

BELIEVE SUSPECT CHILD SLAYER IS HIDING IN N. Y. CITY

County Detective Says Fugitive From Moorestown Has Negro Friends Here.

MOORESTOWN, N. J., June 14.—County police authorities here believe that Louis Lively, the negro wanted for the murder of seven-year-old Matilda Russo, went from Moorestown to Philadelphia and thence to New York, following the discovery of the little girl's body buried in his cellar last Friday.

The police say he has friends in New York and think it not unlikely that he is trying to lose himself in one of the negro communities there. County Detective Parker said today that while he knew that Lively had visited friends in New York before the crime, he had been unable to ascertain the names of any of Lively's New York friends.

Detective Parker said today that Samuel Simpson, the man arrested on suspicion and held in Washawken last night, has been released.

CHICAGO, June 14.—A collection of paintings valued at nearly $2,000,000 forms the bulk of the estate of Mrs. Evaline M. Kimball, eighty-year-old widow of William W. Kimball, Chicago manufacturer, who died here yesterday.

The collection, which they spent years in assembling, includes Rembrandt's "Portrait of Armin's Father," painted in the year 1650 and said to have cost $10,000; "Cecilia," "Landscape With Resting Woman," for which $17,500 was paid; John Constable's "Strike by Neymond," $45,000; Sir Joshua Reynolds's "Lady Sarah Bunbury," $42,500; Jean Francois Millet's "Sheep With Peasant Girl." There also are paintings by Gainsborough, Romney and Sir Thomas Lawrence.

FARM GOODS' COST UNDER U. S. INQUIRY

Products Worth $15,000,000,000 Raised Each Year and Public Pays Three Times as Much.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Distribution of the consumer's cash outlay for food and other necessities between the farmer, producer, railroad, mill, merchant and retailer is being investigated by the Federal Trade Commission. It was learned today. A report will be forwarded to President Harding soon.

Farmers produce each year about $15,000,000,000 worth of stock, meat-bearing animals, food, grain, wool, cotton and other products, according to the Agriculture Department.

The public, however, pays approximately three times this amount for farm "products" in the shape of food and clothing. The railroads receive about $4,000,000,000 a year for hauling the goods.

Between $11,000,000,000 and $21,000,000,000 goes into the pockets of dealers who handle the commodities and raw materials between the producer and consumer.

COP DOES A MOVIE STUNT.

Leading From Speeding Auto, He Grabs Runaway Horse.

Patrolman Joseph Carroll, of the Bedford Avenue Station, made a daring stop of a runaway horse at Powers Street and Union Avenue, Brooklyn, today. The horse had run through Grand Street without harness, nearly running over many pedestrians. Patrolman Carroll jumped into an automobile and pursued the animal. He leaped out of the automobile when he overtook the animal, and seized it around the neck, holding on for about fifty feet, when it stopped.

The horse became frightened while attached to a light bread wagon driven by Ralph Romano, No. 5 Withers Street, Brooklyn, at Bedford Avenue and North Tenth Street. It ran into a telegraph pole, throwing Romano out.

Why are You Waiting?

A message to the retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers of this city.

Who is the mysterious "everybody else" that you are waiting for—that your neighbor merchant is waiting for, that your salesmen are waiting for?

This reluctant buyer is your salesman, your neighbor, yourself.

There is plenty of money in the country—all the experts agree on that. There is a willingness to buy—FOLKS are merely waiting to see how badly WE want to sell.

But many salesmen still act as if they had lost faith in their goods—many executives are simply "marking time."

All that business needs is for someone to give it a push and start it going. The man who shows faith in his business by spending his own money is going to arouse faith in others.

We believe it. We are showing our own faith by buying this space to urge you to join us in starting something in this community—and other Burroughs offices, the country over, are doing the same thing.

Let us all begin today, by buying the things we need, and our business needs, and let us sell with old-fashioned, hearty optimism and enthusiasm.

Let us stop saying, "Wait until everybody else begins to buy, then I will." Why not begin now?

Trace Broke—

But he got there on time

NOT a long-enough rope in sight—and the train had to be caught. Driver had an idea. He seized his old pair of Sweet-Orr Work Pants and tied them in place of the broken trace.

They held. And he got there on time.

This true happening, like so many others in our records, again proves how strong Sweet-Orr Clothes-To-Work-In are made. Look for the Sweet-Orr label when you buy overalls or other work clothes.
