

Government has been forwarded to the Premier...

He pointed out that the Allies suggested a truce Monday at midnight...

Continuing his outline of the decisions reached at the Hythe conference...

Continuing his outline of the decisions reached at the Hythe conference...

Continuing his outline of the decisions reached at the Hythe conference...

POLES AND RUSSIANS MASS FOR A GREAT DECISIVE BATTLE

(Continued From First Page.)

avoid battle in the fork until stronger forces can be pushed toward Miawa...

Warsaw is doomed, however, is the remark heard everywhere in official and political circles of Paris...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

Warsaw, Aug. 9 (Associated Press).—With the Danzig-Warsaw railroad out...

HARDING TO QUIT THE FRONT PORCH FOR A TRIP WEST

Goes to Des Moines Next Month, Stopping at St. Paul and Minneapolis.

PLANS OTHER TOURS, Hays Says It Was Always Intended Candidate Should Go to Voters.

By David Laurence.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 10 (Copyright 1920).—Senator Harding will leave the front porch for a brief interval in September...

These side trips are emphatically described as special speeches which by no means contradict the idea of a front porch campaign...

Unquestionably Senator Harding's train will stop en route so that the people may have a glimpse of him...

Harding could make headway on the stump.

Certainly, from a disinterested point of view, there are some things about the front porch campaign which have thus far given a picture of Harding, the candidate, which does not square with Harding the man...

For instance, the statement written at Senator Harding's headquarters and given out as an official expression of the candidate's views in answer to Gov. Cox's speech of acceptance...

It is understood that one of the subjects to be threshed over was the progress of the front porch campaign and the related question of how many speeches the nominee should make in other cities...

Briefly, the Harding statement took Gov. Cox to task for saying the Republican Congress had made no effort to reduce taxes and had not modified the income tax laws...

Now, in the interest of truth and accuracy, and fair play too, the truth about estimates and appropriations can be easily ascertained. Estimates are not expenses. They are merely paper figures...

It doesn't matter what the political complexion of Congress is. Democratic control of Congress has always been accompanied by a considerable reduction of the estimates of the Democratic Executive and Republican Administrations has always meant the same sort of pruning of estimates...

And nobody heretofore has ever claimed that this reduction process was a real economy. If it were reckoned as an economy, the Democrats themselves would argue that in the six years they had control of Congress they too had cut down the estimates of the executive departments...

This conference feels certain that war is being engineered between the Allied Powers and Soviet Russia on the issue of Poland, and declares that such a war would be an intolerable crime against humanity...

It is resolved by the conference to take such steps as may be necessary to carry the above decision into effect.

The statement advised all labor organizations to be prepared to send their leaders to London to instruct their members to lay down their tools.

A "Committee of Action," appointed by the meeting, will see Premier Lloyd George at next Tuesday's conference, which represented the whole field of labor, is regarded as having presented an ultimatum to the Government threatening direct action.

The Executive Committee of the Democratic County Committee of Kings County met at noon to-day in the Jefferson Building in Court Square, Brooklyn, and chose a slate for the five vacancies in the Brooklyn Supreme Court to be held in fall.

The five men chosen were Supreme Court Justice Thomas S. Brantley, succeeded by Chief Justice Judge J. H. Murphy of Queens, Federal Judge Edward J. Davis, Edward M. Johnson and Assistant Corporation Counsel Charles J. Druhan.

5,000 WOMEN WILL TAKE COX CAMPAIGN

Mrs. Bass, in Charge, Plans Three Lines of Battle for Spellbinding Army.

DAYTON, Aug. 10.—Mrs. George Bass, former head of the Women's Bureau of the National Committee, has been selected as a member of the Democratic Campaign Committee to take charge of the intensive drive among women planned by the Cox managers.

She already has arranged for 100 women speakers who will tour the country and be arranging for putting into the field 5,000 local women speakers. There will be headquarters in the large cities to which the local women may come for a brief period of instruction.

"Our speakers," said Mrs. Bass to-day, "will wage their campaigns along three lines and will make special appeal to women. First, the general progressive accomplishments of the Democratic Party; second, the progressive record of the Presidential nominee in Ohio, and third, on his League of Nations programme."

"I have travelled throughout the country and have never yet found a woman who was not in favor of the League. Women as a whole are particularly moved by any proposition intended to prevent war, and to get their vote as a class it will only be necessary to drive home to them that this is what the League will accomplish."

Another feature of the Cox campaign will be the lighting up of the country at night with electric signs, each man to flash first a C, then complete the circle, making an O, and finally an X in the center.

Gov. Cox has a touch of neuritis, but has about cleaned up accounts with business preparatory to beginning his campaign trip to-morrow.

Although the steamship left Hoboken, Marflett reported the case at Weehawken police headquarters, saying he had noticed that police station whenever he went to Palisades Park, New York and Detroit police were notified and the wireless got busy in trying to locate the steamship and have the man investigated before the Dryden docked.

The photograph which Marflett identified is the one which the police have circulated privately as that of Leroy.

Captain Carey of the New York homicide bureau refused all information, stating it must come from the Detroit authorities. It is known positively that the Detroit detectives have been working along the water front on the theory that Leroy fled to some Latin country and that in safest way he would take would be to ship as a seaman.

Marflett described the stranger as being neatly attired, with manicured hands and a general appearance befitting his claim of being a sailor. He positively identified the photograph as that of the man he had sent on board the steamship.

Search for Leroy or Fernandez, as his real name is believed to be, has been going on without apparent success for three weeks or more following the discovery of the mutilated body of Katherine Lou Jackson in a trunk which was shipped from Detroit on June 10 and opened here July 23.

The dispute between the tenants and Emanuel and Harry Clayton, the landlords, was adjourned to Friday by Magistrate Harris upon request of Harry Clayton, attorney for the landlords. He said that the janitor was not present and his testimony was especially desired.

Pick Justices in Kings County. The Executive Committee of the Democratic County Committee of Kings County met at noon to-day in the Jefferson Building in Court Square, Brooklyn, and chose a slate for the five vacancies in the Brooklyn Supreme Court to be held in fall.

The five men chosen were Supreme Court Justice Thomas S. Brantley, succeeded by Chief Justice Judge J. H. Murphy of Queens, Federal Judge Edward J. Davis, Edward M. Johnson and Assistant Corporation Counsel Charles J. Druhan.

Butchers, bakers, milkmen ordered by landlord not to serve. Butchers, bakers and milkmen were ordered by a landlord not to serve tenants in the West Side Court today to testify that newly enacted rules for the apartment house at No. 259 West 55th Street forbade their delivering foodstuffs to Mrs. Ida M. Heaton, a school teacher, and other tenants.

The dispute between the tenants and Emanuel and Harry Clayton, the landlords, was adjourned to Friday by Magistrate Harris upon request of Harry Clayton, attorney for the landlords. He said that the janitor was not present and his testimony was especially desired.

Equity Pictures Corporation, a Delaware corporation with offices at No. 33 West 42d Street, which was formed July 1919, for the express purpose of buying and distributing films in which Clara Kimball Young starred, has not been run for the best interest of one-half of its stockholders, according to a complaint filed in the Supreme Court to-day by Harry I. Garson and Herbert K. Sanborn, directors and owners of fifty per cent. of the company's stock.

Equity Pictures Corporation, a Delaware corporation with offices at No. 33 West 42d Street, which was formed July 1919, for the express purpose of buying and distributing films in which Clara Kimball Young starred, has not been run for the best interest of one-half of its stockholders, according to a complaint filed in the Supreme Court to-day by Harry I. Garson and Herbert K. Sanborn, directors and owners of fifty per cent. of the company's stock.

Equity Pictures Corporation, a Delaware corporation with offices at No. 33 West 42d Street, which was formed July 1919, for the express purpose of buying and distributing films in which Clara Kimball Young starred, has not been run for the best interest of one-half of its stockholders, according to a complaint filed in the Supreme Court to-day by Harry I. Garson and Herbert K. Sanborn, directors and owners of fifty per cent. of the company's stock.

Equity Pictures Corporation, a Delaware corporation with offices at No. 33 West 42d Street, which was formed July 1919, for the express purpose of buying and distributing films in which Clara Kimball Young starred, has not been run for the best interest of one-half of its stockholders, according to a complaint filed in the Supreme Court to-day by Harry I. Garson and Herbert K. Sanborn, directors and owners of fifty per cent. of the company's stock.

Equity Pictures Corporation, a Delaware corporation with offices at No. 33 West 42d Street, which was formed July 1919, for the express purpose of buying and distributing films in which Clara Kimball Young starred, has not been run for the best interest of one-half of its stockholders, according to a complaint filed in the Supreme Court to-day by Harry I. Garson and Herbert K. Sanborn, directors and owners of fifty per cent. of the company's stock.

EUGENE LEROY, SOUGHT AT SEA IN TRUNK MYSTERY

EUGENE LEROY INT.

LAMBS SUSPEND M'GRAW AFTER FIGHT IN CLUB

(Continued From First Page.)

ions, was the actor who punched McGraw in the eye and nose. It was learned on good authority, but this was not admitted officially at the Lambs' Club. It was understood along Broadway that McGraw mistook Boyd for Walter Knight, another actor, who is said to have been responsible for McGraw's suspension from the Lambs' a few months ago.

At the Lambs' Club, following the meeting of the House Committee, the following statement was given out: "At the date of this altercation on Sunday morning, there was no one in the grill room with the exception of half a dozen persons, at the most, and there was no celebration—just friendly talk. McGraw came into the club and mistook a certain member for a man with whom he had had a difference; he grossly insulted this member; was very violent and abusive and provoked a quarrel in which the club member was on the defensive."

"After the difference had been settled, Mr. Slavin endeavored to persuade his friend, Mr. McGraw, to leave the club, and he, with Commander Liggett, put Mr. McGraw into a taxi and took him away from the club. Mr. Slavin had at no time any part in the altercation, except as a peacemaker, and left the club in a perfectly normal condition."

It was learned that in his fight with the actor the manager of the Glants was struck twice on the nose, causing an eye to puff and turn black. At this point Mr. Slavin took a hand to stop the fight, finally getting McGraw to a washroom to stop the blood flow.

Then with Winfield Liggett, another member who had been playing cards with Mr. Slavin and Mr. Boyd, so the story goes, Mr. Slavin persuaded McGraw to start for home in a taxi cab.

There seems to be a difference as to what happened in the taxi. The chauffeur, William Meeghan of No. 3 Columbia Avenue, has slightly changed his story.

"In front of the apartment where McGraw has lived for nine years," Meeghan told the police, "McGraw and Slavin got out of the taxi cab. Liggett started to get out too, but McGraw shouted: 'You get back in there!' at the same time shoving Liggett back into the cab. Then I looked at the taxi meter, and before I could turn back on his back on the sidewalk and McGraw was on his way into the apartment house."

Physicians who examined Slavin after he had been rushed to St. Luke's Hospital and Commander Liggett told a reporter to-day that they thought Slavin could not have been injured at the Lambs' Club and then be able to get out of the taxi at the McGraw apartment.

Ellis Island Officials Deny Charges Against Former Premier. Ellis Island officials to-day announced that immigration records show that Charles Huszar, formerly Premier of Hungary, entered the United States in a legal manner and did not "steal in."

An investigation was started yesterday as a result of charges made by the Federation of Hungarians living in America that fraud was practiced by Huszar in entering Washington, although no official investigation, although a demand has been forwarded to Commissioner Caminetti asking Huszar's deportation.

Eight-Speed Bus Driver Held. Julius Kirsch, driver of a sight-seeing bus, was held in $2,500 bail for examination Sept. 2 by Magistrate Corrigan in Essex Market Court to-day. It is charged that Kirsch's heavy car struck Miss Mollie Seretta, twenty-two, a Russian dancer of No. 241 East Houston Street, on Sunday last, at Bowery and Houston street, and that he drove off without waiting to give his name to a policeman. Miss Seretta is in Bellevue Hospital, where it is said she lost her arm. A mob chased the driver after the accident.

Beilin Reports Rush of Refugees to Danzig to Take Ship. BERLIN, Aug. 10 (Associated Press).—The rush of Polish refugees toward Danzig on the Baltic, is continuing unabated, says a dispatch to the Tagesspiegel from Koelnburg, East Prussia. The police that are being ordered to bring only their necessary clothing. Danzig, adds the message, is overflowing with Polish seeking passage to the United States.

BROKER INDICTED FOR ARGENCY; HELD IN $10,000 BAIL

Draft on Oil Company Given by Promoter of Motor Speedway Declared Worthless.

Two indictments charging Anderson M. Herd, of No. 25 Broad Street, one of the most prominent promoters in the country, with grand larceny in the first degree, were handed up by the Grand Jury to Judge McIntyre in the Court of General Sessions to-day.

The indictments were voted on the complaint of Percy R. Fyne 2d, member of the stock brokerage firm of Fyne, Kendall & Hollister, No. 20 Exchange Place.

Mr. Herd appeared for pleading with his counsel, Henry Goldsmith of Whitman & Goldsmith. He pleaded not guilty to both indictments, with the customary request for permission to change the plea if necessary next Monday. Assistant District Attorney Rittenberg announced that counsel had agreed on bail of $20,000 which was furnished at once by the National Surety Company.

"This is a civil suit," was the only comment made by Mr. Herd's counsel. The promoter who promoted Sheepshead Bay Motor Speedway and other big projects made no statement.

Mr. Fyne, who is prominent in financial circles and has been a trustee of Princeton University, was represented by Beckman, Menken & Griscom. Mr. Rittenberg presented the case to the Grand Jury.

Mr. Fyne alleged that Mr. Herd promised to pay him $60,000 he owed on Jan. 15, but reported then he had not the cash. Fyne said he had deposited this $38,500 with the Empire Trust Company, and told Herd so. Fyne said that at Herd's suggestion he gave the promoter personal notes for $15,000, $10,000 and $10,000 to be discounted by Herd's friends, the cash realized to be used to take up the $38,500 note. Fyne alleged that Herd used the Empire a draft on an oil company for $18,500 and two of his own notes for $10,000 each. The complainant added that he never received back his $38,500 note, that the trust company notified him the oil stock had been returned as worthless and that inquiries of Herd failed to elicit any satisfactory response.

According to the police, they said after conviction, that they had been in many a "hand" together, and in talking over their old exploits, had wondered if they were still kept so "hot," on August 1, twenty judicial units, valued at $15, from the Judicial Unit Store at No. 119 West 24th Street, and were found to be hidden.

Both admitted that they had lost their grip, and that the "den" was the proper place for them.

Chief of Police Hayes of Hoboken yesterday interviewed two persons who sought permission to adopt a two-year-old girl who was abandoned in the hallway of No. 227 Hudson Street, Hoboken, Saturday night. He reserved decision until the police search for the child's parents is ended. The child is in the care of Matron Garrick at Headquarters.

On the chance that an incoming or outgoing steamship passenger might have selected the Hudson Street tenement as a suitable place to get rid of the child, the police have inquired at nearby hotels, but were informed no such child had ever been seen there. The girl is chubby and has light brown hair, which is bobbed. There were no marks of identification on her clothing.

Lightning Hits Camp Meeting Two Ministers Killed. LAFORCE, Ind., Aug. 10.—Two ministers were killed and two other ministers and two women seriously injured last night when lightning struck a tent at Springville, five miles north of here, in which a free Methodist camp meeting was being held. The dead were Rev. Henry Lane, presiding elder, Heilbrunn, Ill., and the Rev. L. W. H. H. of the camp of the Evansville, Wis. Seminary.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

74 BEST SCORE IN 18 HOLE PLAY IN GOLF TOURNEY

Recorded by Mehlor of Oklahoma and White of Toledo Before Large Gallery.

TOLEDO, Aug. 10.—The best scores for 18 holes to-day among the early finishers were 74, recorded by William Mehlor of Tulsa, Okla., and D. K. White of Toledo.

"Click" Evans, the first prominent amateur to complete the round, scored 37—39—76, or five over par. His partner, George Sargent, of Columbus took 47—47. Otto Hackbart of Cincinnati also had 74. James Carberry of Chicago returned 78 and William Creavy of Kansas City 79.

A large gallery saw Bobby Jones of Atlanta, play the first nine holes in 34, one under par, while Harry Vardon, his partner, had to take 32. The young Southern champion started 4—4—2, scoring a birdie on the 145-yard third hole, while Vardon was compelled to take 6—6—4 on the same holes.

SUGAR, 4,000 TONS, DUE HERE TO-NIGHT

Comes on First Round-the-World Freight Service Trip of American Ship.

The freight steamship West Kason of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, in command of Capt. A. C. Patton, will arrive to-night or to-morrow morning from the first round-the-world freight service trip made by an American ship.

The West Kason left San Francisco March 2 and will dock at Pier 33, Brooklyn, with 4,000,000 pounds of sugar for New York merchants, part of its cargo. It will return to San Francisco via the Panama Canal.

AGED CROOKS SENT UP. Tried Hard at Old Game, but Had Lost Their Grip.

Pat O'Brien and Joseph Stanton, two old-time crooks, according to their own admission and the police's recognition, were to-day sentenced in Special Sessions by Justices French, McInerney and Edwards to not less than six months nor more than three years in the penitentiary. Pat is sixty and lives at No. 238 East 82d Street. Sam is seventy-eight and gave his address as No. 59 Jackson Street.

According to the police, they said after conviction, that they had been in many a "hand" together, and in talking over their old exploits, had wondered if they were still kept so "hot," on August 1, twenty judicial units, valued at $15, from the Judicial Unit Store at No. 119 West 24th Street, and were found to be hidden.

Both admitted that they had lost their grip, and that the "den" was the proper place for them.

Chief of Police Hayes of Hoboken yesterday interviewed two persons who sought permission to adopt a two-year-old girl who was abandoned in the hallway of No. 227 Hudson Street, Hoboken, Saturday night. He reserved decision until the police search for the child's parents is ended. The child is in the care of Matron Garrick at Headquarters.

On the chance that an incoming or outgoing steamship passenger might have selected the Hudson Street tenement as a suitable place to get rid of the child, the police have inquired at nearby hotels, but were informed no such child had ever been seen there. The girl is chubby and has light brown hair, which is bobbed. There were no marks of identification on her clothing.

Lightning Hits Camp Meeting Two Ministers Killed. LAFORCE, Ind., Aug. 10.—Two ministers were killed and two other ministers and two women seriously injured last night when lightning struck a tent at Springville, five miles north of here, in which a free Methodist camp meeting was being held. The dead were Rev. Henry Lane, presiding elder, Heilbrunn, Ill., and the Rev. L. W. H. H. of the camp of the Evansville, Wis. Seminary.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

Mr. Menden, in discussing his meeting with the committee, said he had asked the appointment of a sub-committee to verify the statements made by Receiver Garrison regarding the company's finances and the limitations placed by the Federal Court on employees of the company. He said the company was at all times ready to arbitrate except as to the payment of money "which are not in the company's treasury." For instance, he said, if the men really desired an eight-hour day at eight hours pay, the company could arrange to meet the situation by increasing the number of its employees without increasing its appropriation for wages.

DAVIS CUP TEAM WINS SINGLES BY NARROW MARGIN

Garland Succumbs to Washburn, and Johnston Barely Averts Defeat.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 10.—R. Norris Williams 2d, and William M. Johnston of the Davis Cup team, won their matches in the singles play in the annual Newport Casino lawn tennis tournament to-day, but the third member of the team in competition, C. F. Garland, went down in straight sets before the rushing tactics of W. F. Washburn. In view of Washburn's brilliant playing at Seaside and in other tournaments this year, the result was not regarded as surprising, for Garland was suffering from lack of practice as he had not touched a racquet since he played at Wimbledon.

Williams defeated Theodore R. Pell without much effort, having apparently found his more less more quickly than his team-mate, Johnston, the National Champion, who several times was within a hair of a set of defeat at the hands of Nat. W. Niles of Boston.

There was much disappointment at the Casino over the failure of W. T. Tilden, the World's Champion, to put in an appearance. His match in the first round was defaulted to A. S. Dainty.

Singles—First Round (Completed). G. C. Coker defeated Major E. H. Harran by default.

R. Norris Williams 2d defeated J. W. Foster 6—1, 6—2, 6—2.

W. M. Johnston defeated C. K. Shaw 6—1, 8—6.

C. J. Curley defeated L. E. Manan 6—2, 6—4.

A. S. Dainty defeated W. T. Tilden by default.

C. S. Garland defeated U. Brooks Fermo Jr. 6—3, 6—4.

W. M. Johnston defeated W. F. Washburn 6—2, 6—4, 6—2.

C. F. Garland defeated C. S. Garland 6—3, 6—2, 6—4.

C. J. Griffin defeated Harold Godshall 6—3, 3—6, 6—0.

SEES LITTLE HOPE IN A BLOCKADE

Washington Officials Point Out That One Already Tried Proved Itself a Failure.