New Hope of Averting Strike in Coal Mines

MINERS READY TO NEGOTIATE ON WAGES AND AVERT STRIKE; MEN DEMANDING MORE WORK

Intimations of Force Won't Sway Union in Any Case, Says Lewis.

WILL ANSWER WILSON.

Leader Declares Government Could Avoid Walkout by Pressure on Operators.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—While preparations for the strike of the half million soft coal miners of the United States, ordered for next Saturday, are being continued, it was said at the international headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America here to-day that the miners are ready and willing to negotiate a new wage agreement between now and Nov. 1, that will avert the strike.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 27.—Preferring his announcement with the statement that he had received no communication from Government sources as to President Wilson's stand against the threatened strike of soft coal miners on Nov. 1, John L. Lewis, Acting President of the United Mine Workers of America, to-day declared "the widely heralded intimation that force may be resorted to will not serve to allay the crisis."

"The threats to prosecute and incarcerate myself and associates will not prevent the strike nor terminate it, if it occurs," Mr. Lewis said. "There is even yet a way in which this strike may be avoided. The Government should assemble the coal operators and use its power and influence to get from them for the miners a just consideration of their demands. An agreement could be reached within three days if the coal operators would approach the question in good faith and with open minds."

Lewis declared the refusal of the operators to negotiate a new wage agreement and their insistence that the present contract does not expire until April 1920, was the crux of the situation.

Mr. Lewis said he was "astounded to know of the action which the President has taken," and expressed the opinion that it is "without precedent, and in so far as I am aware warrant of law."

Defending the demands of the miners for more pay, Mr. Lewis said in seven and a half years mine workers had enjoyed a wage increase of only 27 1/2 per cent, whereas steel workers had been given increases reaching 117 per cent, since 1914.

"President Wilson is incorrectly informed," said Mr. Lewis, "when he says that the proposed strike was not taken by the sanction of the membership of the United Mine Workers of America."

Refusal of E. H. Gary, Chairman of the Board of the United States Steel Corporation to arbitrate the steel strike issues was mentioned by President Lewis as analogous to the attitude of miners' officials in the mine crisis.

"Judge Gary reiterated his refusal

U. S. OFFICIALS SEEKING TO CURB LOOSE LABOR TALK

Fear Indiscriminate Use of Word "Bolshevist" May Increase Present Troubles.

By David Lawrence.

(Special Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27 (Copyright, 1919.)—Cool reasoning processes alone can save the country from an era of industrial warfare. The Government is conscious of its responsibility and will do all in its power to prevent, for instance, an interruption in the fuel supply of the Nation, but the Government would like to see the dispute settled peacefully. To that end, any threat or challenges; any loose use of the word "Bolshevist" calculated to give offense to laboring men whose Americanism is unquestioned; any denial of rights previously given labor, or any attempt to take advantage of the present situation to withdraw privileges which labor already has, is looked upon by the Government as dangerous in the circumstances and as likely to add to rather than diminish the chances of industrial conflict in America.

Government officials do not underestimate the gravity of the situation in which the country finds itself. Not alone is a coal strike threatened, but labor is combining not merely on account of real grievances but on account of hypothetical or imaginary grievances. Action by Congress, for instance, although still a committee affair in one branch of the legislative department of the Government has looked toward the denial of the rights on the part of the railway brotherhoods to strike.

Unquestionably public opinion could be persuaded to support the denial of the right to strike on any public utility, such as the railroads, but in the absence of any tribunal or organization certain to give justice to the railway employees, the tendency of the brotherhoods is to join with labor generally in a general defense of the abstract and concrete rights of labor.

This has caused a lineup that might otherwise have been avoided. Similarly, as one high official pointed out, the misuse of the terms "Bolshevist" and "Radical" is only offending many conservatives in the labor ranks upon whom the country is absolutely dependent as against the forces that are preaching rebellion and Bolshevism.

In this connection, the same official suggested that employers who would pour oil on the troubled waters by classifying all the grievances of

SENATE REJECTS JOHNSON CHANGE IN PEACE TREATY

Rejects Proposal for Equal Voting in League by 38 to 40.

DEBATE IS CUT SHORT.

Nine Republicans Oppose the Amendment and Two Democrats Favor It.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The Johnson amendment to the Peace Treaty, proposing in effect that the voting power of the United States in the League of Nations be increased to equal that of Great Britain and her dominions, was rejected to-day by the Senate. The vote was 38 for the amendment and 40 against it.

The vote was unexpectedly at the request of Senator Lodge after Senator Hitchcock, administration leader, announced that he would ask for unanimous consent to vote at 1:30 P. M.

"I see no reason why we cannot have a vote right now," Lodge declared, and the roll was called without further delay.

Republicans voting against the amendment were: Colt, Edge, Hale, Kellogg, Keyes, McCumber, McNary, Nelson, Sterling, Gore and Shields were the only Democrats who voted for amendment.

Johnson introduced a second amendment which seeks to accomplish the same object as his first one.

A number of Senators were absent when the roll was called, no advance notice of the vote having been issued.

Several Democratic Senators including Phelan, California; Smith, Georgia, and Ashurst, Arizona, entered the chamber after the vote on the amendment was taken and protested that they had been taken unaware by the sudden vote and asked permission to state their attitude on the question.

At least half a dozen Senators were attending a Roosevelt memorial meeting in another part of the city when the roll call was ordered.

Of the eighteen Senators not voting, Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, voted for the Johnson Amendment but later withdrew his vote in the absence of his pair, Senator Stanley, of Kentucky, who opposed the amendment.

Had all the Senators been present and voted the result would have been 44 votes for the amendment and 72 against.

Following the vote on the Johnson amendment, the Senate took up the Moses amendment which would bar any colonies or dominions of Great Britain voting when a dispute in which England is concerned is before the League.

To the Moses amendment Senator Shields offered a substitute under which each Federal State or Empire on the league would have only one vote.
