

The Evening World's Kiddie Klub Korner

Conducted by Eleanor Schorer

In the shops you will find grouse for sale. Side by side with their brothers, the quail. You will find that their meat is both tender and sweet. But their killing is such a sad tale! Very often they leave a whole brood all alone like the babes in the wood; Newly out of their eggs. With their funny, weak legs. They are sure to die off without food.

April Title Contest.
Ten prizes of one dollar each will be awarded ten Kiddie Klub members, ages from six to fifteen years inclusive, who write the most appropriate name for Cousin Eleanor's series of animal rhymes now being published in the Kiddie Klub Korner. A note from the parent or guardian saying that the title is original must accompany each contribution. The title must not be copied from anything else, either prose or poetry but must be composed entirely by the kiddie. All the rhymes are to be about animals and their habits and queer little tricks. Try to compose a title that will fit the whole series. The contestants must state name, age, address and certificate number. Address Cousin Eleanor, Evening World Kiddie Klub, No. 63 Park Row, New York City.

MARCH DRAWING CONTEST AWARD WINNER.
Subject: My Garden.

By Burton Cornell, aged twelve years, Brooklyn.

HONORABLE MENTION.

LETTERS FROM KIDDIES.
Dear Cousin Eleanor:—I received

HOW TO JOIN THE KLUB AND OBTAIN YOUR PIN.
Memberships with pins are now being sold for 50c. The pin is a beautiful one, and the membership card is a lovely one. All children up to sixteen years of age may become members. Cards are sent promptly. Write to: KID KUB, 63 PARK ROW, NEW YORK CITY. Write your name, age, and address on the card.

Evening World and I shall read the Kiddie Klub Korner to my little boys, and to you too, Seymour. My Mommy and Daddy always read everything that's in the Korner to me, although I can read it myself too. I am trying to write a story all by myself, and a whole lot of the story is true because it really and truly happened, only I am imagining a great deal of the story. I hope after it is done it will be good enough to print in the Kiddie Klub Korner. Your own Cousin, REYMOUR ASTOR GOLDBERG, Aged 7 years, New York City.

Dear Cousin Eleanor: When I came home for lunch this noon I found a letter on my dresser containing my pin and certificate. Before I opened it I could not imagine what that little package was inside, and Oh, I was glad to find it was my pin. I also received that lovely note and I will try to keep up to the motto of my club. As you ask for criticism all I have to say is that it is the nicest club I ever heard of and I am very glad that I am one of the Kiddie Club. Thanking you for my pin, Yours respectfully, HELEN PHELAN.
