

RAID "FRAMED UP"
SAYS WIFE; ASKS
DIVORCE SET ASIDE

Mrs. Harriet Beaulay Also Seeks Revoking of Detective Agency License.

Mrs. Harriet W. Beaulay, who formerly kept the Harriet Beaulay School of the Expressive Arts at Arroyo, S. L., has filed application in the Supreme Court to set aside the divorce decree which her husband, William J. Beaulay, artist, obtained recently from Justice Bijur.

Her motion for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence is linked with her proceeding before the Deputy State Comptroller to have the license of the Val O'Farrell Detective Agency of No. 500 Fifth Avenue revoked on the allegation that a detective formerly employed by it, acting in collusion with her husband, lured her into a hotel room and then sprang the raid which resulted in her husband's obtaining a divorce.

Justice Bijur, whose son, Harry, is a member of the firm of Bijur & Herts, No. 57 Exchange Place, attorneys for Mrs. Beaulay, referred the case last Monday to Justice Lehman, who adjourned the hearing until Friday.

Mrs. Beaulay obtained from Justice Delehanty on Tuesday an order directing County Clerk Schneider to produce the next day before Deputy State Comptroller William J. Maier the complete records of the Beaulay divorce case on file in the County Clerk's office. These records, according to the order, are to be inspected and used as testimony in the proceeding against the detective agency.

In her affidavit filed with Justice Delehanty, Mrs. Beaulay charges that the detective agency, in collusion with her husband, "framed up" a case against her by the use, she says, "of a so-called professional co-respondent—one Thomas Maxwell, who masqueraded under the name of Col. T. Madison, and by false statements and misrepresentations entrapped this defendant into a compromising situation, and was the means by which the plaintiff secured a decree of divorce against this defendant, contrary to justice and right."

MOVIES TO BE MADE IN WEALTHY HOMES

Fees Received Will Go to Maternity Centre and Fund for Devastated France.

The Maternity Centre of New York and the American Committee for Devastated France will divide equally the fees to be paid by motion picture companies under a plan worked out by prominent women of this city to make available for moving picture locations the city homes of wealthy and socially prominent people and many of the finest estates in Westchester County and on Long Island.

A permanent organization was effected yesterday at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Meredith Hare of No. 135 East 63d Street. The Maternity Centre is represented by Mrs. William McAdoo, Mrs. Montgomery Hare and Miss Mabel Choate, and the committee by Miss Anne Morgan and Miss Elizabeth Bishop Perkins. Working with them is an Executive Committee composed of Miss Symphora Briested, Miss Virginia Furman and Joseph Howland Hunt and Frank Crowninshield.

FUR THIEVES WORK RAPIDLY AND BEAT
BURGLAR ALARMS

Obtain $50,000 in Goods in Well Protected District in Past Two Months.

Lightning like burglars who laugh at burglar alarms and work so fast they are gone with their loot before the police and special patrolmen can respond to the clanging pongs, have reaped a harvest of more than $50,000 in the last two months in the fur district near West 29th Street station. It became known to-day.

Complaints have been pouring in from the fur dealers and the police have failed to find any trace of the burglars.

One of the first complaints came from I. Schechter & Co., No. 213 West 34th Street, where one day last March the police and special agency men went to respond to a burglar alarm set off and discovered that fur worth $11,000 had disappeared along with the burglars.

Two weeks ago burglars, evidently the same, raided the loft of Miller & Miller in the same building and got away with fur valued at $1,500. April 18 they got $8,000 worth of fur from Nadelman & Schoenfeld, third floor, No. 218 West 34th Street, Saturday at 4 o'clock they got $2,500 worth of fur from Samuel Kanter, No. 119 West 34th Street. A week before they stole $10,000 worth of fur from Mendel Lazow, No. 229 Seventh Avenue.

Although in most cases it is believed the burglars had to use a truck, they have scoured the alarms and have gotten away although a police station is in the heart of the district where they have worked.

In the case of A. Weckstein & Son, No. 333 Seventh Avenue, entered Sunday, April 16, the burglars evidently feared they might be trapped because the store is on the fourteenth floor. Instead of taking chances on the alarm, they cut through the wall from the hallway and obtained $10,000 worth of fur. This is the only case in which they have shown any respect for the alarms.

$55,000 Factory Fire in Newark, N. J.
Fire early to-day destroyed the building at Water and Trenton Streets, Newark, N. J., occupied by the Very Best Shoe Company as a manufacturing plant. It started from a gas pilot and was discovered by the watchman only after it had gained considerable headway. The Very Best Company suffered a loss of $55,000. The building, owned by D. Brods, was damaged to the extent of $10,000, and the machinery, owned by the United Machine Shoe Company, about $5,000.

FINDS BROTHER SAFE
AFTER FIFTY YEARS

William Taylor Worried About "Larry" and Came From Ireland to Hunt Him Up.

William Taylor of Kings County, Ireland, seventy-six years old, has found his brother, Lawrence, seventy-one, after a search lasting since February among his kin in Boston, Philadelphia and Trenton. They parted fifty years ago, when Lawrence came to America to seek his fortune. In recent years William had heard nothing from him, and came over to look for him.

Sunday William was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Graham, No. 14 West 102d Street. Just as dinner was announced "Larry" rang the bell and walked in. William assured that "Larry" is safe, is returning to Ireland on Saturday, and will tell the neighbors the United States is not so large as he thought.

5 MEN, 4 BROTHERS,
HELD FOR STABBING

Fighting Relatives and Arbitrator Are Accused of Wounding Presser.

Pincus Einfield, thirty-seven years old, a presser, of No. 239 East 14th Street, is in Bellevue Hospital suffering from a stab wound in the cheek and possibly a fracture of the skull. He was found unconscious in front of No. 239 East 14th Street early this morning.

Detectives arrested Isadore Abraham, twenty-four years old, of No. 132 East 12th Street; his brothers, Louis, twenty-three; Samuel, twenty-six, and Joseph, twenty-four, all of No. 236 East 14th Street, and Peter Barbola, twenty-four, of No. 229 East 12th Street. They were charged with felonious assault and were locked up in the Elizabeth Street Police Station, accused of assaulting Einfield.

It was said the four brothers got into a fight, which Barbola was trying to arbitrate. Einfield was unable to identify any of the prisoners.

CAT CLAWS CHILD OF THREE.

Mother Beats Off Animal After Deep Wounds Are Inflicted.

A cat strayed into the yard of Charles Steckle at No. 231 Miller Avenue, Freeport, L. I., yesterday, where his three-year-old daughter, Mildred, was playing and attacked the child. The cat's claws tore the child's dress and sank into the flesh of one leg, inflicting wounds which required medical attention. The animal was attempting to claw her face, when the mother heard screams and running into the yard beat it off. Police Lieut. Elmer E. Raynor shot the cat. It had been seen about the Steckle premises before and had once attacked the child's father.
