

ENGINEERS SIGN PEACE PACT WITH SHIPPING BOARD

Other Marine Workers Invited by Secretary Davis to Confer on Terms To-Day.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Terms of an agreement on wages and working conditions for engineers on Shipping Board vessels, reached in conferences between Secretary of Labor Davis, Rear Admiral Benson, former Chairman of the board, and representatives of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, have been approved by Chairman Lasker and will be signed to-day, according to statements of officials of the Department of Labor. W. S. Brown, President of the Engineers' Association, and officials of the Shipping Board.

Brown already has signed the agreement. It was announced, and Chairman Lasker, who assumed office yesterday, will sign to-day for the board.

Secretary Davis sent out requests to representatives of the seamen, firemen, cooks and stewards and radio operators to confer on similar terms of settlement of their grievances resulting from a reduction of wages not in effect May 1 by the board and private ship owners.

The terms provide for a 15 per cent. reduction of wages and elimination of overtime, in effect until April 30, 1922. The matter of reinstatement of men who left their jobs, it is understood, is left for as fair as possible adjustment separately.

"The strike would have been settled a month ago if two radical leaders among the marine engineers had not prevented," Secretary Davis said. "Their influence delayed the settlement until the engineers now are forced to accept terms that amount to a 6 per cent. greater loss than they would have sustained had they taken the advice of Mr. Brown, who urged them to go back to work soon after the conference began."

Local Unions Meet To-day: One Leader Disapproves Pact.

When word was received last night of a settlement of the marine strike in Washington, Local No. 33 of the Marine Workers was in session at No. 26 Park Place.

Thomas H. Healey, President of the local and also head of the Atlantic Coast conference of Marine Workers, said the local disapproved the proposed agreement. He said the matter would come up for formal action at a joint meeting of Locals No. 33 and No. 89 in Webster Hall, in East 11th Street, this morning at 10.30 o'clock.

William Zoupe, motorman of the train, said that the man deliberately flung himself in front of the cars.

WOMAN OF 70 FOUND DEAD.

Mrs. Mary Brown Believed to Have Suffered Stroke Week Ago.

Mrs. Mary Brown, seventy, was found dead to-day in her room at No. 212 West 20th Street. The door had been locked about a week and Dr. Cox of Bellevue Hospital said she had been dead about that long.

Mrs. Brown was lying on the bed, fully dressed, and Dr. Cox believes she suffered a heart attack.

DIES IN HER NINETY-FIFTH YEAR.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., June 14.—Mrs. Mary D. Graham, in her ninety-fifth year, died yesterday in the house where she was born and where she had passed her entire life. Her mind was remarkably clear and active up to the time of her death. Her father came here from Connecticut just 100 years ago. She was the grandmother of Mrs. Katherine Dewitt Force, of Upper Montclair, N. J., and Mrs. Pauline Dewitt Ursano of New York City.

DELANCEY STREET DEDICATED AS A SCHIFF MEMORIAL

Lower East Side Breathing Spaces Set Aside for Children's Enjoyment.

The week's celebration by the people of the east side to dedicate the parkway from the Bowery to the Williamsburg Bridge as Schiff Parkway, in memory of the financier who devoted so much philanthropic interest to the people of that section, was begun this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

It had been intended that the celebration should be held some time ago, but it was postponed on request of Mrs. Felix Warburg, daughter of the late Jacob H. Schiff, who was at that time in Europe and desired to be present at the ceremonies. She and Mr. Warburg arrived on the Aquitania on Friday and attended to-day's services of dedication. They will sail for Europe next Thursday.

The several playground parks which were joined this afternoon in memory of Jacob H. Schiff were established at the suggestion of The Evening World seven years ago. The parks extend down the centre of Delancey Street, the name of which is in no way affected by the distinctive designation of the open space itself.

William Edlin, Chairman of the Mayor's committee, presided at the dedication this afternoon; the grand stand for distinguished guests, which will include several members of the Schiff family, being erected at the end of the Williamsburg Bridge.

The exercises were opened with a prayer by Rabbi S. S. Margolies. The sermon was delivered by Rabbi Schulman of Temple Beth-El, and Cantor Joseph Rosenblatt, leading a choir of 100 cantors, chanted prayers. There was no other music during the exercises.

Mayor Hylan delivered the principal address and formally delivered the Schiff Memorial Parkway into the keeping of the city and the people of the neighborhood. Justice Lehman and Joseph Barondessa also spoke.

Justice Lehman acted as spokesman of the Schiff family. About the grand stand was posted a guard of honor from Morris Dickstein Post, No. 462, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In his address Mayor Hylan said in part:

"The life of Jacob H. Schiff, noteworthy for its many interesting phases, stands out with particular emphasis as a glowing testimonial to the possibility of advancement open to every one who comes within the protection of the flag of our country.

"It would be difficult to find more eloquent proof of the fact that the genius of our national life offers the same equality of opportunity to all inhabitants of our land, regardless of the sphere of endeavor, who are willing to strive steadily and honestly in manly fashion for fame or station.

"Coming here as a poor boy we find Mr. Schiff patiently scaling the successive rungs of the ladder of success until wealth, power and influence crowned his honest efforts. In the days of independence and affluence, he was never unmindful of the worthy poor, but distributed with unbounded liberality, recognizing in all his fellow men a common brotherhood. For him nationality, race or religion were matters of no account, his great and disinterested benevolence being prompted solely by a desire for the relief of human suffering, the advancement of knowledge and the enhancement of moral culture."

The Delancey Street Merchants' Association will continue the celebration during the remainder of the week.

Over 1,500 men and women visited the offices or sent letters to enroll in the organization which has for its object the protection of tenants, including opposition to adverse legislation and providing lawyers to look after their interests in the courts.

The plan was attacked by Mr. Shulhof, who said there was no need for the organization at this time, as the Mayor's Committee is doing all the work necessary for tenants without asking them for contributions.

In reply Mr. Hirsch said last night: "The response of the citizens to-day to this movement is sufficient answer to Mr. Shulhof's assertion that this league is not needed. As to the payment of dues by them, I think the identities of the men back of this movement are a sufficient guarantee that these dues will be properly conserved and administered."

Mr. Hirsch said the new organization would not begin its activities until it had an actual membership of 300,000.

One of the callers on Mr. Hirsch yesterday was J. M. Moore, head of the "Tremont Tenants' Association. Mr. Moore said the movement would be welcomed in the Bronx where there were at least a dozen Tenants' Associations which would join.

"We have got no satisfaction whatever from the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering," he went on. "Our experiences with that body have been exceedingly dubious. All it can do is to mediate between the tenant and landlord, and these mediations have accomplished little. For some time we have been advising our members against having anything to do with that body."

Active Organization Goes On, Though Hylan Committee Chairman Assails Move.

Despite active opposition from the Hylan Administration in the form of a blast from Otto B. Shulhof, new Chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering, the Citizens' Protective Housing League, organized by Nathan Hirsch, a former Chairman of the committee, with offices at No. 408 Lexington Avenue, made rapid progress yesterday in enrolling members.

Mr. Hirsch told representatives of organizations calling on him not to send no dues until the full membership is assured. If associations by resolution will guarantee membership, this will be all that is required to gain admittance. Individuals will be required to pay dues when they take out their cards.

Former Congressman Jefferson M. Levy, who was one of the callers at the offices, said it was his belief the movement would spread throughout the country, and that the citizens of New York "should grasp this opportunity and go it now."
