

Charlie Chaplin Married; Bride a Movie Star of 17

MILDRED HARRIS CHAPLIN

Wedded in Los Angeles Oct. 23—Official Carelessly Reveals Secret.

"When I wanted to marry I didn't have the money. Now that I have the money, I don't care to marry." There were once Charles Spencer Chaplin's sentiments, but since he made that remark the same Mr. Chaplin, who is Charlie Chaplin, Charlie of the films, the little fellow who has made millions laugh at his queer shoes and ridiculous mustache, and, incidentally, has made millions of dollars for himself, has been inducted into the ranks of the beneficiaries by charming Miss Mildred I. Harris, another screen star, of Los Angeles.

The wedding—under a bunch of "Coopers" instead of a moon—was all kept very secret, and his most intimate friends were as surprised as any one else when the news was made public recently that Charlie and Mildred had slipped quietly away to the house of R. S. Sparks, head of the Los Angeles County License Bureau, and had been married by the Rev. James I. Meyers.

This all happened as far back as Oct. 23, but they successfully kept the news to themselves until recently Mr. Sparks let the cat out of the bag when he laughingly remarked that Charlie would have to work overtime now that he had a wife to support. When questioned further Mr. Sparks confirmed the story of the marriage and added:

"Mr. Chaplin did not want any excitement made over the marriage. He told me that unless it could be kept very quiet he would go to some other county seat for a license. It would never have done to let Charlie Chaplin go to any other place than Los Angeles, so I did my best to keep things as quiet as possible."

The girl bride, for Miss Harris is only seventeen years old, has the ability to throw an appealing charm into her picture work, and will be remembered by movie fans for the quality in "The Bride of the South," in which she appeared.

Charles Chaplin was born in London in 1889, and his first appearance on the stage was with his parents when he was eight years old in "From Rags to Riches," which must have been an omen of good luck, for the last part of the title of that first play has certainly come true with him.

KILLED ON CULVER LINE.

Youth Climbing to Steps Is Hurled Beneath Train.

Swept from the step of a crowded Culver Line B. R. T. train to which he was clinging, Irving Silverstein, 20, 493 Avenue C West, Brooklyn, was killed today.

Silverstein was on his way to No. 18 Walker Street, Manhattan, where he worked for Meyer Bros. He boarded the train at 16th Avenue station, where the train was on the surface.

WIFE AND HUSBAND SHOT.

Man, Near Death, Is Prisoner in Hospital.

Charles Paton, No. 238 East 90th Street, with a possibly fatal bullet wound in his head, is a prisoner at Bellevue Hospital, charged with felonious assault and attempted suicide. At the same hospital in his eighteenth year-old wife, Helen.

It is charged he shot her in the cheek this morning at a quarrel, she ran out to the sidewalk in her night clothing and collapsed. Her husband shot himself in the right temple.

Among the exhibits of especial interest will be one showing the germ causing influenza, which was isolated by the New York Board of Health will show the supposed influenza bacilli and the antitoxin used.

DR. FERNALD, AUTHOR, DIES.

He Wrote 24 Books on English Language and Edited Dictionary.

The Rev. Dr. James Champlin Fernald, author of twenty-four books which are recognized authorities on the English language, died at his home, No. 207 Lorraine Avenue, Upper Montclair, N. J., yesterday after an illness of several months.

He was born in Portland, Me., Aug. 15, 1836, and graduated from Harvard in 1859 and from Newton Theological Institute in 1862.

In 1880 he joined the editorial staff of Funk & Wagnall Company, New York, becoming one of the associate editors of the Standard Dictionary. For four years he was dean of the Department of English of the International University, Washington, D. C.

The widow, four sons, Charles B., Henry B. and Luther B. of New York City, and Louis, James G., Fernald, Flying Pursuit Detachment, A. E. F., and two daughters, Miss Grace M. of Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss Mabel R. of Washington, D. C., survive. The body will be taken to McConnellsville, O., for burial.

WITHHOLDING AERO CLUB PRIZE REPORT DENIED

Awaiting Official Notice of Winner in Status of Liberty Flight, Says Officer of Organization.

The report, published in one New York paper, that the Aero Club of America had held up prizes which it offered for the winner of the race from Belmont Park around the Status of Liberty on the ground that it would not be seemly to present the guerdons to a non-commissioned officer is denied by Alan R. Hawley, President of the club.

"The story is made out of whole cloth," said Hawley to-day. "The Aero Club is waiting only for the proper official notification as to who is the winner. It is generally understood that Sergt. Clarence Coombs won the race in record time, but the club has received no official report to that effect. We have not the slightest trace of feeling against Sergt. Coombs. On the contrary, we have as a club entertained him, and stand ready to deliver the prize to him as soon as he is officially declared the winner."

TUGBOAT MEN AT WORK.

Resume Jobs After Celebration Following End of Strike.

Striking lighter and tugboat men who called off their strike yesterday and postponed going back to work until after they had celebrated Germany's surrender were on the job today.

Danger of a freight embargo probably has been averted. It was stated at the office of W. B. Pollock, Federal Director of Railroads' Marine Freight in New York.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

The beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv't.

ASK GRANDMA ABOUT VEGETABLE TEA FOR CONSTIPATION

Liver and Bowel remedies come and go, but Dr. Carter's K. and B. Tea, which your grandmother knew all about, is now more popular than ever.

Many families have used this tea for years, brewing it at home, and find it the best and least expensive remedy they can get. Your pharmacist will sell you a small package, which will last a long time. It's a splendid drink for constipation, acts surely and gently, and for a sluggish liver, sick headache, sallow skin and distress, many thousands of women use it. Speedy and blissful relief is guaranteed to all who drink Dr. Carter's K. and B. Tea, and don't forget that it's simply fine for children.—Adv't.

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Central Drug Co., of Detroit, Mich., says: "We consider your Castoria in a class distinct from patent medicines and commend it."

Christy Drug Stores, of Pittsburg, Pa., say: "We have sold your Castoria for so many years with such satisfactory results that we cannot refrain from saying a good word for it when we get a chance."

Jacob Bros., of Philadelphia, Pa., say: "We take pleasure in recommending Fletcher's Castoria as one of the oldest and best of the preparations of the kind upon the market."

Hess & McCann, of Kansas City, Mo., say: "Your Castoria always gives satisfaction. We have no substitute for it and only sell 'The Kind You Have Always Bought,' the original."

The Vogelt Bros., of Minneapolis, Minn., say: "We wish to say that we have at all times a large demand for Fletcher's Castoria at all of our three stores and that it gives universal satisfaction to our trade."

Polk Miller Drug Co., of Richmond, Va., says: "Your Castoria is one of the most satisfactory preparations we have ever handled. It seems to satisfy completely the public demand for such an article and is steadily creating a growing sale by its merit."

P. A. Capdan, of New Orleans, La., says: "We handle every good home remedy demanded by the public and while our shelves are thoroughly equipped with the best of drugs and proprietary articles, there are few if any which have the unceasing sale that your Castoria has."

M. C. Dow, of Cincinnati, Ohio, says: "When people in increasing numbers purchase a remedy and continue buying it for years; when it passes the fad or experimental stage and becomes a household necessity, then it can be said its worth has been firmly established. We can and do gladly offer this kind of commendation to Fletcher's Castoria."
