FRANCE GETS HALF OF THE INDEMNITY PAID BY GERMANY

England to Have 22 Per Cent., Italy 10, Belgium 8, Serbia 5; Rest to Small Nations.

UP POLISH CRISIS

Marshal Foch and Field Marshal Wilson Called into Consultation.

BRUSSELS, July 3 (Associated Press)—An agreement has virtually been reached by the Allied Premiers in conference here with regard to the division of German reparations on the basis of 52 per cent. to France, 22 per cent. to Great Britain, 10 per cent. to Italy, 8 per cent. to Belgium and 5 per cent. to Serbia, it was stated here to-day.

The remaining 3 per cent. will be divided among the other Allies, including Roumania, Portugal and Japan. Italy also will receive certain economic and financial advantages.

This tentative settlement was declared to have been arrived at in a conference of the French, British, Italian and Belgian delegates.

The Allied conference in session here, which has received alarming news regarding the progress of the Russian Bolsheviks in their offensive against Poland, will consider the military situation of the new republic it was learned here to-day.

Marshal Foch, the Allied Commander-in-Chief, and Field Marshal Wilson, head of the British General Staff, have been consulted by the conference on this subject.

The various delegations will leave for Spa to-morrow morning, it being held that any disagreement is but a question of detail which the Allies can settle either before or after the Spa conference and one in which Germany is not concerned.

Word was received to-day that the German delegation to the Spa conference would cross the frontier at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, reaching Spa at 3 P. M.

PARIS, July 3.—The Matin declares the understanding among the Allies remains complete, and that they still adhere to the plan adopted at the Boulogne Conference by which Germany would be called upon to pay 2,000,000,000 marks in gold and annuities to be determined later. Under this plan Germany would receive immediate aid that would assist in her rehabilitation.

POLE GOVERNMENT MAY BE SUPERSEDED

National Council of Defense Discussed by Diet to Meet the Emergency.

WARSAW, July 3 (Associated Press).—Control of the Polish Government may be placed in the hands of a National Council of Defense under the terms of proposals considered by a Council of War and extraordinary session of the Diet. Extreme measures are deemed necessary to meet the critical situation caused by the Bolshevik advance in Ukraine.

It is proposed that immediate military action be taken to check the Reds. The Diet adjourned at midnight for further discussion.

During the meeting, Father Okone, a peasant member, offered a resolution providing for immediate peace negotiations. Although nearly all the thirty-five Socialist members of the Diet were present, only two voted in favor of his motion.

GEN. GORGAS HAS RALLY.

LONDON, July 3.—Major Gen. William C. Gorgas, former Surgeon General of the United States Army, who was believed to be dying early this morning, rallied slightly during the forenoon, according to a statement made by hospital authorities.

His condition, however, remains critical.

TILDEN BEATS PATTERSON; FIRST AMERICAN TO WIN WORLD'S TENNIS HONORS

Garland and Williams Also Take Double Title in England.

WIMBLEDON, England, July 3 (By the Associated Press).—William T. Tilden of Philadelphia won the British lawn tennis championship in singles on the courts here to-day.

Tilden defeated Gerald L. Patterson of Australia, the title holder, in the challenge round. The scores were: 3-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

C. S. Garland of Pittsburgh and R. Norris Williams of Boston won the finals in the British tennis doubles championship to-day by defeating G. R. F. Kingstone and J. C. Parke of the British Davis Cup team. The Americans took three of the four sets, 7-5, 6-2.

Gerald L. Patterson of Australia and Miss Suzanne Lenglen of France defeated Randolph Lycett of Australia and Miss Elizabeth Ryan of California in the finals of the mixed doubles in the British Lawn Tennis Championship Tournament. The winners took the match in straight sets, 7-5, 6-3.

Tilden had trouble getting started and was outplayed by the Australian in the opening set, losing by a score of 3-6. It was feared by the Americans in the face of crowd of spectators that a lame knee, which threatened to keep the Philadelphian out of the challenge round, would frustrate the first real chance that America had ever had to win the championship.

In the second set, however, Tilden found himself and opened with the spectacular game that marked his

COURT BARS CITY FROM GAS FIGHT

Judge Knox Holds Its Interests in 80-Cent Rate Will Be Protected.

Judge Knox in Federal District Court to-day denied the petition of New York City, through Corporation Counsel O'Brien, to get into the 80-cent gas fight as a party defendant.

The plaintiffs in the gas fight are the six subsidiaries of the Consolidated Gas Company and five independent companies. They seek to have the 80-cent law set aside as confiscatory.

In making his decision Judge Knox indicated that Corporation Counsel O'Brien would act as a representative of the District Attorney of New York County in some of the cases, and, inasmuch as the city's interests would be adequately cared for by counsel for the entire State, its intervention is unnecessary.

YALE CLUB GUEST PLUNGES TO DEATH FROM 15TH FLOOR

John S. McKaig Falls or Jumps From Window—Body Barely Misses Taxi.

John Stewart McKaig of Montclair, N. J., mining engineer and member of the Princeton class of '03, was instantly killed early to-day when he plunged from a fifteenth floor window of the Yale Club, Vanderbilt Avenue near Forty-fifth Street.

George Dixon, a member of the club, was getting out of a taxicab at the Vanderbilt Avenue entrance when the body of the mining engineer struck the pavement almost at his feet. The body was carried into the club, where Dr. Thornhill, called from Flower Hospital, declared death had been instantaneous.

The police found a window open on the fifteenth floor and near the window, a straw hat with the initials J. S. McK. The register showed that Mr. McKaig had been assigned to a room near where the window was found open. Suit cases and a trunk were in the room. McKaig left the club shortly after 5 o'clock last evening and returned at 1:30 o'clock this

MRS. WILMERDING'S ABSENCE HOLDS UP INQUIRY ON ELWELL

Friend of Turfman Away for Holidays, Will Be Questioned Next Week.

POLITICAL MAN NAMED.

"Startling" Evidence Promised in Bootlegging Phase of Murder Mystery.

Mrs. Josephine Lewis Peet Wilmerding, the latest woman friend of Joseph Bowne Elwell to be drawn into the limelight in connection with the murder mystery, was to be interviewed to-day by the District Attorney, but it was learned this morning that she had gone to Long Beach for the holidays.

Assistant District Attorney Dooley, to whom was assigned the task of talking to Mrs. Wilmerding, did not put in an appearance in the Criminal Courts Building and nobody in the office knew whether he also had gone to Long Beach.

Mr. Swann said over the telephone that he did not expect to hear from Mrs. Wilmerding before early next week, as he was waiting on her convenience.

In response to a statement of Mr. Dooley yesterday that all the women visitors of Elwell were known as "Miss Wilson," Mr. Swann said that he had never heard of any other but Miss Viola Kraus.

The District Attorney said that there was no foundation for an anonymous letter charging that a man named Peretti in jail at Newark was connected with the bootlegging exploits of Elwell.

Mrs. Wilmerding lives at No. 55 West 53d Street and at Narragansett Pier, R. L. Elwell's former housekeeper, Anna Kane, now in Ireland, is quoted as saying Mrs. Wilmerding was a rival of "Miss Wilson," Mrs. Wilmerding was quoted as saying in an interview in reply that she "played around a lot" with Elwell, that was all.

ELWELL'S ENEMIES IN WALL STREET.

Miss Kraus has been quoted by Mr. Swann as saying she knew Mrs. Wilmerding and that Elwell liked Mrs. Wilmerding.

Mrs. Wilmerding is said to have stated that Elwell feared for his life and had spoken to her of Wall Street enemies and risks he had incurred through exposing alien enemies during the war.

Mrs. Wilmerding characterized Elwell as a "social butterfly." She said she had no ambition to marry him. Her relations with Miss Kraus were described by Mrs. Wilmerding as "cordial."

While the District Attorney is clearing up the feminine angle of the investigation, Federal Prohibition agents to-day are following a trail they believe will lead to disclosure of a motive for killing Elwell. Supervising Agent Shevlin has not told what evidence he has that Elwell was a member of a "whiskey ring," but he intimates he has unearthed something "of a startling nature."

"Peremptory requests" were issued

WILSON FORECASTS VICTORY IN A MESSAGE TO CONVENTION; SAYS PARTY HAS KEPT FAITH

"We Are Following the Visions of the Founders of the Republic," He Telegraphs the Delegates.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—President Wilson to-day telegraphed to National Chairman Homer S. Cummings the following reply to the message of appreciation and greetings sent by the convention at its first session:

"It was with the most grateful appreciation that I received the message from the Convention so kindly transmitted by you. It is a source of profound pride with me to receive such an evidence of the confidence of the great party which derives its principles direct and untainted from the founders of our Government and the authors of our liberty.

"While our opponents are endeavoring to isolate us among the nations of the world we are following the vision of the founders of the Republic who promised the world the counsel and leadership of the free people of the United States in all matters that affected human liberty and the justice of law. That promise we deliberately renewed when we entered the great war for human freedom, and we now keep faith with those who died in Flanders fields to redeem it.

"That I should have been accorded leadership in such great matters fills my heart with gratitude and pride, and the course that the party has taken fills me with a perfect confidence that it will go from victory to victory until the true traditions of the Republic are vindicated and the world convinced not only of our strength and prowess but of our integrity and our devotion to the highest ideals. This is a conquering purpose and nothing can defeat it.

WOODROW WILSON."

Convention Reassembles, Hears Wilson's Telegram and Starts In With the Balloting—New York Sticks to Smith, New Jersey to Edwards.

The fourth ballot showed no great change from the third, the only shift of importance was in the vote of North Dakota, which swung its 11 votes for Gerard to Palmer. McAdoo made small gains.

The result of the ballot was:

McAdoo, 335.
Cox, 178.
Palmer, 254.
Smith, 96.
Edwards, 31.

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The third ballot of the Democratic National Convention resulted in no choice of a Presidential candidate. The vote stood:

McAdoo	323 1/2
Palmer	252 1/2
Cox	177
Smith	92
Edwards	32 1/2
Davis	28 1/2
Glass	27
Harrison	6
Clark	7
Bryan	1
Daniels	1
Owen	22
Hitchcock	16
Meredith	26

The convention re-assembled at 9:45 and after a prayer by a San Francisco clergyman heard, read the message of President Wilson in reply to the greetings sent him on Monday.

CHIEFS OF RIVAL FORCES IN LAST HOUR CONFERENCE.

The chiefs of the McAdoo, Palmer and Cox forces conferred constantly throughout the night and during the early morning up to the hour of the meeting of the convention.

At 9:30 the hour at which the battle of the ballots was to have been resumed, there was little going on in the Auditorium save a battle of handbills. Huge quantities of campaign literature were dumped into the fight. Stickers, posters, booklets, postal cards and even dummy newspapers were distributed through the hall. Delegates' chairs were plastered with them. The eleventh hour publicity drive eclipsed anything in that line heretofore seen. Every candidate, apparently, believing this to be the last day, used up all the remainder of his printed ammunition in one farewell advertising barrage.

$15,000 GOES UP AS FIREWORKS IN AUTO EXPLODE

Premature Display Occurs Atop Prall's Hill and Is Seen for Miles.

P RALL'S HILL, one of the highest between Woodbridge and Perth Amboy, N. J., is quiet to-day after a pyrotechnic eruption last night which entertained residents for miles around.

Last night's eruption took place soon after dusk. An automobile was chugging over the top when the driver smelled smoke. He looked back at his cargo of fireworks and giant crackers, valued at $15,000. Then he made one leap and was helped over the side by shooting skyrocket, flying pinwheels, Roman candles and bursting firecrackers.

Thirty minutes later the Woodbridge Fire Department had the flames under control after fighting from a respectful distance, using chemicals. The machine's gas tank didn't get in on the fiery celebration, although the flames played near it.

SHOOT GIRL, THEN FIRES AT SELF

Steven Luly and Anna Zogata, formerly sweethearts and both boarders at No. 342 John Street, East Newark, were taken to St. Michael's Hospital there to-day following what the police declare was an attempted murder and suicide.

Luly, according to the police, reproached Miss Zogata for receiving attention from other men and shot her three times in the side and once in the arm. Then he reloaded the revolver and shot himself three times in the abdomen. Both are expected to recover.
