

OUR FOREIGN-BORN TELL WHAT AMERICA HAS DONE FOR THEM

after the troubles of the people, which no crowned head of Europe does, as the people have no voice in its rulers. It is the best place to live in because America knows how to look after its own affairs and the interests of the millions of aliens who come to this country. Then why should they bite the hand that feeds them? Only through ignorance.

America has thrown open its doors of hospitality to educate the ignorant in the laws and order of the country that they chose to shelter them. Would the government in the country they left take that trouble?

To those radicals who try to serve two masters I say: Quit like men and say, "I choose this day when I will serve, the master of freedom and love, justice, and forever renounce my allegiance to the old master of tyranny and oppression, and from henceforth be 100 per cent American."

None of the "I'm Better Than Thou" Spirit in America.
Lobby Editor, Evening World.
I am thirty-seven years old and was born in Yorkshire, England. I have been in the U. S. A. fifteen years. Profession, taxi driver. It may be the spirit of Abraham Lincoln, "whose simple speeches bring the tears to a man's eyes," that radiates around us, or it may be the knowledge of what a great President Wilson is, what a great good soul was Roosevelt and all our former leaders. Anyway, whatever it is, there's something that makes me love the good old U. S. A. I never met an American-born man or woman yet, rich or poor, that tried to make me believe he or she was better than me.

I think of those Rodin, Noels, Holshavski, or whatever the name is, as either something very ignorant or evil; but, thank God, they are not in the majority. The only time they'll be happy is when they're dead. "My country, 'tis of thee, great land of liberty, U. S. A."

Working Woman a Lady Here; Only a Dudge in Old World.

Lobby Editor, Evening World.
So far only men have written letters to The Evening World. On urgent request of my husband, who has already sent in a letter, I will cast my opinion of the U. S. A.

U. S. A. than in any other country in the world. While in America a working woman is a lady, in Europe they are tools. In home life the American woman is a wife, a friend and a partner. In Europe the woman is a slave and a drudge. The women of America can enter any branch of politics or commerce and not be molested. In Europe the woman in the boss of dirty dishes and a knight of the broom.

I have lived in New York, Baltimore, Virginia, North and South Carolina, and in each city for State I say I had an equal chance to gain a livelihood. I love America more than any other place on the globe.
I am proud that my boy and my baby girl are born under the Stars and Stripes, the banner of glory and liberty, the land of the woman's paradise, the land of the seat of the Prince Charming. MRS. E. M. W.

Everybody Has Chance to Make Living in America.
Lobby Editor, Evening World.
We have been five years in this country. We arrived after the World War broke out. We could not speak English and everything was very strange to us. After we were here four months we took out our first citizenship papers. We began to like the United States very much because we were able to speak a little English and made ourselves understood.

I think everybody has a chance to make a living, and the working people are much better off here than in Europe.

The children have a better opportunity for education. In Europe we need lots of money for that.
We have made a good living since we came here, and for my part I think if a country is good enough to live in it is no more than right to be a true citizen.
I am Belgian born and will be an American citizen next month. My occupation is chauffeur.

Can Do What You Like in U. S., if You Obey Laws.
Lobby Editor, Evening World.
I was born in Sweden in 1839. I have been twelve years of service in the United States Navy and I liked nothing better. They treat you so fine, and I had every chance to rise, but I got married and I resigned.

I have two children, eighteen and fourteen. They both have a fine education. The Americans are honest, trustworthy and help anybody who is down and out. The American people vote for any one they want for President and after a forefearer comes here and gets his citizenship papers he can do the same.
Out in New York Bay when you enter America is the Status of Liberty, meaning you can do what ever you want, but you must obey the laws of United States. I am an iron worker.
