

EVENING WORLD'S
XMAS PARTY FOLK
WILL GO IN STYLE

Fifth Avenue Buses Will Carry Crippled Children to Strand Theatre.

By Sophie Irene Loeb.

All arrangements have been perfected for the annual Evening World's Christmas Party, which will be held at the Strand Theatre, 47th Street and Broadway, Friday and Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock. Seats have been arranged for 4,000 children each day. Letters are pouring into the office applying for seats, but it is impossible to comply with all the demands. The most gorgeous entertainment ever provided for young folks has been arranged by The Evening World. This entertainment is arranged annually and is apart from the Kiddie Klub festivities.

The Christmas festivity has aroused the keenest curiosity of the crippled school kiddies. "These poor youngsters," writes a teacher, "are always reminding me of the happy hours they spent at The Evening World's guests at the Strand Theatre last year. They are really counting the days and, believe me, The Evening World Christmas Party cannot come too soon."

Another teacher writes: "The event of last year is still vivid in their memories, and they are yearning for the Christmas Party which, thanks to The Evening World, the poor kiddies will enjoy."

Through the courtesy of the Fifth Avenue Bus Company these crippled children will travel in comfort. The Evening World has arranged to have them taken from their institutions, where they will gather, and brought to the Strand Theatre, where they will spend the most glorious time of their young lives. After the entertainment they will be safely returned to their homes.

As has been previously announced the programme will be especially for children. It will begin with the singing of the national anthem under the direction of Mr. J. Hamilton Lewis, Assistant Superintendent of the Boys' Club. Then will follow Charlie Chaplin in his funniest film, "Shoulder Arms." Following the singing of patriotic and popular airs, a moving picture screen featuring Vivian Martin, in "Mirandy Smiles" will be flashed upon the screen. The fifteen children appearing in the "Revolt of the Toy-makers" are all talented and this will be a pleasing feature of the entertainment. Mr. Downer, Superintendent of the Boys' Club, and Miss Elizabeth Fee are in charge of the committees looking after the comfort of The Evening World's guests.

Both the Hebrew Orphan Asylum Band and the Catholic Proletary Band will keep the children in high spirits during the movie show.

Trolley Car Kills a Woman. Struck by a trolley car when crossing Grand Street, near Barrow Street, Jersey City, Mrs. Mary Barry, No. 254 Barrow Street, was instantly killed early yesterday. The motorist, John King of No. 132 West 21st Street, Bayonne, said he put on the brakes as soon as he saw her. King, charged with manslaughter, was paroled in the custody of a representative of the Public Service Corporation.

BOY HELD FOR HOLD-UP.

Accused of Seeking Xmas Gift at Point of Pistol.

Albert Sassano, twelve, of No. 127 Navy Street, in the company of another boy his age named Tony, went to Fort Greene Park, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon with a well laid plan to hold up somebody and get a Christmas present.

Patrolman Carter of the Classon Avenue Station said he was on a hill in the park when he heard a shot. He found three boys in a flat fight. On his approach the boys ran, but he captured Sassano.

Upon questioning Sassano, the policeman said, he learned that Tony and Sassano had held up Leopold Ball, fourteen, of No. 174 Gold Street at the point of a pistol and robbed him of a silver watch. A fight followed then and Ball broke away and ran. As he did so Tony fired a shot after him and then he too ran.

Sassano was locked up in the Classon Avenue Station on a charge of juvenile delinquency, but he would not tell the other name of Tony nor his address.

"Don't let weakness 'get' you"

WEAKNESS usually is unnecessary. It is generally based on poor blood, and poor blood can be made rich and red.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan increases the number and capacity of the red blood cells to carry oxygen from the lungs to all parts of the body and brain. And, wherever oxygen goes in your system, it goes laden with health, energy and vigor for the cells and tissues. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a splendid general tonic, easy to digest, promptly assimilated by the blood, exceedingly pleasant to taste, universally recommended by the medical profession, and wonderfully beneficial for the weak and run-down of all ages and conditions.
