LOWDEN MEN WIN IN CONTESTS FROM TWO MORE STATES

Wood Delegates From Mississippi and South Carolina Quickly Bowled Out.

CHICAGO, June 4.—In the contests coming before the Republican National Committee to-day from eight districts of Mississippi a sub-committee reported the proceedings of the Mulvihill faction to be regular and that delegation was seated. It is unopposed, and is counted among the Lowden forces.

In the South Carolina contests, where the faction led by National Committeeman Tolbert was opposed by a delegation led by J. Duncan Adams, the committee voted to seat the delegates at large of the Tolbert delegation, which is counted in the Lowden column.

This contest furnished the committee with a half hour of vaudeville in which Tolbert drew roars of laughter, cheers and applause. Former Gov. Hooper of Tennessee, presenting the case for the Adams faction, counted for Wood, denounced the Tolbert organization as an "oligarchy" of long standing, so repudiated by the Republican voters of South Carolina that only 1,500 ballots were cast for Hughes in the entire State in the Presidential election of 1916.

The Adams delegation was supported by Frank H. Hitchcock's organizers, and aside from disputing questions of party regularity on which the Tolbert delegation rested its case, made an appeal for a reorganization in the State which they contended would bring out the Republican vote and upbraid the party.

Attacking the evidence presented by the Tolbert faction, much of which he charged was "booked up," Mr. Hooper told the committee "there is something rotten closer to this committee room than Denmark."

The committee showed its support of the tolerant faction by frequent bursts of applause and closed the case before Hooper had finished his argument.

In the contest from the First South Carolina District the National Committee voted to seat the Tolbert delegates also.

In the Second South Carolina District contest it was charged that National Committeeman Ben of Florida and former National Committeeman "Hobbs" of the District of Columbia, acting as Hitchcock organizers, were among those who attended the convention and organized the contest.

In reply to the charge of a "rump" convention the Adams faction argued that its supporters were prevented by physical force from leaving the hall by the doors and went out the windows.

"Did Mr. Bean and Mr. Bieber go out the window?" asked a committeeman. The answer was drowned in a roar of laughter and eyes as the committee voted to seat the Tolbert delegates.

TRAVERS DEFEATED IN SECOND ROUND OF GOLF TOURNAY

Surprises Galore Turn Up in Links Contest for N. J. State Championship.

By William Abbott. (Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.) ARCOLA, N. J., June 4.—William Reekie, F. F. Turrell, Frank Dyer and Maurice Risley went their way into the semi-final round to-day for the New Jersey State Golf Championship. This grouping was only accomplished after two big upsets in the second round, when Frank Dyer of Montclair plucked out Jerry Travers at the very time the former national title holder loomed up in the topical favorite Dyer, former intercollegiate champion, was in good form.

Travers was hopeless against that wildfibre golfer. He never had a real chance, although his own game was pretty long. Dyer, refusing to falter, won by 5 and 3.

P. F. Turrell of Morris County, accounted for the other surprise when he eliminated August Kammer of Baltusrol, who was another hand-picked favorite. Kammer lacked his customary brilliancy while his opponent shot around in top form seldom getting into trouble and having luck in the greens.

William Reekie, who captured the qualifying medal yesterday, defeated Gordon Cooke of Arcola, 3 and 2 without extending himself.

Maurice Risley, Atlantic City, played impressively against Eddie Van Vleck of Baltusrol, winning by 3 and 2.

The summaries: Championship Division, Second Round.—W. M. Reekie, Upper Montclair, beat G. Cooke of Arcola, 3 and 2 to play; F. F. Turrell, Morris County, beat A. F. Kammer, Baltusrol, 4 up and 3 to play; F. W. Dyer, Upper Montclair, beat Jerome D. Travers, Upper Montclair, 5 and 4; M. Risley, Atlantic City, beat C. E. Van Vleck Jr., Baltusrol, 3 up and 1 to play.

Second Division, Second Round.—H. Y. Barrow, Baltusrol, beat Stephen Berrien, Upper Montclair, 4 up and 3 to play; F. H. Richardson, Morris County, beat J. E. Hale, Glen Ridge, 1 up; W. G. Pfeil, Yonkers, defeated R. I. Barr, Baltusrol, 3 and 3; Pierre A. Proal, Deal, beat R. S. Porter, Shackamoon, 5 up and 3 to play.

Third Division, First Round.—A. K. White of New Brunswick won from R. H. Gwaltney, Baltusrol, by default; P. Platte of New Brunswick won from M. Olyphant, Klenckebrook by default; J. R. Moore, Canoe Brook, beat J. H. Smith, Forest Hills, by default; J. W. Escher, Englewood, beat P. De Ronda, Englewood, 3 up and 1 to play; Carter Smith, Hackensack, won from M. Isler, Westchester, by default; J. R. Moore, Canoe Brook, beat J. J. Kane, Weehauk, 3 up and 3 to play; W. H. Whitlock, Baltusrol, beat W. H. Mehl, Shackamoon, 2 up and 1 to play.

Fourth Division—First round: A. P. Gray, Arcola, beat H. M. Batcho, Baltusrol, 3 up and 1 to play; G. Paul, Hackensack, beat E. L. Robrenburg, North Jersey, 4 up and 2 to play; C. C. Schupp, Baltusrol, beat E. Ranges, Englewood, 4 up and 1 to play; C. E. Sausberry, New Brunswick, won from W. Marcus, Jr., Montclair, by default; G. K. Boyer, North Jersey, beat C. P. Erdman, Princeton, 4 up and 3 to play; M. Kocoshewer, Ridgewood, beat H. Measinger, Spring Lake, 7 up and 3 to play; G. H. Schupp, Baltusrol, beat E. M. Allen, Hackensack, 2 up and 1 to play.

Police Hero and Wealthy Bride He Won in Mt. Vernon Romance

HEIRESS MARRIES MODEL POLICEMAN OF MOUNT VERNON

Comrades to Give Banquet to Tierney—Will Remain on Force.

John T. Tierney, the "model policeman" of Mount Vernon, who took Wednesday off to slip quietly down to Manhattan and place a wedding ring on the third finger of Miss Josephine Limburger, one of Mount Vernon's wealthiest young women, will be banqueted some night next week by his fellow policemen, with Lieut. Michael Silverstein, boss of the Detective Bureau, acting as toastmaster.

Tierney is the only Mount Vernon policeman who has twice been selected for distinction as an honor man. On one occasion he went alone into a Mount Vernon basement at midnight to grapple with a negro giant whom he arrested for burglary. He joined the force fourteen years ago, after four years in the navy. One of his possessions is a navy medal for valor displayed in the Philippine uprising.

The policeman's bride is the only child of Mrs. Fredericka Limburger of No. 48 North High Street, Mount Vernon, whose late husband, Henry Limburger, amassed a fortune as a realty operator and manufacturer. The couple met for the first time a couple of years ago when the patrolman went to the Limburger neighborhood on a burglar hunt. Shortly afterward his beat was shifted to that section and they met frequently.

Mount Vernon mayor says the policeman was a thirty year young man in his navy days and has been a saver ever since. His brother officers say he has laid away $25,000 or $30,000. With his bride he has set up a home in a pretty cottage at No. 117 South First Avenue.

To a reporter who called upon him at home this morning the motorcycle policeman said, "Resign? Never! Why should I? Because Mrs. Tierney is said to be wealthy? What difference does that make? The police job has been my life and, unless they fire me, will continue to be."

"I don't want John to be anything but a policeman," said Mrs. Tierney. "It was his record in the Navy and as a policeman, with his department as an officer, that first aroused my admiration."

The "model policeman" is about thirty-eight years old and his wife a dozen years his junior. Mrs. Tierney, an accomplished musician, attended finishing schools in Europe.

BOLSHEVIKI OFFER AID TO MUSSULMANS

Will Drop Claim to Constantinople and Help Indian Revolution, Is Report.

PARIS, June 4.—The Bolsheviks have offered to give the Mussulmans material aid against the allies, to renounce all claims Russia might have for possession of Constantinople, and to protect Persia from domination by England, according to information to-day from the French foreign office.

These offers, it was said, were received by the authorities of Trebizond, a Turkish seaport on the Black Sea, in wireless dispatches from Moscow.

The Soviet government also was reported to have offered to assist in fomenting a revolution against British rule in India.

Will Pay Tribute to Navy Dead. Members of the naval squadron under Admiral Behley during the Spanish-American War will render their tribute to the unknown dead of the United States Navy in services next Sunday afternoon in Dreamland Park, Coney Island, according to an announcement to-day by officials of the Admiral Behley Naval Squadron No. 14, in command of William C. Hussey.

REPUBLICANS PLAY INTO WILSON'S HAND BY LACK OF ACTION

Adjournment of Congress May Prove to Have Been a Tactical Mistake.

By David Lawrence. (Special Correspondent of The Evening World.) WASHINGTON, June 4. (Copyright, 1920.)—Whether or not the Republican party in control of both Houses of Congress has made a mistake in deciding to adjourn for the remainder of the summer and autumn and leaving untouched plenty of measures which were recommended for passage by the Executive is something that will be threshed out in the political campaign, but certainly the Republicans have played into the hands of the White House in breaking themselves from the national saddle and leaving the President free from embarrassing resolutions and so-called "pop-party" bills, as proposals are called that are merely put up to a President to be vetoed.

Mr. Wilson is never happy with Congress in session and the departure of even the two Houses when the Democrats were in control occasioned sighs of relief at the White House. But this time the Republicans have kept up a constant bombardment either by investigations through scores of committees or vetoing resolutions of inquiry about matters of foreign policy. Mr. Wilson will certainly not call Congress into special session unless some "grave emergency" arises, so Washington will be free from Congressional activity until next December.

CHANGE THEIR TACTICS FROM THOSE OF 1918. From a publicity viewpoint, the Republicans are not pursuing the same tactics as they did in the last elections in 1918. Then, it was decided that the halls of Congress afforded a better forum than the cities and towns themselves. Of course, a speech in Congress denouncing something or exposing some move on the opposing political party is privileged and is bound to attract more attention than the usual run of campaign speeches. There were more chances for the Republicans to keep their Democratic colleagues on the jump by remaining in session than by adjourning.

The Democrats are preparing, on the other hand, to go before the country with a catalogue of public business which is the principal item of which is the treaty of Versailles. Congress departs with the country in a state of war against international relations as concerned.

The Republicans, nevertheless, believe they can beat us their time and energies out in the country emphasizing the anxiety tactics of the Executive and the reason for the continuance of a state of war. They will insist that nothing constructive along the lines of Republican doctrine could be accomplished with a Democratic majority in possession of the veto power and that the only remedy lies in the election of a Republican President so that the party may be in complete and harmonious control of all branches of the Government.

The decision to adjourn was not without embarrassment to the Republicans whose membership in the Senate has been steadily dropping. More definite cleavage between conservatives and radicals. The latter are in the minority, but they can always combine with the Democrats and cause trouble.

The radical Republicans, for instance, wanted Congress to stay in session and take steps to curbing campaign expenditures. The Democrats are anxious to have the campaign under perpetual investigation believing that the funds have been collected or will be collected by the Republicans.

LODGE HAS HANDS FULL KEEPING HANDS TOGETHER.

But the conservative Republicans have had enough troubles with their radical minority. Senator Lodge has had his hands full from the beginning keeping the Republican Party together in the Senate. Considering the fact that he has had only a margin of ten or twelve votes to deal with, the Massachusetts leader can look retrospectively with a good deal of satisfaction, for in most instances he kept the party together.

To have stayed in session, it was contended by some conservatives, might have meant a loss of control for the radical Republicans should be disappointed by the Republican National Convention either in the selection of a candidate or the drafting of the platform.

Taken all in all, the adjournment of Congress means that both parties have suspended public business for the next six months and that the Presidential and Congressional campaign of 1920 has begun in earnest. American foreign policy remains undefined until the outcome of the November elections is known. Domestic legislation, especially the much talked of changes in the tax laws and the much mooted soldier bonus, have all been lost in the shuffle. Both parties confidently go forth to decide the deadlock which has existed since November, 1918, between the executive and legislative branches of our government.

MARSHAL ASKS TRIAL HERE.

McCarthy Seeks Change of Venue in $300,000 Libel Suit.

A request that the $300,000 libel suit brought by Jacob Grab, a restaurant keeper of New Rochelle, against United States Marshal Thomas D. McCarthy be tried in New York City was made today by Justice Moerschauer of White Plains, counsel for the Marshal. The plea was based on the utterances of the alleged libelous statements and their publication in newspapers of this city.

Marshal McCarthy retorted Grab's recantation and dashed his Dec. 3, 1917, and it is alleged that next day he told New York newspaper reporters there were thirty intoxicated soldiers from Fort Mifflin in the streets of New Rochelle and that many of the women present were clad "like trapeze performers in a circus."

Hattie Dixon, negro, convicted of complicity with her sixteen-year-old son Theodore in the murder of Lucille Morton for a $500 insurance policy, was to-day sentenced by Judge Gibbs in the Bronx County Court to be electrocuted in the week of July 15. She fainted on hearing the sentence. The death sentence of Theodore Dixon, now in Sing Sing, was recently commuted to life imprisonment by Gov. Smith.
