

SHIP IN DISTRESS AS DEATH DEALING STORM HITS CITY

Buildings Unroofed, Trees Up-rooted, Wires Laid Low and Lights Put Out.

Signals of distress were received here to-day by wireless from the Cumberland, a wooden steamship of the United States Shipping Board, which had broken her towline when the West Indian hurricane which swept the coast during the night and this morning, causing at least one death, numerous injuries and widespread property damage.

The wireless reported the Cumberland in distress twelve miles off Rhinecock. The vessel and the Fort Wright, in tow from New London for Norfolk, broke their hawsers during the height of the storm. The Fort Wright was picked up, while another tug was sent to the assistance of the Cumberland.

Frank Hundell, a fireman on the tug Integrity, was knocked overboard and drowned when the tug and a Government dredge collided off Greenville Bay in the storm, as a result of misinterpreted signals. Policeman Ludwig of the police boat Patrol, which went to the scene, fell down a companion ladder, injuring a knee.

Miss Jane Daly of No. 294 East 163d Street was struck by a heavy sign which was blown from the roof of a building at Broadway and 65th Street. She is in Flower Hospital suffering contusions of the left shoulder and possible internal injuries.

James McCormick, sixty, steward of the Haygood, a Shipping Board vessel moored at Bayonne, N. J., was blown off a pier at New Brighton, N. J. Two men who jumped in to the sea had difficulty in landing McCormick, who weighs 200 pounds. He is in Staten Island Hospital, suffering from submergion.

Policeman Haysenny of the New Drop Station, while patrolling in Grant City, N. J., was knocked down by a falling limb, a loose by the pole. His left arm was fractured and his neck and head lacerated. He is in Staten Island Hospital.

The waves piled up by the wind flooded the moorings of the bungalows between South Beach and Midland Beach, partly undermining several dwellings tenanted because of the inability of the dwellers to get housing here. Electric light wires went down before the fury of the storm in Tottenville, New Drop, and Grant City, leaving those places in darkness. The power was turned off to avoid danger of dangling live wires and it was said there probably will be no electric light in these towns for several days.

Darkness also prevailed in Bay Ridge, near Fort Hamilton, where breaking of wires interrupted lighting service. The Fort Hamilton Police Station and the military reservation buildings used lanterns until dawn. Trees were uprooted and windows broken.

A. G. Morris, manager of the Canarsie Operating Company, asserted the wind blew 150 miles an hour around Jamaica Bay, piling up the water nine feet against the bulkheads, tearing away the corner of a pier and smashing and sinking the 65-foot motor fishing sloop Cruise.

The wind early to-day tore the roof off the silk factory of Valentine & De Bar in Bergenline Avenue, North Bergen, N. J., and hurled heavy sections of wreckage 100 feet, smashing them down on top of two dwellings. The impact smashed the cottage roofs and broke in the windows, starting the occupants into flight and to seek shelter with the neighbors.

The damage to the factory was estimated at $25,000, the wind and rain playing havoc with the contents and machinery after the roof had blown away. Damage to the dwelling owned and occupied by Paul Welser, No. 120 10th Street, was put at $1,000, and to the one adjoining, owned by John McDonald and occupied by the family of William Kramer, $1,000.

In Queens the damage was widespread. The electric light wires were down in Far Rockaway and Cedarhurst, leaving that region in darkness. Trees and telephone poles were down between Rockaway Point and Hewlett, and the police telephone system of the Rockaway Beach and Far Rockaway stations was put out of commission.

Thousands of bushels of apples were knocked from the trees of Long Island orchards in and about Sayville. Along the southern Jersey coast there was little rain, although the wind wrought havoc. Standing corn was flattened in Jersey fields. Pears and late apples were the most seriously affected of the crops. Cellars in Perth Amboy were flooded.

At Manhattan Beach damage estimated at $5,000 was done. "Sunshade Walk" and lunch counter pavilion there were entirely unroofed.

SUSPECT FIGHTS DETECTIVE.

O'Meara's Hand Broken as He Attacks Man Accused of Theft.

Detective August Gillman of the East 23d Street Station is pursuing a broken hand as a result of a struggle he had early to-day, while arresting John Russell, thirty-three, a tailor of No. 263 First Avenue, in the latter's home.

Bliss hosiery and ties valued at $1,500 were stolen Tuesday from the man's furnishing store of Mrs. Taylor of No. 127 Third Avenue. An abandoned automobile was said by the police to have led to the disclosure that the goods were received by Russell.

The Fifth Avenue Shop
349 Fifth Avenue at 34th Street
Will Place on Sale Saturday

300 SMART HATS
10.00 Values to 20.00

In this collection you will find Panne Velvet and Silk Lyons Velvet Hats in all colors and all shapes—trimmed with the latest embroideries, coque feathers, ostrich trimmings and lace. Creations from our own workrooms, fit for the smartest woman to wear. Specially designed for street and afternoon wear.

The Store is closed daily at 5 P. M.

B. Altman & Co.
MADISON AVENUE - FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK
Thirty-fourth Street Telephone 7000 Murray Hill Thirty-fifth Street

Misses' Tailored Suits
in newly-made, distinctive Autumn models, plain and fur-trimmed will be on sale to-morrow (Saturday)
at prices representing exceptional values

Plain-tailored Suits, in several smart models developed in imported tweeds $39.00
Every-day Suits of heavy wool jersey, with collar of Australian opossum $45.00
Smart Box-coat Suits of velour, trimmed with mole or nutria $68.00

(Misses' Suits Department, Second Floor)

The National B. R. T. Elevator and its Lexington Elevator Tenth Floor Stations in the Bloomingdale Building

BLOOMINGDALES

59TH TO 60TH—THIRD TO LEXINGTON ONE BLOCK FROM PARK AVENUE

Store Hours
9.00 A. M. to 5.30 P. M.

If You Cannot Call in Person Telephone Plaza 5900

Continuing the Fall Sale of

Coats : Suits : Dresses
Specially Priced at $29.50 Womens and Misses Sizes

A smart Fall suit—a warm, becoming coat—a delightful dress for business or street wear—whichever of these you need (and you may need them all), this is your opportunity. Over a thousand skilfully designed, splendidly tailored garments in this Sale—all of them at special sale prices. Which means, of course, that you will be able to get two garments for what one would have cost last Winter.

This smart apparel is marked by some of the newest style features, many of them copied from imported models.

THE COATS AT $29.50 Bolivia, Suedine, Chamoye and Silverstone—all silk lined and warmly interlined. Many are fur trimmed and all reflect the newest of the Fall colors.
THE SUITS AT $29.50 Tricotina, Oxford and Velours, many trimmed with fur. Beautifully tailored, the coats richly silk lined. All the desirable colors, including navy and black.
THE DRESSES AT $29.50 Every popular wool and silk fabric, besides mignonette and Tricolette. Charming colors. Plenty of black and navy.

Imported Pearl Necklace : $3.95
Many a girl will adore such a gift as this, even to the point of making herself a present of it. The sheen of the pearl is always becoming to any type of feminine beauty, whether blonde or brunette.
These necklaces are opera length. The pearls are pink, white or cream tinted. The spring clasp is a ring of solid gold. The pearls are heavy and indestructible. And they are finely graduated.
The extraordinarily low price of these rich and costly-looking adornments is an inducement that carries force.

Roller-bearing and Rubber-tired Lexington Scooters : $3.35
A wonderful joy, and a mighty clever one, because it knows how to keep boys and girls out-o'-doors.

Here's a Great Offer
The $120 Columbia and $10 Worth of Records
$10 Down
20 Months to Pay the Balance

Come in and see this splendid phonograph—hear a liltng love song, some zippy jazz, played on it. Examine the beautifully finished cabinet, with its spacious racks. That's all you need to do—the Columbia practically sells itself.

DELIVERED FOR $10 DOWN
The initial payment of $10 assures you of immediate delivery of the Columbia and $10 worth of records of your own choice. Monthly installments are small, and before you know it you've completed them.
Every phonograph sold in our shop is guaranteed by Bloomingdales. That means service and satisfaction.

100000 Fresh-Cut Flowers
Many-hued roses, spicy carnations, the flame-spiked gladioli and gorgeous heavy-petalled dahlias... 3c and 5c each
An extra large box of cut flowers, dewy-fresh... $1.00
Ferns, stately and decorative growing plants, delicate living greenery... 69c per plant up
Artistic Floral Designs: $3 up
Cut Flower Shop—Main Floor

A generous stock of bulbs just received from Holland—hyacinths, crocuses, tulips, narcissus, single and double yellow daffodils—all at very low prices.
Greenhouses on the Roof

Wallpapers
To Embellish the Home
Wall Papers for Living Room, Dining Room, Kitchen, 17 1/2c per roll
Different styles, of course, and with matched borders. Floral patterns in full selection.
Non-Fading Ostrich Paper—such a nice, simple background for pictures... 29c per roll
These come in the restful neutral tints that artistic people love.

New Zealand Lamb
Per lb.
Hindquarters... 38 1/2c
Chops... 55c
Breast... 12 1/2c
Roasting Lamb... 30c
Roast Beef... 24 1/2c
Sirloin Steaks... 35c
Porterhouse... 35c
Army Bacon... 23 1/2c

Extra Trousers With These Fine Suits for Boys $16.85
Sizes 7 to 17—for boys who are regular fellows and give their suits hard treatment. Extra pair of trousers to lengthen the life of the suit by at least as much again. Means that Dad saves practically the price of another suit.
Both pairs fully lined—seams strongly taped—coats lined with sturdy alpaca. All-wool fancy chevots, in the new Fall styles every fellow wants, and in a wide choice of shades and patterns.
Mackinaws: Sizes 8 to 18 yrs. $11.85
Plaids and mixtures in this serviceable type of all-round cost. Good quality mackinaw cloth fashions them.
150 Boys Overcoats: $9.85
Another lot of those popular button-to-the-neck models, sizes 2 to 7 years. Plain and fancy chevots of long-wearing quality. Only one and two of a kind.

A Limited Number of Kaysers Silk Top Union Suits: $1.98
Delicate pink or white, finest lisle with Kayser silk tops. Ribbon or bodice shoulders, tight or shell knee. In regular and extra sizes.

Taffeta Petticoats $3.98
The rich, softly rustling kind, in two attractive models. You may have one in changeable colors or in some new solid Fall color. And you may have accordion pleating and cord trimming, or a severely tailored model.

To Make Room for New Stock, a Sale of Gold Filled Frames
PRICES GREATLY REDUCED
Our Optical Shop is stocking a new line of solid gold frames—hence these unusually low prices on gold-filled stocks.
S. O. Lloyd and Windsor 12-kt. gold filled Zilonite rim Riding Bow frames—the best obtainable. Now $3.
Regular 12-kt. gold filled finger-piece eyeglass mountings with Zilonite protection rims. Now $3.
Slightly Shop-Worn Opera Glasses
Chevalier (Paris) 13-line pearl barrel and eyepiece. Now $8.50.
Same make with pearl handle. Now $10.
Binoculars in leather cases with straps. Sale price, complete, $24.00.

Extra Trouser Suits For Men and Young Men $35
Sizes 34 to 46 Chest Measure
Extra value in these suits and value you can depend upon. That means a lot these days, when changing prices often leave you stranded as to quality. Good chevots, in good-looking patterns—and the extra pair of trousers put you just so much to the good.