Stock Market

After several days of extreme dulness the stock market climbed out of its rut in the last hour of trading today, when the call money rate, which had been at 8 per cent. for about a week, dropped to 7 per cent. This caused such a flurry on the part of the large short interest to cover their commitments that the whole market rose sharply, with gains in the leading speculative issues amounting to two points or more.

Although it had been persistently reported during the morning that independent steel companies are under-selling the steel corporation and that a price war is in prospect in the steel trade, steel shares were leaders in the rise.

Man for the Ages

By Irving Bacheller

CHAPTER II

"THERE'S a hidden Abe and you haven't got acquainted with him yet," Kelo said.

"Every one in the little village came to the house warming."

"There is nothing in America so beautiful as this kind of thing," said Kelo.

"Well, of course, it isn't like Boston or New York," Kelo answered.

"Thank God," Kelo exclaimed.

"New York hurts my feelings," said many of the builders.

"I don't know how to plead to that," said Kelo.

"A knock came at the door and a man entered, carrying a wicker basket."

"Eli, as I live," cried Kelo.

"You can see, but you cannot buy," announced the Jew.

"He poked the basket."

"Suddenly there was a lively stir in the room."

"The announcement of all a boy's life is the first time he is married."

"It had occurred, with a merry laugh she threw her arms around Jack Kelo's neck and kissed him."

"That's like him, isn't it?" said the Doctor.

"Exactly!" she exclaimed.

"I stop at David Barney's an' dere he took de goods out of my pack an' he put de 'ol' job for you," said Eli with a laugh.

"A real surprise party!" the girl exclaimed.

"She was a small-sized girl, nearing sixteen, with red cheeks and hazel eyes and blonde hair that fell in curls upon her shoulders."

"Mrs. Martin Waddell. There was a blue swallow-tail coat with brass buttons, the tails of which were fastened with one button above the danger of pressure when he sat down."

"The children's games had begun and the little house rang with their voices."

DEAL TO CONTROL SUGAR PRICES IS ON

President of Cuba to Organize a Committee That Will Regulate Sale.

According to information reaching the sugar trade, President Menocal of Cuba is contemplating the formation of a committee to market the 1920-21 sugar crop.

The plan has been advanced to the extent of naming the committee, and persons mentioned as likely to be appointed are W. A. Simonson, Executive Manager of the National City Bank, R. H. Hawley, President of the Cuban-American Sugar Company, and Manuel Rionda, President of the Cuban Cane Sugar Corporation.

Certain sugar authorities believe that the plan may not meet with the approval of the United States Government because it may be construed as an attempt to stabilize sugar prices through the withholding of supplies.

The view is also taken that the plan originated in banking circles in this city and that the impelling motive is the better protection of New York investors who made large advances to Cuban sugar growers against the growing crop when the price of sugar was materially higher than it is now, and who fear that their loans now need to be better safeguarded.

DOCTOR LOSES $100,000 SUIT

Says Railroad Falsely Accused Him of Taking Dead Man's Ring.

Supreme Court Justice Mitchell today dismissed the $100,000 damage suit brought by Dr. H. Kruger Kariellian, of Stamford, Conn., against the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company for alleged malicious prosecution. John M. Gibbons, counsel for the railroad, moved for dismissal after the plaintiff rested his case.
