22,000 CHILDREN GREET KING AND QUEEN

HYLAN GIVES CITY'S FREEDOM TO BELGIAN KING AND QUEEN AT RECEPTION IN CITY HALL

Royal Visitors Review 22,000 School Children in Central Park.

RULER PLANTS A TREE.

Guests Showered With Confetti on Way From Battery To Welcome by Mayor.

Twenty thousand school children of all classes of the public schools from the fourth grade up, augmented by 2,000 from the DeWitt Clinton High and High School of Commerce, greeted the King and Queen of Belgium in the Central Park Sheep Meadow this afternoon, after the royal visitors had been made honorary citizens of New York City by Mayor Hylan.

It was a greeting which went to the hearts of the royal party and the King passed among the children in the order of a military review. After his reception he planted a tree to commemorate his visit here. The children were marshaled by Superintendent of Schools Eitinger and his assistants. They arose as one as the royal party entered the stand and cheered. The five hands played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and the national anthem was sung by the children and the chorus swelled by the crowds about them. The King and Queen appeared profoundly moved.

PARTY FORMALLY WELCOMED BY MAYOR HYLAN. Landing at the Battery shortly before noon the King and Queen and the Crown Prince, under an escort of infantrymen, coast artillerymen, sailors, marines and mounted police, rode up Broadway through solid banks of cheering Americans to the City Hall where they were formally greeted and presented with the freedom of the city by Mayor Hylan.

The greeting of the crowds lacked the wild spontaneity of the greeting to Gen. Pershing, but no other notables than Gen. Pershing who have visited the United States during and following the war received a more cordial welcome. King Albert and Queen Elizabeth, on their return to the Waldorf this afternoon, expressed themselves as overwhelmed by the size of the crowds, the color of the ever-changing scenes and the evidences of the vastness and movement of the city.

This afternoon the King and Queen are the guests of the school children of New York, who are to greet them in the sheep meadow in Central Park. To-night the royal party will attend the Hippodrome performance. To-morrow will be another crowded day. The spectacular features of the reception were enhanced by the brilliant sunshine and pleasant warmth. The route of march up Broadway was solidly lined by policemen who kept the crowds in orderly array on the curb lines. Thousands of clerks and stenographers in the skyscrapers showered the Belgian visitors and their escort with confetti, torn white paper and strips of ticker tape which, from a distance, made lower Broadway resemble a mountain canyon in a snowstorm.

To-day's ceremonies began at 10:15 (Continued on Second Page.)

COVERED, 1919, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World). COMISKY PARK, CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The White Sox won their first game of the series for the baseball championship of the world this afternoon when they defeated Pat Moran's Reds.

The score was 3 to 0. Dick Kerr, who was considered a dark horse in the series, was sent to the mound for the home team and came through with flying colors. He pitched excellent ball and had little trouble disposing of the Cincinnati batters.

Ray Fisher opened Kerr and at times the Vermont schoolmaster did not seem able to control the pill. A wild throw in the second inning to catch a man off the middle bag helped the Sox send two markers over home plate.

The Sox, not to be outdone, also made adouble killing in the first of the fourth, Risberg to E. Collins. Chicago added one more run in their half on Risberg's three-bagger to right and Schalk's infield single.

Jack Dempsey the heavyweight champion entered the press box as the Reds went to bat in the fifth inning and the crowd recognizing Willard's conqueror gave him a round of applause.

The White Sox scored two runs in their half of the second inning when Jackson opened that stanza with a hard hit single over short. Felsch attempted a sacrifice and when Fisher threw wild to second in an effort to get Jackson the Sox outgardener went to third and Felsch pulled up at the middle station. On Gandil's one-bagger to right both men scored. Fisher could not locate the plate for Risberg and he stroled to first. Schalk froed Gandil at third. Fisher to Groh, on an attempted sacrifice. The play was close. Kerr received a big hand as he stepped to the batter's box. He forced Risberg at third. Liebold went out of a grounder to Groh.

Fisher was removed from the box in the eighth inning when Magee was sent in to bat for the pitcher. Up to the beginning of the ninth Kerr had twirled magnificent ball. He allowed but three hits and one free walk. Louque occupied the mound for the Reds in the last inning.

The crowd was larger than the two previous games at Comiskey Park holds more people. It was estimated 35,000 witnessed the contest.

FOUR ARE INDICTED FOR BARRING HEIDE FROM APARTMENT

Agents, Superintendent and Lessor Face Trial in Conspiracy Charge.

ALL ACCUSED GIVE UP.

Released in $500 Bail Each When They are Arraigned in Court.

Indictments charging conspiracy were returned by the Grand Jury today against the four men accused by William Heide, a candy manufacturer, of plotting to keep him out of an apartment on which he was paying rent at No. 525 West End Avenue.

The men indicted are Frank and Edward Zittel, father and son, agents of the apartment house; Elson Freese, the superintendent, and Philip Katz, a millionaire silk and cloak manufacturer.

It is charged that the apartment was rented to Katz and that he was given possession of it before Heide's lease had expired. The locks were changed and Heide found himself barred out of his own house.

The defendants were arraigned before Judge Rosinsky in the Court of General Sessions and released in $500 bail each.

Heide's lease expired Oct. 1. Several days earlier he returned from a trip to the country and was puzzled to find that his apartment key would not work. The Superintendent's only explanation was "charged lock" and it is charged that he refused to give up the keys to the new lock.

Heide eventually took the case to the District Attorney's office where a Grand Jury investigation was started.

The agents have cited a clause in the lease permitting them to enter the apartment "to make necessary repairs," and they say they entered for the purpose of redecorating, this being a "necessary repair."

Heide started one action for "unlawful entry," but it failed because of that clause in the lease. The indictments have nothing to do with the "entry," it is pointed out, but only with the fact that a rent-paying tenant was excluded from his own premises. And no clause of the lease has been cited thus far to explain that.

EMPLOYERS TO APPEAL COMPOSITORS' WALKOUT OVER LOCAL UNION'S HEAD

Head of Big Six Tells Printers' League He Can't Make Men Return to Work.

At the meeting of the Wage Conference Committees of the Printers' League and Typographical Union No. 6 this afternoon Col William Green, Chairman of the employers' committee, made a formal demand that Leon H. Rouse, President of "Big Six" order back to work the compositors who have walked out in various shops from which the seceding pressmen have been locked out.

Rouse, replying, claimed that he was not responsible for the actions of the men and had no authority to order them back. The employers then decided to make a direct appeal to Maraden G. Scott, President of the International, who is due in New York to-day.

RAIL UNIONS THREATEN TO IGNORE WILSON MEETING

Won't Attend Washington Conference Unless All Organization Heads Are Invited.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Railroad unions representing more than 2,000,000 workers will not participate in the industrial conference called by President Wilson for next Monday unless it is based on labor's representation is changed to include the chief executives of all international and national unions.

Timothy Shea of the Brotherhood of Firemen said the change in representation had been suggested to Director General Hines, but that no reply had been received and none was expected.

Because of this, he said, the four brotherhoods did not expect to go into the conference and it was thought the fourteen other railroad unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor also would not participate.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—After the arrival of a special messenger from Downing Street at the headquarters of the National Union of Railwaymen, the deputation of trades unionists together with the executive board of the National Union of Railwaymen went into another conference with Prime Minister Lloyd George this afternoon. It was the second conference of the day and the fourth thus far in an effort to end the railroad strike.

FOSTER RAGES AT NEWSPAPERS BEFORE SENATORS

Refuses Views on Organized Government While Correspondents Are Present.

TIGHE ASSAILS GARY.

Asserts Chairman Is "Sowing Seeds of Anarchy" by Refusal to Arbitrate.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Charging that he had not been fairly treated by the newspapers, William Z. Foster, Secretary of the Steel Strikers' Committee, told the Senate Committee investigating the strike to-day that he would answer a question as to whether he was in favor of organized government if the correspondents were excluded from the room.

The committee took no action on the request and Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, and Chairman Kenyon pressed for an answer to the question, which had been put by the former. Foster said his views had changed, but he was unwilling to say how far in the presence of the correspondents.

When Senator McKellar first asked his question Foster laughed. The Senator then read from a book, which Foster agreed he had written, declaring social revolution necessary in the United States to secure workers' rights.

"You repudiated that pamphlet," said Foster, "but I don't want my views handed about by a lot of prejudiced lying newspapers to the damage of the strikers."

Michael F. Tighe, President of the Iron, Steel and Tin Workers' Union, presided Foster on the stand. He assailed Judge Gary's testimony.

"Information given to you by Judge Gary," Tighe said, "was not first hand evidence gained from practical knowledge of the industry, but instead consisted of his statements made to him by his employees, foremen and superintendents. It was far and away from being the truth about the industry."

Tighe repeated the charge that the Steel Corporation early in its history had appropriated $20,000,000 to fight unions, and gave names of his informants. The unions he said had never sought the "closed shop" but "union shops."

"When the management signs a contract as to scales and working conditions, it is a union shop," he explained.

Tighe declared that in refusing to arbitrate the strike, Judge Gary "is sowing the seeds of anarchy."

"I was very much put out yesterday by Judge Gary's refusal to compromise or arbitrate this issue," he said. "He is sowing the seeds of anarchy; promoting the insidious doctrine that there is no way out of industrial difficulties except by the destruction of one side or the other."

Tighe read an advertisement of 1909, credited to the United States Steel Corporation, which said: "Men wanted—Sylvians, Poles and Rumanians preferred."

"The gentleman's (Judge Gary's) remarks about foreigners now," Tighe remarked, "are not well taken in view of that."

On Oct. 1, Tighe said, 363,000 men were on strike.

"How many of these strikers can

Supplementing the official bulletin, Dr. Grayson told newspaper correspondents that the President's mind was keen and alert and his physical condition fairly good. He also is taking some nourishment.

Dr. Grayson reiterated that the President is exhausted physically and mentally and that only complete rest can restore him to good health. Each of the doctors called into consultation has agreed with him in diagnosing the case as one of nervous exhaustion and have likewise agreed on the treatment, it was stated.

Dr. Grayson said the cutting in of specialists was to give him the aid and assurance to which he believes the President and the country are entitled. He will keep in touch with them and they will call at the White House with him twice daily.

Dr. Grayson conferred with Dr. Darcum over the telephone this morning.

Dr. Grayson insists that a complete break has not come, but says he feels he is "skating on thin ice" and wants to take all precautions possible in view of the President's age and the heavy strain he has undergone in recent months.

PRESIDENT'S MIND ALERT, HIS PHYSICIANS SAY AFTER TWO HOURS AT WHITE HOUSE

Physical Condition Fairly Good and He Takes Some Nourishment—Experts Agree in Diagnosing the Case as One of Nervous Exhaustion—Daughters Hurry to Him.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—There was no improvement in President Wilson's condition this morning. Rear Admiral Grayson, his physician, held another consultation with Rear Admiral E. R. Stitt of the Naval Medical School and Dr. Sterling Ruffin, Mrs. Wilson's family physician, who participated in yesterday's consultation with Dr. F. X. Darcum of Philadelphia. Dr. Grayson remained all night at the White House.

The physicians were in consultation for about two hours and this delayed the issuing of a bulletin about the President's condition. When the bulletin was issued at 12:15 o'clock it said: "The President's condition is unchanged."

KING DENIED PERMISSION TO SEE THE PRESIDENT; "TOO ILL," SAYS DOCTOR

Albert Eager to Visit Wilson in Sick Room, but Request Is Refused.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made at the Waldorf to-day that King Albert of Belgium, desirous of visiting President Wilson in Washington, wired last night to Rear Admiral Grayson, through State Department channels, asking if he could call on the President in an unofficial capacity. A reply was received this morning in which Rear Admiral Grayson states that the President's health would not permit him to receive even an unofficial visit at this time.

The King is a great admirer of President Wilson and is seriously concerned about the President's condition. He planned to visit Washington incognito.

Dr. Grayson sat at rest rumors that there might be an operation. Such a step is not contemplated, he said. No X-ray has been used as reported. The President slept a little last night. With him is a trained nurse, who is assisting Mrs. Wilson in caring for the patient. The President has no temperature and his heart action is good, it was said at the White House.

Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo and Mrs. Francis Sayre, daughters of the President, are on their way to Washington. Mrs. McAdoo arrives this afternoon from New York. Mrs. Sayre is coming from Cambridge, Mass. It was said that while members of the family had not been summoned to Washington, Mrs. McAdoo and Mrs. Sayre had expressed a desire to come. Miss Margaret Wilson, the third daughter, is now in Washington. Prof. Sayre, now a member of the faculty at Harvard, is also on his way home. Former Secretary McAdoo arrived last night.

Secretary Tumulty said to-day that nothing, no matter how important it may be considered, will be brought to the attention of the President. Yesterday he was told of the vote on
