

LANE YOUNGSTERS
LIKE NEW DADDY,
WHO CAN SWIM

Life Guard Zimmerman, Who Wed Wealthy Widow, to Be a Broker.

The six children of the former Mrs. Cornelius A. Lane of Manhattan Beach, since Monday the bride of Eddie Zimmerman, life guard, admitted to-day they like their new daddy, who taught them to swim. They were left at home with friends while the couple went to honeymooning. Charles, who is eleven, admitted he had a brother Cornelius and two sisters named Mollie and Anita, but refused to give the names of his other brothers, Joseph, eight, and Gerald, the baby, seven.

"We all like Mr. Zimmerman, our new daddy," Charles told the reporter, and his brother, Cornelius, who followed him to the door, agreed with him.

Up to his marriage Mr. Zimmerman lived with his parents and sister at No. 20 Glenada Place, Brooklyn. In the marriage license he gave his age as thirty-one and his bride gave hers as thirty-six. He gave his occupation as a broker and it is understood he will enter that business and in addition give instruction in athletics.

The bride is the widow of a Philadelphia book publisher, who left her a great fortune, part of which is a magnificent residence at Palmyra Street and Haverden Avenue, in the section built up between Sheepshead Bay and the ocean the past few years. The house is one of the finest at the resort. It is of red brick with Spanish tile roof and is surrounded by Italian gardens and is said to have cost $135,000.

HARDING IS TO VISIT KNOX.
WASHINGTON, June 2.—President Harding has made arrangements to spend the next week-end with Senator Knox of Pennsylvania at the Senator's home in Valley Forge. He will leave here early Saturday morning for the motor ride of about 130 miles, reaching the Knox home shortly after noon. A game of golf is scheduled for the afternoon. The President will be accompanied by his secretary, George B. Christian Jr., and Col. Sherrill, his military aide. They will spend Sunday inspecting some of the historic spots about Valley Forge and motor back to Washington Monday morning.
