

IRISH PLANK A SAN FRANCISCO WILL BE A HARMLESS ONE

CUMINGS SOUNDS KE NOTE; GIVES WILSON HIGH PRAISE

Champions League and Denounces Defeat of Treaty as a Crime Against Civilization. HOTLY SCORES G. O. P. Calls Platform Reactionary and Says Highest Bidders Failed to Win Chicago Prize.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—In his keynote speech to-day as Temporary Chairman of the Democratic National Convention Homer Cummings championed the covenant of the League of Nations; said no blacker crime against civilization soiled the pages of history than the defeat of the peace treaty by the Senate; and characterized the Republican platform as reactionary and provincial. He said in part:

"We, who assemble in this great convention, counsel together, not merely as members of a party, but as children of the republic. Love of country and devotion to human service should purge our hearts of all unworthy or misleading motives. Let us fervently pray for a Divine blessing upon all that we do or undertake. Let us pledge ourselves anew to equality of opportunity, the unity of our country above the interests of groups or classes and the maintenance of the high honor of America in her dealings with other nations.

"The Republican platform, reactionary and provincial, is the very apotheosis of political expediency, which has entailed slanders and vague promises, it will be searched in vain for one constructive suggestion for the reformation of the conditions which it criticizes and denounces.

"If the Democratic Party had accomplished nothing more than the passage of the Federal Reserve Act, it would be entitled to the enduring gratitude of the Nation. This act supplied the country with an elastic currency controlled by the American people. Panics—the recurring phenomenon of the past—would be a thing of the past. The Republican Party could neither control nor explain—are now but a memory.

PRaises RECORD OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN WAR.

"And then the great war came on. Ultimately, by the logical steps of necessity, our peace-loving Nation was drawn into the conflict. The necessary war legislation was quickly supplied.

"These great affairs were carried forward under the stimulus of American patriotism, supported by the courage and the spirit of our people. We are proud of our great navy; we are proud of our splendid army; we are proud of the power of our country and the manner in which that power was used. We are proud of the work that America has done in the world; we are proud of the heroism of American men and women, and we are proud of the leadership of Woodrow Wilson.

REPUBLICANS CHARGED WITH JEALOUSY OF PRESIDENT.

"Republican leaders have been jealous of the President. In the White House, the relentless hand of malice beat upon the door of the sick chamber. The enemies of the President upon the floor of the Senate used every slender pretext that they could find to obstruct the President's work.

"The Congress was in session for months while the President lay in the White House struggling with a terrifying illness and at times close to the point of death. He had been physically wounded just as surely as were Garfield and McKinley and Lincoln, for it was a difference of degree between Garfield and Lincoln and the President. The whole Republican case is based upon the theory that we may, with honor, do as we please about this matter and that it is our duty to redouble our efforts to bring about a peace treaty.

HONOR OF NATION BOUND UP IN PEACE TREATY.

"There are men who seem to be annoyed when we suggest that American honor is bound up in this contest, and that good faith requires that we should stand by the League of Nations. The whole Republican case is based upon the theory that we may, with honor, do as we please about this matter and that it is our duty to redouble our efforts to bring about a peace treaty.

"The trouble with the treaty of peace is that it was negotiated by a Democratic President. It is not difficult to assess the responsibility for its failure. The whole Republican case is based upon the theory that we may, with honor, do as we please about this matter and that it is our duty to redouble our efforts to bring about a peace treaty.

OUIJA BOARDS HANDED TO FRISCO VISITORS, SAYS MISS MARBURY

to the ouija boards, which by the way, are supplied to all visitors.

The Tennessee association last week merely noted a great difference. Lodge's old copy of the League of Nations was mislaid. De Valera, however, found it and brought it along, everything is now all right. The women are all dry because the men haven't asked them to be anything else. They confer daily with the waiters and bell boys. An Charles Fearless Murphy must be a Christian Scientist he administers absent treatment only.

But there are many thoughts to cheer us up. The name of the last McAdoo baby is Faith. Hiram Johnson is here none the worse for wear. Mrs. J. Borden Harriman will run the campaigns of Forthing and Hoover.

Handsome Joe Kerrigan is getting the women's vote.

Tom McCarthy will tell James W. Gerard where to get on or is it off? Lewis Nixon is the snappiest dresser here—suits, socks and ties. Oh, Monsieur!

Governor "Al" Smith can still be funny. He has left Caesar and his zoo at home.

Mrs. George Bass promises to be as active as Marshall when she is made Vice President.

McCooley of Kings is always unscrupulous and looks like a Raphael cherub.

Kopman Mack ought to have a harden because he knows so well how to handle us. There are enough women delegates on hand to carry any election or to put any candidate out of business.

Whiskey is cheaper here than in New York. I wonder why. Possibly during the convention they are quoting prices in New York.

By the end of next week we shall have done our worst, there will be a great reduction in the price of lemons, and I shall be fishing. Hurray! Hurray!

OFFICE HOLDERS LINE UP; PLAN TO SWING TO MCADOO

States, the boomers assert. They look for some support for McAdoo from Alabama; they claim the Texas delegation, some votes from Missouri; all the votes from Kansas, some votes from Wisconsin and Minnesota, a limited number from North and South Dakota, some from Nebraska, probably all from Arizona and New Mexico, the solid Idaho delegation, a few from California, all from Utah, a couple of votes from Montana and all the delegates from Washington and Oregon.

HOPE TO SEE RHODE ISLAND CLIMBS ON BAND WAGON.

They make no claims in other States for the start of the balloting, but they say they wouldn't be surprised if Rhode Island would be strong for McAdoo after two or three ballots. All they look for early is positive support from twenty-three States, moral support from New York and possible support from Rhode Island, and that is going some in support of a boom that has been going on for some time.

There is a strong recurrency of weighty gossip about Ambassador Davis, who is said by various wise politicians to be President Wilson's real choice. But it is still a free-for-all, and the gentlemen who are trying to run the convention are as much up to the air about candidates as they are about everything else.

Gov. Cox of Ohio has a boom that makes the biggest outward show with two brass bands and a pipe club, the same pipe club that put Harding over in Chicago. The last of the Ohio delegation got in this morning and there are now 1,500 boomers for Cox here from his own State.

SEEKS HOME BY INJUNCTION.

Eye Man Wants Brothers to Admit Him to Tenancy.

Frank C. Jackson of Eye made another attempt today to obtain occupancy for himself and his wife in the cottage at Eye which he sought for the summer to Bert and Guy Pagnano, by seeking an injunction from Supreme Court Justice Deegan requiring the Pagnano brothers to admit them to tenancy.

The Pagnano artists paid the initial installment of $50 on the three months' rental of $150 when they moved in, but were unable to pay the balance at the time agreed upon, Jackson alleges. The Pagnano brothers refused to pay the balance of the rental if they would permit him and his wife to share the cottage.

This, Jackson states, the Pagnanos consented to do, but when Mrs. Jackson sought to enter the cottage she was forcibly ejected. Jackson tried to get in several hours later and received a prompt ejection, he alleges.

REVIVAL ENDS IN GUN FIGHT.

Fifty Men on a Side—One Killed, Another Badly Wounded.

TOLEDO, June 28.—A religious revival that ended in a gun battle early today between two parties of fifty men each, in a country church yard at Berningers Corners, Mich., eighteen miles northwest of Toledo, brought death to one man and probable mortal wounds to another.

The church was surrounded by men who attempted to break up the meeting. Those inside were armed with weapons. When they returned a Deputy Sheriff ordered the crowd to disperse and he was greeted with a hail of bullets from the church defenders. The attackers threw down their weapons and surrendered.

Williams Oil Corporation of Irving, Ky., was held in $5,000 bail by Judge Learned Hand in the United States District Court today. It is charged that the firm made large sales of worthless stocks.

Baptists Call for Ratification of Treaty.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 28.—The Northern Baptist Convention today adopted resolutions urging President Wilson and the Senate to ratify the Treaty of Versailles, "with suitable reservations" at the earliest possible moment and pledging the Baptists to support strict enforcement of Federal prohibition laws.

Two Little McAdoos Who Already Have Access to the White House

MARY FAITH MCADOO, ELLEN ANSON MCADOO, Little Miss Ellen Anson McAdoo is standing behind the bassinet in which is lying her baby sister, Mary Faith McAdoo. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William G. McAdoo and granddaughters of President Wilson. Their father has repeatedly declared he is not a candidate for President, but his name will be presented to the San Francisco Convention, despite his protests.

CONFLICT HALTS SEPARATION SUIT

Justice Says He Will Send for District Attorney After He Hears Mrs. Doyle.

Trial of the separation suit of Mrs. Alice Doyle, of No. 32 Amity Street, Brooklyn, against William H. Doyle, was begun before Justice Lananaky in Brooklyn Supreme Court today. Doyle is employed in the Quartermaster Department on Governor's Island.

Mrs. Doyle charges cruel and inhuman treatment. She was not in court on account of illness. Doyle testified she was too attentive to August Angel, of No. 219 Court street, Brooklyn, also employed on Governor's Island.

Jacob Hamburger, private detective, testified he followed Angel and Mrs. Doyle and her small son to the Prospect Theatre, Brooklyn, where a motion picture was being shown. He sat behind them, he said.

A caption flashed on the screen was: "There are ones who would love us if they could, and ones we'd love if we dared." Hamburger testified Mrs. Doyle turned to Angel and said "Do you dare?"

Angel took the stand and denied he had ever taken Mrs. Doyle to a theatre. Hamburger was recalled and repeated Angel was the man.

"I will adjourn the case to tomorrow morning," said Justice Lananaky. "I want Mrs. Doyle here. When I have heard her, I am going to send for the District Attorney."

Milton B. Miller, eight, of No. 29 West 118th Street, Manhattan, was bathing at the ocean front at 84th Street, Rockaway, yesterday, when he went beyond his depth and sank. He was brought in by an unknown man and attended by Dr. Levine of the Rockaway Beach Hospital. Although still breathing, artificial respiration failed to revive him. The boy's mother and father saw him drown, and when the doctor pronounced him dead the mother became hysterical.

While playing on a raft in the East River at the foot of Sanford Street, Astoria, yesterday, Shappaco Dallari, eight years old, of No. 510 Hamilton Street, Long Island City, fell overboard and drowned. The body was not recovered.

MOVE TO RELIEVE TRAFFIC.

Road on East Side of Grand Central Terminal Is Wanted.

More than 3,000 members of the Fifth Avenue Association have requested the association to take up the matter of opening a roadway on the east side of the Grand Central Terminal in order to eliminate the dangerously congested traffic points on 45th Street between Vanderbilt and Lexington Avenues.

The existing roadway on the viaduct across 40th Street and around the western portion of the Grand Central Station is inadequate for traffic which seeks to move between 40th and 45th Streets. The association will take up the matter with the city authorities in an endeavor to obtain relief.

SHOOTS WOMAN, KILLS SELF

SWANN ABSOLVES PENDLETON FROM ELWELL SUSPICION

statement is the basis of these insinuations."

SWANN TELLS OF SLIPS FROM GARAGE OWNER.

District Attorney Swann, when questioned by newspaper men on this statement by Mr. Olcott, said that the office had a slip from the Atlas Garage at No. 9 East 53d Street that on the 8th Mr. Pendleton's car got oil and gas there.

"We have another slip," he added, "showing that at 2:30 o'clock on the morning of the 7th a car of the same make and color was supplied with gas and oil."

"And were the insinuations against Mr. Pendleton issued by your assistant on the strength of these statements or slips?" Mr. Swann was asked.

"There have been no insinuations against Mr. Pendleton," returned the District Attorney, "given out by anyone in my office authorized to speak for the office. Only two men can speak for the office, Mr. Talley and myself."

Mr. Swann also denied that he had interviewed a man who had spoken to Elwell at 2:30 o'clock on the morning of the latter's murder. This statement was given out by Mr. Dooling, one of his assistants, on Saturday.

Similar conflicts of statements and authority in the District Attorney's office have been in evidence since the discovery of the murder.

A contest now seems probable over the will of Elwell. The will was offered to-day for probate in the Surrogate's Court by Andrew Macrery of the firm of Davies, Auerbach & Cornell, counsel for Joseph S. Elwell, father of the deceased.

W. Gibbs Whaley was present for Mr. Elwell and her son Richard, and expressed himself as agreeable to the awarding of one-fourth of the estate for his clients, but wasted the agreement put in writing. This Attorney Macrery refused to do, asking that nothing be done until after the will was probated. Mr. Whaley declined to agree.

Detective Harry P. Oswald of the Homicide Squad returned this morning after a two weeks' tour of Louisville, Cincinnati, Lexington and Lantonia, whether he had been sent to look into the ramifications of the Elwell murder case, if there were any. It had been reported that a girl named Annie, a letter from whom to Elwell was found in the murdered man's home, might throw some light on a motive for the crime, but information in that direction proved to be no more accurate than the rest of the clues picked up by the District Attorney.

There were other things to be looked into with regard to the movements of Elwell in the Southern cities for several months preceding the murder. Detective Oswald will report to his superiors, Deputy Police

Young Marks spent yesterday afternoon in the water and on the sand at South Beach with friends, who left him at 5 o'clock. When he did not return home, where he had dressed for the day, his father searched for him. He was only a white sweater with a red and blue striped shirt, a blue knit trunk, and it is not believed he could have gone far from the beach. Mystery was injected into the case by the assertion of the manager of the inn, and adhered to yesterday by a friend of the family that he had died of apoplexy and that the doctor had so stated.

Mr. Elder, who was forty-seven years old, had gone to the Forest Hills Inn about two weeks ago to visit his mother there. He left behind him in Los Angeles, Cal., a bride of only a few months. He came here on business for the Sunclair Oil Company, with which he was connected.
