LONG ISLAND TRAINS TIED UP

Thousands of commuters were delayed when electric power was cut off from the North Shore branch of the Long Island Railroad at 2 o'clock this morning by short circuits and broken insulators caused by weather conditions. All station agents instructed passengers as to the best means of getting into the city and as many steam trains as possible were operated. Squads of "trouble chasers" were sent out all along the line to rush repairs.

Enter—Loeser's Finest Summer Furniture Sale

Savings 10% to a Third-- On Some as Much as Half

THE OPENING OF THE STORE TOMORROW will also bring the formal opening of what three Days of Inspection have demonstrated to be Loeser's finest summer Sale of Furniture—best of Loeser Furniture Sales yet held. It is best in the several respects of size, values, variety, finest in the character of the Furniture it shows—the amplest of sales by far that have rendered notable the month of August here.

It is a remarkable thing that so great and fine a sale could have been prepared in the face of difficulties well known to every one—but, in a measure, Loeser's had a responsibility as the "home store" of this community to make this a truly ample sale.

Brooklyn is growing fast. Hundreds of new homes are being established here. The borough is taking a new place of importance as a centre of industrial activity.

The old homes, too, must be kept up to the standard of beauty and comfort that has given Brooklyn its favor with those who care for what is substantial and true. And so we have built

The Best of All Our Furniture Sales

—a sale which includes more Furniture than any previous sale; Furniture of every kind for every kind of home, but most of all the fine, true, well designed, strongly built, medium grade Furniture that pleases best and serves best in the majority of homes.

On all of this Furniture there are definite, actual savings of at least 10 per cent. On much of it the savings are a third. On some the prices are no more than half of to-day's value, while at 15, 20 and 25 per cent. reductions from regular prices there is so vast a stock and such tremendous variety that practically every taste and every need may be satisfied at these large savings.

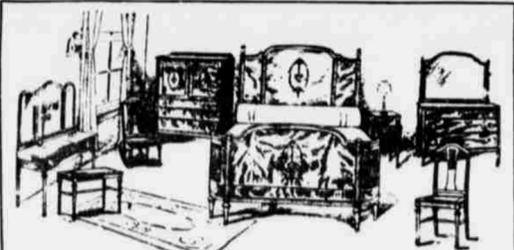

The larger part of three floors is devoted to this Furniture, in addition to our full warehouses and other shipments now on the way. The sale will continue for some weeks and will always have notable values.

Nevertheless, there is real advantage in early selection, and we invite you to be here tomorrow to reap the full benefit of choice from the very finest collection of Furniture that this community has so far been privileged to see, the best values that Loeser's was privileged to present.
