At Public School No. 43, the strikers' entrance of No. 53, at Findlay and Teller Avenues, and demanded that the children "come out and kill Garrison and Mitchell." The police drove them away.

In the neighborhoods of schools Nos. 54 and 56, the starting point of Bronx riots, the police made many arrests for truancy today, and boys as young as six years were hauled into school and interned there for the day.

100 WINDOWS SMASHED IN WILLIAMSBURG SCHOOL.

More than 100 windows were broken by school boys at Public School No. 57 in Williamsburg, and one of the oak doors was split open with a battering ram. Five boys were arrested and later arraigned in the children's court before Judge Wilkins, who presided here for the first time. The boys had been incited by political speeches.

A crowd of truants from Public School No. 57 in the Bronx, this afternoon made a demonstration before No. 53, seeking to incite pupils there to strike. Six boys were arrested.

At Public School No. 43, the Bronx, Principal Hammie said 10 per cent. of his pupils were missing. Most of them, he thought, had been kept at home by their parents' fear they would be injured in the riots.

All the children and adults who were arrested were closely questioned. Most of the children said their parents were taxicab drivers. They want them to be taxed to go to work and be "paid wages." One boy said: "My father is a Socialist, and I don't want to be a slave. I'm going to be a capitalist."

The most serious complaint made by any of the parents was by a mother of three school children. She said they came home to lunch at three different hours under the pretext of being hauled to school from 10 in the morning to 2 in the afternoon.

Acting Chief Inspector Dillon sent special instructions to the danger precincts and general orders to all patrolmen and detectives to give special attention to the schools.

"If we could find anybody directly responsible for stirring up the school children to strike we would be justified in prosecuting such a person for inciting to riot," said President Willcox today. "But the disorders seem to be the result of the general political campaign of misrepresentation."

Mr. Willcox took from his pocket a couple of political folders issued in the Hyman publicity campaign "Stand by Your Children" was the caption on one. The other was headed "Protect Your Children."

2,000 RIOTERS MOB SCHOOL AND INJURE THREE POLICEMEN

The women who entered were met by the principal, Miss Kate McKee. "Our children, our children!" shrieked the invaders, Miss McKee tried to be heard.

"Every mother who wants her child can have him," she shouted. But the tumult increased. Windows were crashing all around. Stones were bounding from the inner walls. Children were crying and running.

Miss McKee ordered the opening of all doors, and the children ran out, followed by their mothers. In a few minutes the building was empty of all teachers and officials.

But outside the riot was just reaching its height. Inspector McElroy with two husbands of reserves had been in a neighboring district watching for milk riots when he got the word of trouble at the school. Both buses hurried to the scene.

One bus, in charge of Policeman George Hinds, was impeded by the crowd that pressed from wall to wall. Hinds drove very slowly, shouting to the throng to clear a passage. Instead, the frantic mob attacked the police.

ALL CITY'S BANKS ENTER INSTALMENT BOND SELLING PLAN

Liberty Loan Method Advocated by Evening World Spreads to Largest Concerns.

Every bank and trust company in Greater New York has adopted the partial payment plan for Liberty Loan bonds, which was advocated by The Evening World and started among the savings banks.

The largest institutions in Wall Street now offer accommodations for rich men and poor men to buy bonds with a small cash payment, the balance to be carried in a loan at 4 per cent, which can be liquidated by future installment payments.

Announcement was made today by the Liberty Loan Committee that not only have the great national banks and trust companies of New York taken up the popular plan, but that it is spreading throughout the territory included in the Second Federal Reserve District. Sixty per cent. of all the banks in the district have adopted the installment plan.

In less than two weeks, since the Evening World began its advocacy of this effective method of buying bonds and paying for them out of future earnings and savings, it has spread to the top of the nation's financial structure.

While the installment plan is not a new device, having been used in a modest way in some banks and in industrial establishments for benefit of their own employees, it was not adopted and advocated generally by the banks.

The Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank was the first to proclaim its support of the plan two weeks ago, and it progressively took the lead to induce people of small means to subscribe and pay out of new savings without drawing on their old accounts. The Bowery Savings Bank, the Bowery Bank and the Bowery Bank joined enthusiastically in the group, all three achieving wonderful results.

A few days ago the big banks of Wall Street began to take notice, and they have now enlisted in the most progressive and popular movement of the Liberty Loan campaign.
