

BILTMORE WOMAN WANTED NIGHTCAP ON, NOT IN, HEAD

Plenty of Color, but No Lace or Ribbons on These Recently Removed From Hotel.

EUGENE D. MILLER was finishing a busy day in his office in the Biltmore last night when his telephone rang and a man asked if the hotel could furnish a nightcap.

"It's not for me," he explained. "My wife wants it. She's subject to colds and wishes to take every precaution against this 'flu epidemic."

"I'm sorry, but there isn't a drop in the bucket," replied Mr. Miller.

"But I don't want"—

"Yes," interrupted Mr. Miller, "and we should be very happy to accommodate you, but every bit of our stock has been removed from the hotel and disposed of weeks ago."

"I don't mean what you mean," said the married guest. "You are talking about a nightcap that goes to the head. I mean one that goes on the head; you know—the kind with ribbons and blue lace and all that sort of thing."

Where February Means Furniture Values Plus

FEBRUARY, of course, means Furniture. And at Bloomingdales it means Furniture plus. We know that you will be interested in the displays—whether you need several suites or a single decorative piece. So many other home builders have found just what they wanted!

REAL HOMES—thats what this furniture is meant for. Its companionable stuff—the kind that wears well in every sense of the word. It wears well because it is masterly in make. And it wears well because it has a never-failing charm of design and detail.

Values are so good that we hesitate about trying to tell you just how good they are. We dislike superlatives. But you must see the furniture. You will readily realize its exceptional merit.
