

HARDING STARTS ON NEW SWING TO THE MIDDLE WEST

Goes Through Six States on This Trip—Uncertain About Coming Here.

MARION, O., Oct. 4.—With his departure from Marion today for the Middle West, Senator Harding begins a speaking swing that will keep him away from home almost continuously until late October.

The present trip will take him through Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma, and he will not return here until after noon next Monday. Late on the following day he will leave for a trip through Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, and then after three days rest will go east.

The first set speech on the mid-western circuit is to be made at Des Moines, Iowa, at a forenoon meeting to-morrow. To-morrow night he is to speak at Omaha, Neb., the following day at St. Joseph and Kansas City, Mo., and Saturday night at Oklahoma City, Okla. It is expected that in addition he will make numerous short talks from the rear platform of his car.

Although no speech is scheduled, the nominee's special train will stop for four hours late today at Chicago and he will go downtown for dinner and to consult with political leaders at the National Committee's Headquarters. It is expected that one of the subjects taken up in the conferences will be the number of speeches to be made on his western tour and whether New York City is to be included in the itinerary.

"Red Little Jimmy" to Be Repeated

Chamney O'Connell's three-act comedy, "Whisper Dhu," set in Ireland and dated in 1772, will repeat to-night at St. Joseph's School Hall, Washington Place and Fifth Avenue, under the auspices of St. Joseph's Dramatic Society. The leading part is played by Selden McLaughlin, a Deputy in the Burroughs office.

WOMAN WHO SAYS HUSBAND BEAT HER IN CRITICAL STATE

Police Search for Harry McCormick as Physicians Try to Save Young Wife.

St. Lawrence Hospital authorities today reported the condition of Mrs. Anna McCormick as critical. Mrs. McCormick was found unconscious yesterday in a limousine on Riverside Drive, and when she regained her senses accused Harry McCormick, her husband of a year, from whom she is living apart, of turning her into the car and beating her. She lives with her mother, Mrs. Irene Carlson, at No. 127 Alexander Avenue, the Bronx. The police are searching for the husband. The police identified the limousine as belonging to Dr. Joseph C. Horan of No. 46 West 85th Street, who employed McCormick. Dr. Horan told them the car had been used without permission. McCormick's home is at No. 2012 Seventh Avenue.
