

2 HURLED TO DEATH FROM FLYING AUTO WHEN TIRE BURSTS

Yonkers Politicians Returning From Sheriff's Party Are Victims of Accident.

Joseph F. Grossman, forty, of No. 428 Park Avenue Extension, Yonkers, and his brother-in-law, James P. Mosher, forty, No. 126 Jossamine Avenue, Yonkers, the former a clerk and the other a superintendent in the Otis Elevator works, were killed at 1 A. M. to-day in an automobile accident in Yonkers. Both were well known Yonkers politicians.

Sheriff Nositor of Westchester County gave a dinner last night in White Plains to the Sheriff's Emergency Force, which was organized for volunteer war work. Grossman and Mosher were among the three automobile loads of Yonkers members who attended.

They were returning in an automobile owned and driven by Ralph E. Condit of No. 416 Bellevue Avenue, Yonkers. Grossman and Mosher occupied the rear seat and were the only occupants except Condit.

While the machine was travelling at a good rate of speed south in Warburton Avenue near Lamartine Avenue, Yonkers, a tire blew off and threw the car against the right-hand curb. It bounded to the left side of the avenue and struck a light and a telephone pole with such violence that two wheels were torn off. Grossman was hurled from the machine and instantly killed, and Mosher was pinned under the machine, receiving injuries from which he died in St. John's Riverside Hospital. Condit was uninjured.

SILKS AND WOOLENS WORTH $94,000 STOLEN

Robbery Reports Suppressed by Police Except in One Case Where Arrest is Made.

Silks and woolens amounting to $94,000 have been stolen in the last few days, and the news was suppressed by the police, excepting in one case, in which arrests have been made.

Isadore Popkin, No. 33 Chester Street, Brooklyn, is held on a charge of the theft of $24,000 worth of woolens. He is said to have confessed in the District Attorney's office.

Henry Birn, a member of the Magnet Woollen Company, was held in $2,000 bail on a charge of receiving some of the stolen goods.

Raw silk worth $50,000 in an automobile truck was stolen Wednesday while Frank Duran, the driver, was making deliveries. The silk was the property of the Sussex Print Works of Newton, N. J. It was also learned that $2,000 worth of silk had been stolen from a loft in the silk district.

Walter R. Hargrave Dies.

Walter R. Hargrave, staff correspondent of the United Press, died in this city last night of pneumonia following an illness of four days. Hargrave was a native of New York and was in newspaper work for several years in St. Louis and on the Pacific Coast.

Boys' Overcoats
Special for this Week-end at $24.50

We offer to-day and to-morrow at the five Brill stores indicated below a number of warm, all-wool overcoats, for boys from 10 to 18, which make up in bigness of value what they lack, perhaps, in quantity, although the assortments of beautiful browns, greens and darker mixtures and the variety of highly desirable models is wide enough to satisfy the requirements of the most exacting young man, and of his perhaps more exacting Mother and Father.

Warm Mackinaws
