

POLICE AND SWANN CLASH IN ELWELL CASE

WOMEN URGE SMITH FOR VICE PRESIDENT

TO-NIGHT'S WEATHER—Fair.

To Be Sure of Getting
The Evening World,
Order in Advance from
Your Newsdealer :: ::

The Evening

World.

TO-MORROW'S WEATHER—Fair.

FINAL EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

VOL. LX. NO. 21,465—DAILY.

Copyright, 1920, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, JUNE 22, 1920.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Post Office, New York, N. Y.

PRICE TWO CENTS

THREE CENTS
ELSEWHERE

NEW YORK WOMEN DELEGATES ARRIVE ON COAST WITH CRY: "SMITH FOR VICE PRESIDENT"

It's No Weakening Boom, Either, and Promoters Are in Bustling Earnest.
THEY EXTOL RECORD.
Dry Issue Only One Likely to Cause Convention Fight—
Harmony on Others.

By Martin Green.
(Special Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The first of the women district delegates from New York arrived in San Francisco yesterday in the person of Mrs. Lillian R. Sire, President of the Women's Democratic Political League and co-delegate with Samuel Marx of the 19th Congress District, Manhattan. Mrs. Sire was accompanied by Mrs. Norah D. McCall, who is Bourke Cockran's alternate, and Mrs. Anne Naughton, also an alternate, and they brought along, in addition to ward-robbers which will cause the convention to sit up and take notice, an innovation in politics, which is no less than a young boom.

The boom is stamped "Gov. Alfred E. Smith for Vice President" and it is no weakening, even though a boom chaperoned by women for the nomination of a man for a national office is without precedent. It is a lusty boom, because it has the unanimous backing of the fifty-four women delegates and alternates from the State of New York and in the matter of women delegates New York leads the way in this convention and of course in the history of female representation in the national nomination gathering of any party.

WOMEN MAKE UP 30 PER CENT. OF NEW YORK ROSTER.

In the New York section of the convention will be seated two women delegates at large, Miss Elizabeth Marbury and Harriet May Mills, who are already at San Francisco, and ten women district delegates, nine of whom are from Greater New York and one from Buffalo; also, New York will present 42 women alternates. In other words, women will make up 30 per cent. of the total of 180 delegates and alternates from the Empire State. Naturally, the New York women are proud of the recognition granted them by the Democratic Party in this their debut into the activities of national politics.

As for the Vice Presidential boom of Gov. Smith, nobody can tell how it will turn out, but it will be heard and felt from now on because its energetic sponsors are already at work among women delegates from other States. They are equipped with literature setting forth the Governor's record as a champion of legislation designed to benefit working women and housewives and prevent the abuse of children in line with argument and recitals of experience and when the Governor reaches here he will find himself prominent among those mentioned for the honor of second place on the ticket.

It is quite likely the male leaders

Classified Advertisers Important!

Classified advertising copy for
The Sunday World should be in the World office.

On or Before Friday
Preceding Publication

Early copy receives the preference when Sunday advertising has to be omitted. Late advertising is now omitted for lack of time to set it.
THE WORLD.

BANKERS MAN SHIP IN FROM DENMARK TO BREAK STRIKE

Frederick VIII. One of 100
Vessels Whose Crews Comprise Wealthy Men.

A crew of seafaring men who used to be bankers and doctors and merchants and professors—and will be again as soon as "conditions permit"—came up the North River this afternoon on the Scandinavian-American Line steamship Frederick VIII.

"There are sailors on this ship who could buy it for a private yacht if they wanted to," said one passenger.

The Captain, R. Gotsche, did not go quite that far, but he did say this: "I've got men in this crew who have sailed with me before as first cabin passengers, and they'll be sailing that way again after they have finished their present task, which is to prevent the strike-crazy laborers of Denmark from ruining the country."

He said that Denmark for many weeks had been strike-ridden under a weak government which was controlled by radicals.

"But it's different now," he continued. "There is a great nation-wide organization of volunteers known as the Social Service Workers. They are men from the learned professions, from the leisure classes and from the upper circles of the business world. They have volunteered to serve wherever they are needed until the industrial turmoil is at an end.

"They work where they are assigned to work. When a ship is ready to go out and lacks a full crew because of the strikes these men are assigned to complete it. About one hundred of them were assigned to me this trip. I am not going to give you any names but I'll tell you that a man working in the fire room of this ship is one of the most eminent engineers in Denmark. And I could tell you other cases like that. They work for the same wages as the regular seamen, they sleep in the quarters of the regular crew. They sweat like any other sailor and they mean business. They are not out for a lark.

"This ship is the 100th to be enabled to sail, thanks exclusively to the Social Service Workers. Other ships have gone to other ports in all the oceans. The maritime commerce of Denmark is being restored. Danish money, which was falling off alarmingly in exchange, is recovering.

"We have made the trip in good shape, arriving here only two days overdue. This ship and the other ninety-nine have moved 450,000 tons of cargo."

The passengers were so pleased with their trip that they made up a memorial for the Captain, signed by every passenger, complimenting him and his crew.

One of the passengers was Axel G. Laber, manager of the Royal Copenhagen and Danish Arts Company, which has a factory in Denmark and a New York sales establishment at No. 563 Fifth Avenue. He said the stories which have come to America about the industrial crisis in Denmark have not been exaggerated.

WORLD RESTAURANT.
Special for today, Tuesday, June 22, 1920.—
London broil, French fried potatoes, soup, spring lamb stew, asparagus, etc. Table d'hôte dinner, 50c.
14th floor, World Building.—Adv.

CITY EMPLOYEES GET PAY INCREASE OF 20 PER CENT.

Minimum Raise Will Be $200 for All Under the Budget System.

LA GUARDIA IS BEATEN.

Fails to Get Through $400
Boost for the Firemen and Policemen.

Aldermanic President La Guardia was blocked by Mayor Hylan, Comptroller Craig and the Public Works Commissioners representing the Boroughs of Brooklyn, Bronx, Queens and Richmond to-day when he attempted to put through a resolution at the Finance and Budget Committee providing for a $400 flat increase for members of every rank in the Police and Fire Departments. Borough President Curran of Manhattan was the only official who voted with La Guardia.

When President La Guardia brought up the question of including Hunter College in the increased salary list, Comptroller Craig again objected, saying that the $5,000,000 appropriation would be insufficient to include the teaching staff of Hunter College if the members adhered to the plan of giving the city employees the 20 per cent. increase decided upon last night. On a vote the members with the exception of Comptroller Craig voted to include Hunter College.

President La Guardia then moved an amendment to the resolution adopted yesterday, which amendment provided for a minimum increase of $200. This amendment was also carried.

As the matter stands following this increase all city employees on the budget, and the teaching staff of Hunter College are to receive a flat increase of 20 per cent. the minimum of which shall be $200.

La Guardia contended that the police and the fire departments were not sufficiently taken care of in the twenty per cent. blanket increase tentatively provided for, and that while the superior officers were to be amply increased, the same could not be said of the rank and file.

Manhattan Borough President Curran objected to the Board of Estimate committing itself to make no further salary increases until 1922. Although he admitted that a twenty per cent. raise was generous at the same time he thought the Board should be willing to grant further raises in the 1921-22 budget if conditions and circumstances so warranted.

Comptroller Craig ruled, as Chairman of the Finance and Budget Committee, that Curran's motion was out of order. The same vote that defeated La Guardia's motion defeated the Curran motion.

JOHNSTON BEATEN IN TENNIS BY BRITON

J. C. Parke Wins Match in Series for British Championship at Wimbledon.

WIMBLEDON, June 22 (Associated Press).—J. C. Parke, the British international tennis player, defeated William M. Johnston, United States singles champion, in their match in the contest for the British tennis championship here to-day, 7-5, 2-6, 6-2, 8-6.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN FAIRY TALES?

They are called "PEEPING PANSY FAIRY TALES" and make the greatest children's story since Alice in Wonderland. Beginning to-day they will appear every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday on the Magazine Page of the Evening World.

Wilson's Latest Photograph, Taken Last Saturday, Compared With One When He Landed From France

PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN JULY 8 1919

The latest photograph was made last Saturday by George W. Harris, who stayed nearly an hour with the President while the latter was transacting his regular morning business. He took several pictures, but the

LATEST PHOTOGRAPH

President did not know, with one or two exceptions, when the exposures were made.

"The President looks fine," said Mr. Harris, "better than I had expected. But the pictures show for themselves."

THUGS IN FLIGHT CLUB WAY THROUGH 5TH AVENUE CROWD

Two of Three Alleged Hold-ups Caught After Stabbing
Clerk Who Balked Them.

When Ralph Cherry, a seventeen-year-old clerk of No. 292 Grand Street, Brooklyn, entered the shipping room of his employers, the P. D. Wilson Company, dealers in lace at No. 130 Fifth Avenue, shortly after noon to-day he was stopped by three men. They asked about work. One of them grabbed at a parcel containing $100 in stamps Cherry had just bought for his firm.

Cherry fought and was stabbed in the back, but he held onto the stamps. The three men, grabbing clubs that looked like baseball bats, went out into the crowds on Fifth Avenue.

Patrolmen Haverlin and Wilkinson rushed to the boy's aid. He went to the doorway and pointed at two men.

"There they go," he cried, and the policeman gave chase.

Patrolman Haverlin went through 18th Street in a commandeered automobile. At Broadway and 17th Street he arrested Joseph Gardella, nineteen, who gave his address as the Mills Hotel. A large crowd followed him.

Patrolman Wilkinson chased a man over to the subway kiosk at 18th Street and Fourth Avenue, also followed by a crowd. His prisoner gave his name as Frank Flanio, nineteen, of No. 215 East 105th Street. Both were arraigned in Jefferson Market Court charged with assault and attempted robbery. On Gardella, the police say, they found a knife.

Cherry, the clerk, was treated by Dr. Hoag of New York Hospital. His injury is not serious.

French Warships Bombard Turks.
PARIS, June 22.—The Temps says to-day that Turkish forces attacked Merzina, on the Mediterranean, southeast of Adana, and that French warships in the harbor bombarded the Turks.

Use (6) Bell-Abs, hot water. Sure relief. For indigestion. Don't forget.—Adv.

DOCTOR ON TRIAL FOR THE DEATH OF WOMAN PATIENT

State Charges That Operation Which Proved Fatal Was Unnecessary.

Several hundred stylishly gowned women, many of them from well-to-do New York families, crowded into the Bronx County Court to-day for the second day of the trial of Dr. Julius Hammer of No. 1480 Washington Avenue, the Bronx, who is charged with causing the death of Mrs. Michael Ogonessoff, wife of a wealthy Russian agent, who lived at No. 230 Riverside Drive.

According to the indictment, Mrs. Ogonessoff died as a result of an unnecessary operation on July 5, 1919.

Servants in the Ogonessoff household will be the principal witnesses to-day and include Julia Walling, a nurse; Ernest Braum, chauffeur, and Minnie Christian, maid. Drs. Gonzales and Schwartz, who performed an autopsy after the death of the woman also will be called.

The trial probably will result in a great legal battle. Dr. Hammer, whose patients are for the most part women of the fashionable set, is defended by Special U. S. Attorney Smythe and Attorneys Kadel and Osborne. District Attorney Martin and his assistants, William Quigley and Albert Cohn, are presenting the case for the State.

It is understood that Dr. Hammer will contend that the operation was necessary and had proved successful on many occasions.

Ogonessoff, a director in the firm of Iznosoff & Co., had many important missions for the Russian Government throughout the war.

New "Dry" Director for New Jersey.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Appointment of George W. Van Note of Newark, N. J., to be Federal Prohibition Director for the State of New Jersey, was announced to-day by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Liberty Bonds
Bought—Sold—Quoted
John Marr Co., 81 Broadway.—Adv.

Use (6) Bell-Abs, hot water. Sure relief. For indigestion. Don't forget.—Adv.

RAILROAD STRIKE SITUATION PLACED BEFORE PRESIDENT

Secretary Payne Tells Wilson
Results of Conference With Brotherhood Officials.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The railroad strike situation has been placed before President Wilson through John Barton Payne, Secretary of the Interior, it was learned to-day.

Secretary Payne, who was designated to act as Director General of Railroads on the resignation of Walker Hines, met railroad brotherhood officials late yesterday when the present labor situation was gone over.

After the meeting Mr. Payne wrote a letter to President Wilson setting forth the results of the conference, it was said at the White House.

The Railroad General Managers' Association of New York City is to-day preparing for a new railroad "outlaw" strike, which thus far has affected points in upper New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland. The walkout has not yet reached New York City proper, but it is understood an embargo will be put on all but perishable foodstuffs.

The situation is made the more delicate here because of a strike threat of longshoremen in the Port of New York for next Monday.

A dispatch from Baltimore to-day said that 40 per cent. of the strikers have returned to work in the Pennsylvania yard. Sixty per cent. of the Baltimore & Ohio men are still out in Syracuse, 60 per cent. of the De Witt Clinton yard employees of the New York Central are reported out, ostensibly in sympathy with the 150 Belle Isle yardmen and 50 Lackawanna men who are still out. About

(Continued on Second Page.)

Use (6) Bell-Abs, hot water. Sure relief. For indigestion. Don't forget.—Adv.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY CALLS OUTSIDE HELP AS POLICE PRESS OWN ELWELL HUNT

Enright's Department Accuses Swann of Crowding It Out and
Call for Conference Is Ignored—
Brothers to Aid in Search.

The police are now working independent of the District Attorney's office in the hunt for the murderer of Joseph Bowne Elwell, who was slain on Friday morning, June 11, at his home, No. 224 West 70th Street. They claim that the District Attorney has not only hampered their work of investigation, but has prevented them from making progress by keeping from them the results of the work of his staff.

District Attorney Swann has appealed to George N. Brothers, a former Assistant District Attorney, to help him unravel the mystery. He also announced to-day that he had sent a note to Police Commissioner Enright asking him to send to his office Captain Arthur Carey, in charge of the Homicide Squad and Capt. Wash, head of the Fourth Detective Bureau.

DR. BUTLER WIRES SWEEPING APOLOGY TO COL. PROCTER

Unbecoming and Unwarranted, Says
Columbia President of His Own Criticism.

JUDGE JOHN R. DAVIES to-day made public the following telegram sent by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler to Col. William Cooper Procter of Cincinnati:

"Answering your telegram of June 15 I am convinced that my word spoken under the strain, turmoil and fatigue of the Chicago Convention, and in sharp revolt against the power of money in politics, was both unbecoming and unwarranted, and that I should—and do—apologize to each and every one who felt hurt by what I said."

FAILS TO SHOW UP FOR HIS WEDDING

South Plainfield Bride and Friends
Wait in Vain at Church for Prospective Bridegroom.

Stephen Hobert failed to appear at Sacred Heart Church in South Plainfield, N. J., this morning for his marriage to Miss Esther Agnes Shields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shields. Guests had gathered at the church and the Rev. John F. Baldwin was waiting to perform the ceremony. Friends of the couple searched for Hobert but were unable to find him. Miss Shields is prostrated.

RENT STRIKERS EVICTED.

Seven Brooklyn Families Put Out
After Judge's Efforts Fail.

Seven families at No. 522 Blake Avenue, Brooklyn, were dispossessed to-day by City Marshal Harry Walcott. A rent strike has been in progress there. The apartment house is owned by Mrs. Rebecca Peraky.

The order of dispossession was given after Justice Ferguson had failed in an effort to bring about a settlement. He had urged the tenants to pay the 25 per cent. increase, bringing their rent from $20 to $25, but the tenants claimed the owner refused to make repairs.

TRIAL RACE TO-DAY LIKELY.

Conditions Promising for Shamrock IV, and 23-Metre Yacht.

When the cup challenger, Shamrock IV, and the 23-metre yacht left their anchorage at Sandy Hook to-day at 11 o'clock the weather was fine.

With a smooth sea and a good southwest breeze, the conditions were promising for the second trial race this afternoon.

Commissioner Enright paid no attention to the request, and when Mr. Swann called up Capt. Carey on the telephone the head of the Homicide Bureau told him plainly that he had no time to listen to theories of the District Attorney and his assistants, that he was too busy working on the murder case.

District Attorney Swann remained in his office from noon till 1:30 o'clock. He chatted with newspaper men while waiting for a reply from Police Commissioner Enright, and then it was suggested that he call up Capt. Carey. He did, and here is what the reporters heard of the one-sided telephone conversation:

"Hello, Capt. Carey. * * * Yes, yes, yes. * * * I communicated with you asking you to bring the reports of your subordinates who had been working on the Elwell murder. * * *

"What's that? What's that? What's * * * Well, I communicated with your superior * * * Well!"

"What did he say?" asked the reporters. SWANN TOLD POLICE HAVE OTHER WORK TO DO.

"He says," said Mr. Swann, "that he doesn't see why he should be dragged down here to the office. He says that he was here Saturday talking with my assistants, and that he has other work to perform. It's not what Capt. Carey desires, nor what I desire, but for the good of the public, I want to know what the police have been doing. How- ever?"

"Well, Judge," suggested one of the reporters, "don't you think that the Police Department resents your 'butting in'?"

"No," returned Judge Swann. "It's our duty—the duty of the District Attorney to question everyone he thinks knows anything about a homicide. But don't think that I am blaming the police. Up to date the murderer of Elwell is an impenetrable mystery. Nobody has been found who had uttered a threat against the man in any shape at all."

"Do you think that you are treating the public squarely in concealing the names of the women in the case?" asked another reporter. "If an ordinary woman from Chatham Square were mixed up in the case she would be fayed alive by the prosecutor."

"No, not by me. Why should we hold these lovely women who stoop to folly up to the eyes of the public? I certainly will not drag their frailties into the limelight. If their identity tends to prove anything connecting them with the murder, then you are entitled to know who and what they are."

Mr. Swann said that they were no nearer to the solution of the murder than twenty minutes after the crime was committed, but that wasn't due