

QUICK REPERIMENT FACING GERMANS WHO FAIL TO MOVE

U. S. Marshal and Deputies to Clear Waterfront of Aliens by Saturday.

Deputies under the direction of United States Marshal McCarthy today continued their drive against alien enemies living or working in the barred zone along the city's waterfronts, notifying them that, permit or no permit, they must vacate within twenty-four hours with the alternative of going to Ellis Island.

It is expected that by the end of the week every German will be banished from the restricted districts.

Placards will be posted showing alien enemies just what streets they are to use in going to the ferries, immediate arrest and internment will be the punishment for any German who is caught using other than the prescribed routes. Marshal McCarthy's men devoted most of their efforts today to the river fronts south of 23d Street.

Max Mangeladerfer, a German employed in an uptown store, was interned on Ellis Island today for bragging about what Germany would do to the United States before the war ends. It is understood that fellow clerks notified the authorities it would be well to put a check on Mangeladerfer. A couple of officials dropped into the store today just in time to hear him launch into another wall of pity for the U. S. Before Max realized it he was goosestepping to Ellis Island.

Robert Fritchie, a young German who had been employed as a bartender for the last three weeks in a saloon at 34th Street and 12th Avenue, opposite the pier of the Italian Line and near a great deal of Government shipping, was arrested there by detectives Murphy, Funnely and Randolph.

He had a zone permit from Marshal McCarthy, but he also had letters showing that he had been recently at Spartanburg and at Jacksonville, Fla. He admitted that he had not informed the Federal authorities of these facts when he got his permit, explaining that he was "too lazy."

He said he had been a waiter at Spartanburg in a restaurant near the army cantonment. After examination he was turned over to the Federal authorities.

Marshal McCarthy today suggested to a number of large concerns that it would be well to give alien enemies employed in the engine rooms of their establishment. It is understood the Edison Company was one of the concerns so advised.

That women and children of alien enemies may not suffer from privation, the Federal authorities have been notified that several Americans of German descent and Germans residing in New York have formed a prisoners of war relief committee, with headquarters at No. 11 Moore Street.

Ambassador Luncheon Guest of Commons Committee.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Commons Committee of the House of Commons gave a luncheon today for Walter H. Page, the American Ambassador. Among the large number of guests were the members of the American Mission to the Inter-Allied Conference and Vice Admiral Sims, commander of the American naval forces in European waters.

Foreign secretary Balfour, in proposing Mr. Page's health dealt with the course between Great Britain and America by legislative committee. Mr. Page expressed his thanks for the compliment paid him by the committee.

Difference Between What You Eat And the Food You Actually Require Would Feed a Large Army in France

THE AVERAGE NEW YORKER EATS PER WEEK IS HE WOULD SAVE PER WEEK HE WOULD SUPPLY THE DRAFT ARMY OF NEW YORK CITY

You'll Never Believe What Quantities You Eat Until You See the National Food Administration's Exhibit at the Grand Central Palace, and There, Too, You May Learn How Easily You Can Nourish Yourself Without Eating All Good Things to Which You Are Accustomed.

By Nixola Greeley-Smith. HAVE you any idea how much you eat? Of course not. If you had, you wouldn't do it.

But if you wish to be confounded by the evidence, go up to the National Hotelmen's Exposition, now going on in the Grand Central Palace, and see for yourself. No mere figures will confront you, but actual wheat and meat, sugar and fats, arrayed accusingly on the counters of the National Food Administration exhibit. Side by side with what you eat is another display of what you should save and the amount of food this saving will provide for New York City's Draft Army.

Here is what you eat weekly—don't deny it, for Hoover can prove it on you: Six pounds of wheat. Three and a half pounds of meat. Two and a half pounds of sugar. One and three-quarters pounds of fats.

All this is represented in kind at the Food Administration Booth in wheat, sugar, fat and sirloin steak. After you have studied it and promised yourself to reform, you will be in a state of mind to look at the exhibit of what you should save weekly: Seven ounces of sugar. Seven ounces of meat. One pound of wheat. Two ounces of fat.

This saving will provide New York City's Draft Army with three and a half months, wheat for three and a half months, sugar for nine and a half months and butter and lard for seven and a half months.

Every kind of substitute for foods needed by the armies is shown also. Meat equivalents are chosen, eggs, milk, split peas and beans. You are shown that a quart of milk equals in food value two-thirds of a pound of sirloin steak, two pounds of codfish, or eight eggs. The milk, the steak, the eggs and the codfish are all right there to prove it to you.

There, too, are the butter substitutes and every variety of wheatless bread that can be made, and there are maple syrups and molasses and honey to be used instead of sugar. At the opening of the exposition there was some candy. "Use this sparingly," said the sign over the plate. Yesterday the sign and the plate were still there, but the candy had disappeared. "Everybody took some, and to-day there is none left," said the blond young woman in the blue and white uniform of the Food Administration who presides over its booth.

RUMORS of a camouflage mine pie to provide Thanksgiving cheer without diminishing the supply of beef had reached me, but the Food Administration booth knew nothing about it. Diligently I searched for the camouflage pie through the two floors of exhibits and finally reached the conclusion that its ingredient was camouflage. I said as much to the young man who presided in the press booth and his denial was faint-hearted. So I came away and was preparing a pieless article when the telephone bell rang.

"Hello," said the telephone. "This is Worth, Culwell. I understand you say there is no such thing as the camouflage mine pie. Now I admit we haven't got one up here at the Palace, but I've heard hotel men talk about it and I ate some of it yesterday at the hotel men's luncheon."

"Very well," I said. "What is there in it besides camouflage?" Here follows a recipe for camouflage mine pie: You put in currants and raisins and all the regular fixings for mine pie, but you don't use any beef—only steak and green tomatoes. That, you see, helps to use up the green tomatoes that remain on the vines after frost. They can't all be used up in pickles, and with the steak it helps fill up the camouflage mine pie and saves the beef for the soldiers."

Stout is beef fat, I thought, but perhaps I shouldn't hold an autopsy over the camouflage mine pie. And while we are talking about pie, I'd better tell you that the New York branch of the International Association of Women has adopted resolutions calling upon the Government to proclaim two pieless and puddingless days a week. This, say the men who handle the food of our hotels, will enable them to economize on fats, sugar and wheat, and the public can eat fresh fruits on the pieless and puddingless days.

SEIZE ALIEN RADIO EXPERT. Former Member of Kaiser's Yacht Crew Taken at Elmira. ELMHURA, N. Y., Nov. 14.—There is considerable mystery in the arrest here of Ernest Mignon, a German reservist, who is the head of the Mignon Wireless Corporation of this city. The concern makes wireless apparatus and does a stoneware business. Secret agents, after arresting Mignon, took several pieces of apparatus and sealed them. Mignon at one time was a member of the crew on the Kaiser's yacht. He had a wireless station here until it was dismantled at the beginning of the war.

HERM IS POPULAR. There was quite some excitement down to the Village Green from what we could see from our window. Guess we'll close shop and see what the trouble is.

HOUSE'S MISSION IN LONDON TO WORK AND NOT TO DINE

Americans Ban Social Gayeties and Hold Important War Conferences.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The American mission, headed by Col. E. M. House, is in England to work. The American Commissioners have made it perfectly clear to-day that they feel their job as war representatives keeps them entirely too busy to go in for social gayeties.

Col. House and his colleagues have refused a host of invitations for entertainment here. The way in which they have stuck on the job and the energy they manifest is arousing the admiration of Britishers.

Within two days Col. House has had conferences with Foreign Minister Balfour, Lord Miler of the British War Council, Lord Cecil, Gen. Smuts, Sir Edward Grey, Sir Edward Carson, Gen. Robertson, Lord Curzon, Lord Reading, Lord Northcliffe and the French Ministers Klots and Chaumet. He has lunched with Sir John Jellicoe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, Hon. Law and other high British officials. Meanwhile his brother commissioners have been busy in constant conferences with British experts in their own particular lines.

All discussions, it was stated to-day, have been characterized by the utmost frankness, and the Americans are intensely pleased at the spirit of earnestness and co-operation evinced by the British.

Admiral William S. Benson, a member of the American mission, has returned to London from a visit to the British grand fleet, during which he conferred with Vice Admiral Beattie, the British commander.

DOES WITHOUT ALIMONY AS HER "BIT" IN THE WAR Mrs. Sellon-Gleason, Former Boston Society Favorite, Aids Husband in United States Service.

Mrs. Florence Agatha Sellon-Gleason, a former Boston society favorite, contributed her "bit" in the war to-day by abandoning claim for alimony in her suit for absolute divorce from Sarel Everett Gleason before Justice Edward J. Gavegan in the supreme court.

"I am not asking for alimony because my husband is enlisted in the service of our country, and I don't believe he receives a very large compensation," Mrs. Gleason told Justice Donnelly. Divorce papers were served on Gleason at Naval Reserve Base No. 6, Bensonhurst, L. I., on Sept. 28.

The Gleasons were married at Boston on Nov. 2, 1903, by the Rev. William T. Beale in what was called one of the most brilliant social events of that season. Their divorce action followed a raid on a room in the Hotel York on the night of Dec. 12, 1916, led by Mrs. Gleason, Frederick Donnelly, a mutual friend, and private detective.

Justice Gavegan awarded Mrs. Gleason the custody of her child, Sarel Everett Gleason Jr., twelve years of age, who has been living with her at No. 55 Hamilton Terrace since his parents separated.

WILLIAM F. SCHNEIDER WEDS. County Clerk Marries Miss Louise D. Burkhart.

William F. Schneider, Clerk of New York County for the last eight years and recently re-elected, and Miss Louise D. Burkhart, were married at noon to-day by Rev. Dr. W. E. Bourquin of Brooklyn at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Yonkers, family church of the bride.

Miss Emma Burkhart, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, while L. J. O'Reilly, secretary to William F. Schneider, attended the bridegroom. The guests included City Court Justice and Mrs. Richard H. Smith, Municipal Court Justice and Mrs. John J. Cowan, Mrs. L. J. O'Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wechsler, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Wechsler, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schneider Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Burkhart and others.

After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Schneider will make their home at the Hotel Hollis in Washington Square.

EXPLAINS HIS SUGAR 'HOARD.' Hoboken Grocer Says He Was Holding It for Regular Customers.

William E. Parpart, a Hoboken grocer, in whose cellar and store Health Commissioner Stack on Monday found between 600 and 700 pounds of sugar after Parpart had refused to sell a pound to an investigator of the department, explained to-day before Judge Robert F. Parpart, who held the charge of hoarding sugar, that he had been holding his supply for his 400 or 500 regular customers, which he thought he had a right to do.

MARLBOROUGH PASSES BIRTHDAY WITH WIFE

DUKE and DUCHESS of MARLBOROUGH

Duke and Duchess, Long Separated, Are Both at Blenheim, London Hears.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Daily Graphic prints the following: "The Duke of Marlborough is forty-six to-day. Both he and his Duchess are at Blenheim Palace."

In view of the fact that the Duke and Duchess, who was formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt of New York, have been separated for a number of years, the children spending part of the time with their mother and part with their father, this announcement is causing great interest in social circles.

A reconciliation has been effected between the Duke of Marlborough and the Duchess, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, who have been separated for ten years, is probably due to the personal appeal of W. K. Vanderbilt.

At his office in the Grand Central Terminal it was said this morning that Mr. Vanderbilt had been abroad for some time and was now in England. As the estrangement between the couple was reported to have been caused by the extravagance of the Duke, it is thought that he has been able to convince his father-in-law of a determination to retrench, and that Mr. Vanderbilt has induced the Duchess again to take up her residence at Blenheim Palace.

At the time of the marriage in St. Thomas's Church here, Nov. 6, 1895, Mr. Vanderbilt settled an annuity of $100,000 on the Duke and gave his daughter $5,000,000.

MILK MERGER SUGGESTED AS WAY TO REDUCE COSTS Dairymen's Treasurer Tells Mayor's Committee Taking Over Corporations Would Help.

The Mayor's Committee on Milk resumed public hearings to-day at the Board of Health Building, No. 139 Centre Street, with N. A. Van Sost, general manager of the Dairymen's Co-operative Marketing Association, as the first witness. Van Sost testified he purchased his milk from fifteen creameries. He said he had been paying the dairymen prices and could not sell milk cheaper than the wholesalers have been selling it in New York. He declared his profit on a can of milk containing forty quarts was only five cents a quart.

F. H. Thompson, Treasurer of the Dairymen's Co-operative Marketing Association, the next witness, said the purpose of the organization was to keep the price up as the fewer thought that if all ends of the milk industry were under the control of the Co-operative Association the cost of production and delivery would be reduced. He said he meant by that taking over Borden's, Stevens' and other corporations.

The holdup took place almost in front of the factory a moment after West stopped from a taxi cab.

SEIZE MAN ON SHIP RUMORED HIGH IN GERMANY'S SERVICE

Hinted Prochnow, Taken Off Vessel From South America, Is Leader in Propaganda.

Federal officials watching for alien enemies made what they evidently regard as one of the most important arrests of the last few months when they took a man named Franz Prochnow from a vessel which reached this port to-day from a South American country. Beyond giving the man's name the officers who arrested him refused all information concerning him.

Several conferences between representatives of various branches of the Federal Government following the arrest of Prochnow indicated the importance attached to his capture. He was taken to Ellis Island from the ship.

Reports about the Federal Building were that Prochnow, who was posing as a seaman, was one of the leaders in the anti-American propaganda on behalf of Germany in South America. It is understood that he has held many positions of importance in the German Government service.

One story is that the local officials had received information about his coming. Another had it that his eagerness to land as soon as the vessel came within sight of the city attracted the attention of fellow employees, who notified their superiors of his actions.

The latter, in turn, are believed to have notified the Federal officials by wireless. The gratification of the Federal officials over Prochnow's arrest indicated that valuable information had been found on him.

MITCHEL PUTS AT REST FEARS OF TAMMANY MEN Will Not Name New Magistrates, Lease Piers or Approve City Land Transfers.

Mayor Mitchell to-day set at rest the fears of Tammanyites that at the last moment he and other members of the Board of Estimate propose "putting one over" on the incoming administration. At an informal meeting yesterday of Tammanyites elected to the new Board of Estimate steps were taken to prevent the creation of additional places on the City Magistrates' Bench. The approval of a certain school site in Brooklyn; the leasing of additional North River piers to the New York Central Railroad; the exchange of certain lands near Coney Island Creek between the city and the Harwar Improvement Company, and the actual beginning of work on the construction of the Shandaken water supply tunnel.

The Mayor said he had no intention of making any of these transactions.

Berkman is still held in $25,000 bail pending his appeal from a two-year prison sentence and a fine of $10,000.

WORLD LIBERTY ONLY WAY TO PEACE, SAYS BRAZIL Reply to Pope Declares German Violence United Sentiment of All Republics. RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 14.—Brazil's views of the only manner in which durable peace may be obtained are set forth in the Government's reply to the peace proposal made last August by Pope Benedict, which has been forwarded by Foreign Minister Picanca. The reply says it is necessary that all nations, great and small, shall have a place in the sun, equal rights, and unrestricted opportunities to exchange ideas and committee upon the broad basis of justice and equity. Brazil never would have entered the war, the note says, if Germany had not disturbed America with her ways and deeds of violence, causing Brazil to become a belligerent for the defense of her life and fundamental rights. All the republics of the New World, the Foreign Minister states, are here in union of sentiment on the issue thus raised. VANDERBILT IS DINNER HOST.
