

MISSING DANSEY BABY IS FOUND DEAD IN JERSEY SWAMP

familiar little gray-striped baseball cap with a peak. Near that was his small brown sweater. The rest of his clothing was nearby.

There is no question that the boy met his death in his own vicinity within a comparatively short time after he disappeared. Dr. Charles Cunningham, the coroner, believing it was the same day or night he disappeared.

Richard had arrived near the farm of George Coon. He began to beat back through the scrub pines when his dog picked up a trail leading down into the brush. Suddenly they stopped and began barking. This was about 100 feet back of the boundary of Coon's farm.

Richard, thinking the dogs had caught a rabbit, rushed up and found them running around the skeleton of a child. It had been partly covered by leaves.

Richard hurried to Hammonont. He went directly to the coroner, Dr. Charles Cunningham, and started back with him to the place of the discovery. As they went to the woods they spotted the news, and within a short time hundreds of persons from the countryside were hastening to the spot in all sorts of conveyances.

Dr. Cunningham took with him Policeman Prosper of Hammonont and had that officer rope off a hundred-foot section around the skeleton, while he made a preliminary investigation and gathered up the clothing. Later he removed the skeleton and clothing to a morgue in Hammonont, where a thorough examination was made.

All doubt of the identity of the boy was removed when the clothing was identified, first by Charles White Sr., a neighbor, and then by Billy's father, Hercules V. Dansey. Mr. White, incidentally, is the father of Charlie, the boy about the same age and appearance as Billy, who, it once was believed, was to have been kidnapped for a ransom had not the kidnappers taken Billy by a mistake.

The countryside is aroused by the details of the discovery almost as much as it was when the search for the missing boy first began.

Among the residents of Hammonont there is a demand for vengeance, and the authorities are called upon to find the criminal who killed little Billy.

The boy disappeared at 9:30 A. M. on Wednesday, Oct. 8. When last seen he was playing in a peach orchard on the property of Mr. White, near the Dansey home. The Whites were working in the dahlia field nearby, and Billy's grandfather was close at hand in his garden.

Somebody on the White property called to Billy to come closer to the house and play with Charlie White, and Billy answered, "Yes, I'm comin'."

BUTLER DOCKMEN FACTION MAY TURN DOWN PAY AWARD

Letter to Hyland Offers to Negotiate Directly With Steamship Men.

Delegates from the longshoremen's faction which does not recognize the leadership of President E. V. O'Connor of the International Longshoremen's Association, planned to meet this afternoon to determine whether or not they will accept the award voted yesterday by the National Adjustment Commission.

William J. Smith, secretary and treasurer of the Executive Committee of the Butler faction, sent a telegram this morning to Secretary of Labor Wilson demanding that the representatives be heard by the adjustment commission, of which O'Connor is a member. Smith in a letter to Mayor Hyland said that the Butler faction would not be a party to any agreement with which O'Connor had anything to do and offered to negotiate directly with the steamship men.

The commission yesterday awarded deep sea longshoremen on the Atlantic coast, 50 cents an hour and $1.20 for overtime, effective Dec. 1. This is an increase over the award of Oct. 4 of 70 cents an hour and $1.10 for overtime. The longshoremen demanded $1 an hour and $2 for overtime.

SUN IN ECLIPSE TO-DAY; HAZY SKIES SPOIL VIEW

Vendors of Smoked Glasses Find Little Profit Due to Nature's Intervention.

Vendors of smoked glasses for the eclipse of the sun didn't make much on their venture this morning, because of a haze which permitted a steady glance at Old Sol at 8:45, when the least of him was to be seen. The moon, which got in the way and caused the partial eclipse, shut out nearly half of the sunlight.

It looked like rain, but outside of that nothing portentous happened.

Folks down in San Antonio, Abilene, Houston, Galveston, Austin and fifteen other Texas towns saw the eclipse in full annular glory. It was visible this style also in Havana, Port au Prince, Haiti and Port of Spain, Trinidad. The annular phase began at Galveston at 1:35 A. M., central time, and lasted about seven minutes.

GERMANS ARE PUZZLED OVER DEFEAT OF TREATY

BERLIN, Nov. 22 (Associated Press).—Official quarters refrain from venturing to comment on the action of the United States Senate in adjournment without taking definite action on the treaty of peace between Germany and the Allied nations. This attitude is taken because of the fragmentary nature of bulletins received from Washington.

Absence of authentic news relative to the Senate's action is also restraining official circles, who speak of a move in securing the status of ratification as the United States in Germany.

D'ANNUNZIO ARMY PLOTTING AGAINST THE ITALIAN KING

Poet's Campaign Also Said to Have Brought Grave Crisis On Adriatic.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The situation on the Adriatic as a result of Gabriele D'Annunzio's campaign has reached a grave crisis. Private advices leave no doubt that he is determined to annex Dalmatia and attack Montenegro.

The Yugoslavs are said to have concentrated troops and to be prepared to resist aggression. A still more alarming report says a Republican undercurrent directed against the Italian Monarchy exists among D'Annunzio's forces. It is not known whether the insurgent poet leader shares the reported ambition of this military element to attack the government.

It is reported that further aggression by D'Annunzio will certainly cause hostilities with the Yugoslavs, who will direct their attack against D'Annunzio and not against the Italian Government.

To-day's London despatches supplement direct advices from Rome received on Friday night which reported the American Embassy in the Italian capital actively engaged in watching the situation in Italy.

tionary doctrine. Mr. Berger said Martens's statement that big American business firms had solicited Russian trade was false.

"Martens has absolutely no standing here," Mr. Berger said, "and he will be treated the same as any ignorant alien."

HUNT ON FOR MISSING RADICAL WRITER.

District Attorney Swann to-day ordered a far-reaching search for Max Cohen, radical and revolutionary writer, some time editor of the Revolutionary Age, wanted as an important witness before the Grand Jury investigating anarchy.

It was learned that Cohen has been missing for about a week, and Assistant District Attorney Burke has received information indicating that he made his way to Mexico. There are doubts about that, however, and the general opinion is that Cohen will be found in some part of the United States.

One point on which Cohen is believed to be able to throw much light is the financing of radical activities by prominent women. Evidence has been found tending to show that Rose Pastor Stokes has contributed money to the support of radical and revolutionary publications. Cohen is believed to be able to give the names of other women not yet mentioned in connection with "Red" activities.

Eighteen prisoners seized as members of the Communist Party in a roundup by the Lusk Legislative Committee on Nov. 4 were arraigned to-day before Magistrate Brough. They are charged with criminal anarchy, and were arrested along with James Larkin, Irish agitator, and James Gilroy, former Socialist Assemblyman. At the request of Assistant District Attorney Burke, all the cases were adjourned until next Saturday.

Mr. Berger to-day discredited published reports that the lives of several officials had been threatened by "reds."

"Personally, I don't think there is a thing to the reports," he declared. The reports said that a "murder squad" of five men, selected by lot, had been assigned to kill Police Sergeant James J. Gegan, Assistant District Attorney Alexander I. Rorke and Charles F. Scully, special agent of the Department of Justice.

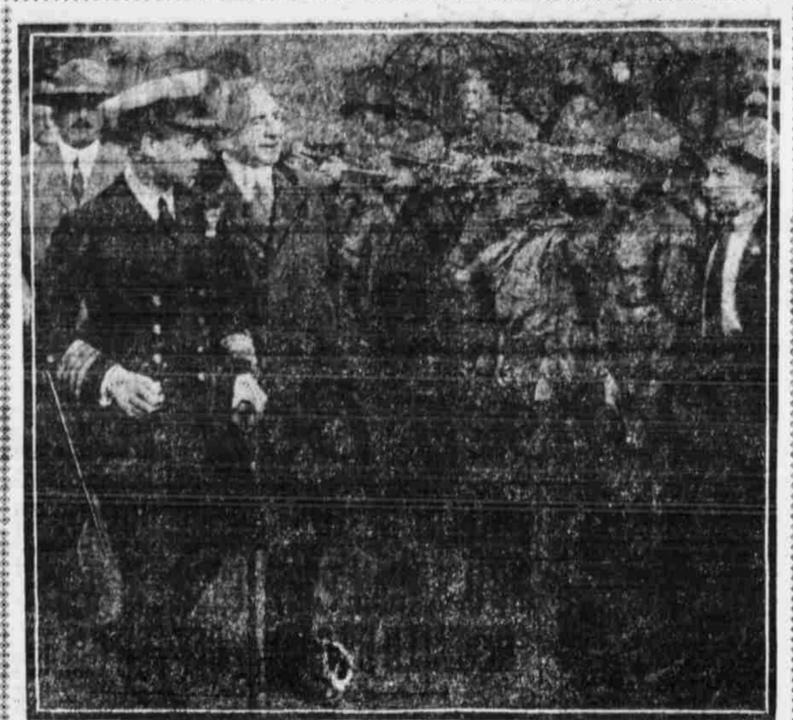

Three of the "Committee of Death" it was reported, are members of the I. W. W. in this city, and the other two are members of the Union of Russian Workers. They expected to carry out at least two of their murders while raids were being made, it is stated.

Besides this plot a local revolutionary group was declared to have set aside $68,000 to buy firearms and explosives.

The murder plan was said to have been decided upon at a secret meeting of members of the Communist Party, the Union of Russian Workers, and the I. W. W.

There is no authorized version of how the report of the "murder squad" plot reached the authorities. But the story is told that not long ago detectives who were trailing a friend of Mollie Steiner saw him drop a letter in a mail box near Broadway and 17th Street. A police envelope was dropped in immediately after it identified it.

When examined by the Federal authorities, the letter is said to have proven a threat against Sergt. Gegan's life. While this as a clue, certain persons were followed.

A week ago the police raided a radical meeting in East Fifth Street. It is reported, but not officially admitted, that some of the five men held after the raid admitted they had just reached an agreement to assassinate the three men named, and had even drawn lots that decided the "Committee of Death."

Two of the men are said to have confessed, and even to have given the names of the "committee."

High School Teacher Denied Leave for Labor Meeting.

Abraham Lefkowitz, a teacher of history in the De Witt Clinton High School, has been denied a five-day leave of absence to attend a labor convention in Chicago. He has also been denied a permanent license to teach in the public schools because of his alleged radical views. This action was taken on the recommendation of Dr. John L. Tildley, Division Superintendent of Schools.

REDS GET "BOUNCE" AT SOCIALIST RALLY

Seller of Communist Organ Flung Into Street—Sympathizers Denounce Party.

Members of the I. W. W. and the Communist Party who attempted to sell the Communist World during a meeting of the Socialists of the 5th Assembly District in Webster Hall last night caused something near a riot when the Socialists ordered them to cease selling in the hall.

Despite the fact that Magistrate McAdoo had ruled that membership in the Communist Party constitutes a crime, the vendors loudly shouted the name of the paper and their party affiliation. No policeman was present.

After one of the vendors had expended much oratory against the order, in the course of which he said he was just out of prison, the Webster Hall guard, instructed by the Socialists, managed to drag the orator down the stairs and into the street. With him went several men and women who decried the Socialists as "a scum of the working class."

STAGGERS TO CORNER AFTER HE IS SHOT THROUGH HEART

Lodger Suspected of Killing Boarding House Keeper in Street After Quarrel.

Edward Schmidt, forty-four, proprietor of a boarding house at No. 14 West 8th Street, was shot through the heart in front of his place last night. Shortly after 9 o'clock he staggered into a cigar store at 8th Street and Columbus Avenue and told the proprietor, Nathan Wortsman, that he had been shot. He fell to the floor and died a few seconds later.

The police of the West 8th Street Station are searching for a former lodger with whom they say Schmidt had had an argument over the lodger's refusal to give up a room wanted by Schmidt for another lodger.

Organize a Gen. Wood Club.

A movement to organize the Republicans of Elizabeth, N. J., in support of the candidacy of Major Gen. Leonard Wood has been started by about twenty-five active members of the party. Col. William B. Martin, County Clerk, was elected President of the organization, which will be known as the Gen. Wood Club. A committee of five was appointed to draft rules for the club.

LONDON INDIGNANT OVER STATUS OF FRENCH TREATY

Objects to Holding Up Special Pact Until United States Senate Acts.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The suggestion of Andrew Bonar Law, Government spokesman, that Great Britain's participation in the proposed Franco-British-American defensive alliance depends upon acceptance of the agreement by the United States has aroused a storm of protest in the London press.

The Times refuses to believe that Bonar Law meant exactly what he said and rebuked him for "careless wording." Bonar Law's statement is sure to cause alarm in France, the Times asserted.

"What France wants is a clear, unambiguous statement that whatever the American Senate may do to the Franco-American treaty, Great Britain will do her part," the Times said. It expressed hope that a "fuller realization" in the United States of all that is involved in the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations will lead to a change in the Senate's attitude.

It is obvious that new guarantees from Germany will be necessary if America does not ratify the Franco-British-American pact, the newspaper added.

The American Senate has "given such a shock to other democracies" that nothing it may do within the next month will entirely undo the "mischiefs already caused by its actions," according to the Chronicle.

Bonar Law, answering a question in the House of Commons yesterday, said that Great Britain's undertaking in the proposed Franco-British-American Alliance, which binds Great Britain and the United States to come to France's aid in event of unwarranted aggression by Germany, was contingent upon a similar ratification by the United States.

Meanwhile despatches from Paris reported the pact had been formally ratified by the French and British representatives there and that France considered, so far as Great Britain was concerned, it was effective immediately.

ONLY 25 AT HOBO COLLEGE.

Millionaire How Represented by Sandwiches and Coffee.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 22.—The Cleveland branch of the James Eads How string of hobo colleges got away to a rather poor start last night, with only twenty-five "students" in attendance. How, "millionaire hobo" of St. Louis, was not present, but he was represented by several baskets of sandwiches and pots of coffee.

Big Tips Lead to His Arrest.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 22.—Ralph Deichen, whose dollar tips to barbers and expensive clothes made him locally conspicuous, was arrested to-day on a Federal warrant charging him with embezzlement of $27,000 from the Ridgely Farmers' State Bank, where he was employed as paying teller until a month ago. Miss Jessie Connor, bookkeeper, was arrested on the same charge. Miss Connor, it is alleged, assisted Deichen in covering up his defalcations.

PAGEANT BY OLD-TIMERS TO SHOW GROWTH OF BRONX

Tableau Will Honor Those Who Have Served in Various Wars.

If you remember the time when no man was strong enough to lift a dollar's worth of corned beef, and if you lived in the Bronx that far back you're eligible for membership in the Old-Timers Association, which is preparing for its annual entertainment and ball at Washington Hall, 166th Street, on Dec. 2.

To become a member of the Old-Timers one must have resided in the Bronx for fifty years. It seems that long ago since the aforementioned portion of corned beef would tax the strength of a Samson, Olin J. Stephens and Louis F. Haffen are two of the "young" Old-Timers. Henry Lurch, who has been in the Bronx seventy-one years, is another. Henry organized the Volunteer Fire Department in the Village of Morrisania, now the heart of the Bronx.

There will be two features to the entertainment. One will be a historic pageant on the growth of the Bronx. The other will be a tableau of the various wars in which Bronx men have fought.

3 DETECTIVES DEMOTED AFTER PRISONERS VANISH

Police Action Follows Report of Bronx Grand Jury Over Accused Auto Thieves.

Three detectives of the Morrisania Police Station were demoted yesterday to the grade of patrolman, following the action of the Bronx Grand Jury, which sent to Commissioner Earihart the minutes of an investigation it made on the disappearance of five men indicted for grand larceny.

The men are Michael Foley, Edwin McGrath and Joseph Duane. The indicted men are John A. Hennessy, Michael Sullivan, William Smith, Edward P. Poole and Timothy Hennessy. They are accused of stealing several hundred automobiles. The District Attorney's office has thirty-four complaints against the men.

ST. LOUIS SELLS 2.75 BEER ON FEDERAL COURT O. K.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 22.—Beer of 2.75 per cent alcohol content was sold freely in St. Louis to-day following the issue by Federal Judge Pollock yesterday of a temporary injunction restraining the United States District Attorney and the Collector of Internal Revenue from interfering with the manufacture or sale of the beer.

Twelve breweries were ready to resume manufacture of the beverage as soon as counsel notified them from Kansas City, Kan., that Judge Pollock had signed the order making the injunction operative. It was announced. United States District Attorney Hensley said the decision would be appealed.

TO FIGHT FOR TOBACCO.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 22.—An organized fight on the anti-tobacco propaganda being spread by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was begun yesterday by the Allied Tobacco League of America. This league is composed of leading tobacco manufacturers and retailers of the country.

T. H. McCartin, St. Louis representative of the league, said to-day that speakers soon would tour the country. Literature will be printed to combat the work of the W. C. T. U. "Threats of prohibition of tobacco have aroused the traders and workers to action," said McCartin. "We are not going to sit idly by and see a wonderful industry destroyed by meddling women who have no conception of the problem they are attempting to solve. We are starting to-day to offset the work in favor of legislation against tobacco."

SEARCH WALL ST. TO LOCATE STOLEN STOCKS AND BONDS

Assistant District Attorney Hopes to Recover $500,000 of the Plunder To-Day.

Assistant District Attorney Dooling invaded the Wall Street district to-day with a large force of detectives in a search for stolen stocks and bonds. He declared that before the day was over he would have recovered $500,000 worth of stolen securities.

"I am recovering them at the rate of $1,000 a minute," Dooling said as he left the Criminal Courts Building. "Already, over the telephone I have recovered 100 shares of Royal Dutch stock, quoted at $103 a share; 100 shares of Crucible Steel, selling at $168 a share; 25 shares of Allied Packers and 25 shares of Standard Milling."

Arrests were expected to-day in two thefts on Thursday of Securities valued at $100,000.

Inspector Grant of the Washington Police Department reported to the District Attorney's office here that $500,000 of stolen securities had been located there and in Philadelphia. One hundred shares of Mexican Petroleum have been located with the Continental Trust Company in Washington and 500 shares with the Franklin Trust Company in Philadelphia. The value of those shares is more than $80,000.

In announcing the location of stolen securities with local brokerage concerns, Mr. Dooling said this did not indicate these firms were in any way connected with the thefts. He pointed out that the organized gang of thieves "unloaded" on honest concerns in numbers of instances.

It was brought out in connection with the investigation that the "careless methods" of brokers are in part responsible for their own losses. They are said to have become lax because their employees are bonded, and to have permitted too much latitude.

JAP WHO TOOK A CHANGE HELD IN $10,000 THEFT

Valet Freed by M. C. Towns Is Rearrested by Ossining Police.

Gohyichi Koyanagi, a Japanese valet employed by Mirabeau C. Towns, a diamond merchant of No. 3 Maiden Lane, was freed of a charge of grand larceny yesterday in Flatbush Court, Brooklyn, and rearrested on a similar charge by Ossining police. He is alleged to have stolen $10,000 worth of jewelry from Mr. Towns's summer residence in Ossining. Mr. Towns did not press the first charge, having been informed that Koyanagi would be sent back to his native land.

The valet, however, preferred to take a chance with the Ossining police than be voluntarily deported. Mr. Towns said the Jap was planning a trip to Paris which he caused his arrest. Mr. Towns lives at No. 132 Sixth Avenue, Brooklyn.

BELIEVE BANDIT TRAPPED.

Union Pacific Foes Is Thought Close Upon Criminal's Trail.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 22.—Reports received at division headquarters of the Union Pacific Railroad here to-day led officials to believe that William (Bill) Carlisle, the train bandit, might be captured before daylight. He is believed to be west of Casper, closely pursued by a party of men headed by John C. Gale of Omaha, chief of the Union Pacific Railroad's secret service staff.

Laborer Crushed to Death.

George Conti, eighteen, a laborer, of No. 32 West End Avenue, was crossing the New York Central railroad yards at 61st Street to-day when he was caught between two freight cars and crushed to death. An ambulance took his body to the West 88th Street Police Station.

PASSENGERS PROPOSE I. O. U. TO PAY EXTRA FARE

Would Give Brooklyn Line Ticket and Redeem It if Company Wins Suit.

Officials of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company this morning were making arrangements for the starting Monday of the collection of the second fare on the Flatbush Avenue line, for which the company will give a ticket redeemable if the decision of the court should be against the charging of the additional fare. A report is in circulation that residents of the district are going to adopt a scheme by which they will give the company a ticket for the second fare, which they guarantee to redeem should the courts decide in favor of the company. The rumor has it that the residents will write their names and addresses on the tickets and will present them to the conductors when the second fare is demanded. The residents will adopt the attitude: "We will owe you the money instead of you owing it to us."

LONDON DOUBTS KILLING OF 55,000 BOLSHEVISTS

War Office Gets No Word of Reported Victory of Denikine.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The War Office to-day had no confirmation of a despatch from Helsingfors declaring Gen. Denikine reported he had broken the Bolshevik lines between Orel and Tambov, annihilating 50,000 Soviet soldiers. The War Office viewed the Denikine report with considerable skepticism, as it did a report that peasants and workmen had revolted against the Russian Soviet Government in Moscow.

Emergency Fleet Ships Launched.

KEARNY, N. J., Nov. 22.—The last of thirty steel ships built for the Emergency Fleet Corporation was launched at the Federal Shipbuilding Company's yards at Kearny this morning. The vessel is named the Kearny and was sponsored by Mrs. Robert Douglas, wife of the marine engineer at the yards. The vessel displaces 2,800 tons.

ESPERANZA BRINGS MEXICO ENVOY ON SECRET MISSION

Ward Liner Docks With Passengers From Vera Cruz and Tampico.

The Ward liner steamer Esperanza docked at Pier 15, Brooklyn, this morning, bringing 42 passengers from Vera Cruz and Tampico. On board was William A. Ward of Richmond Hill, who was senior Vice Consul at Tampico. He is en route to Stockholm, where he will become senior American Vice Consul. Mr. Ward spoke hopefully of the case of William O. Jenkins and predicted that the American Consular Agent would soon be released.

"Mr. Jenkins is one of the finest men I ever met," he said. "All Americans in Mexico are very much interested in his case."

MRS. BORDEN WINS PLEA BASED ON HIGH LIVING COST

Court Adds $5,000 a Year to Income of Incompetent Widow Whose $25,000 Is Too Little.

Upon the application of Frederick P. Chase as counsel for Ambrose F. McCabe, committee of the estate of Mrs. Theresa Borden, an incompetent, widow of one of the founders of Borden's Condensed Milk Company, an order was obtained yesterday from Supreme Court Justice Young of New Rochelle allowing him to spend not more than $20,000 a year for the maintenance of Mrs. Borden. The reason given for the increase over last year's allowance of $20,000 is the high cost of living.

Mrs. Borden owns property worth $250,000. She is in the New Willard Hotel, Washington, but will soon move to a hotel in Manhattan.
