

BARS IRISH SOVEREIGNTY PLEA

To-Night's Weather—SHOWERS.

To-Morrow's Weather—FAIR, COOLER.

THE EVENING WORLD Racing Final

The World.

Racing Final THE EVENING WORLD

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

VOL. LXII. NO. 21,847—DAILY.

Copyright, 1921, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1921.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Post Office, New York, N. Y.

PRICE THREE CENTS

BANTRY PASS WINS BELLORE; EDGEMERE TO CAPT. ALCOCK

GRAND JURY WILL RUN DOWN ARBUCKLE WITNESS FIXING

Racing Results, Charts and Baseball

BANTRY PASS WINS BELLORE STAKES; MODESTY SECOND

Capt. Alcock Captures the Edgemer Handicap, Beating Mad Hatter.

By Vincent Treanor.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, Sept. 17.—Capt. Alcock won the Edgemer Handicap this afternoon. Damask was second and Mad Hatter third.

There were only three starters. Capt. Alcock, 2 to 1 in the betting, won by three lengths. Damask was two lengths in front of Mad Hatter, the 1 to 2 favorite.

Bantry Pass was a 10 to 1 shot in the Bellerose Stakes, but she won like an 8 to 5 favorite. In the forward ranks all the way, she held on gamely in a drive to win by half a length from Modesty. Hephastus was third. Quesada, well played, showed in front for awhile after breaking from an outside position, but weakened badly in the last eighth.

With Thundersnap scratched from the opening event Dunbar was made a 3 to 1 favorite and won after getting one of Sanie's good rides. Gladiator came from "nowhere" in the stretch and was up in time to snatch the place money from Last Straw. Smoke Screen was off in front, but quit in the stretch.

Algard ran prominently all the way in the steeplechase, and after Say which broke down he had command of the situation. Hair Man was second and Franco third.

BANDITS BEAT MAN, FLEE WITH $1,800 IN HOT FUSILADE

Arthur Steinkamp, a bondholder for Paul S. Bryant No. 542 First Avenue, returning from a bank with $1,800 for the pay roll, was attacked by three men in 32d Street, between First and Second Avenues, this afternoon. They beat him on the head and arm, seized the money and jumped into a waiting auto.

Detective James McDonough a half block away saw the assault and started for the men. As they were getting into the car he opened fire. The men returned the shots from the running board of the machine.

The escaped, their car outstanding a truck McDonough commanded. The detective believes he wounded one man.

AQUEDUCT ENTRIES.

Table with columns for Race, Track, Aqueduct, N. Y., Sept. 17, 1921. Includes entries for 685, 686, and 687.

Evening World Racing Chart

AQUEDUCT, N. Y., SEPT. 17.—WEATHER RAINY. TRACK GOOD.

Racing chart table for 685. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Racing chart table for 686. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Racing chart table for 687. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 688. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 689. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 690. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 691. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 692. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 693. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 694. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 695. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 696. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 697. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 698. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 699. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 700. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

Table for 701. Columns: Index, Name, Sex, Age, Color, Sire, Dam, Trainer, Jockey, Weight, Post, Time, etc.

8 ALL FOR TILDEN AND JOHNSON AS RAIN STOPS PLAY

Two Philadelphians Fight an Even Battle for National Title.

By William Abbott.

GERMANTOWN, Pa., Sept. 17.—After delay by showers William Tilden and Wallace Johnson started play at 2:35 P. M. before 10,000 spectators for the national tennis championship.

With game 8-5 in the first set the match was called on account of a new downpour, but it was hoped to resume later.

Tilden, wearing a white sweater, started service. He did not flash his usual speed, Johnson forcing the game to deuce before the world's champion when his opponent hit twice out of bounds.

Johnson, with his peculiar croup style, won the second game on beautiful placing. Off came Tilden's sweater. Tilden captured the next game, his service bothering the veteran.

Johnson then ran in two games in a row. The chop stroke specialist directed this attack at Tilden's feet, which compelled Big Bill to drive frequently into the net.

Tilden, speeding up, captured the next two. His terrific smashing forced Johnson to the base line, where Tilden had him at his mercy. Tilden committed three errors in the eighth game, Johnson winning 4-1.

Tilden gained the lead on the next game, that went to deuce four times before Johnson lost the decisive point on an out over the side line. In this game Tilden scored three service aces, but partly offset this by making miscues on easy shots.

Johnson promptly squared the match on his own service. Tilden again doing a lot of nothing. It was a love game for Johnson.

Tilden retaliated when he ran his service in love. It was a case of each winning on service. Johnson was again on the job and won his service. Big Bill scored two fine cross-court placements in the next game and again moved out in front. Johnson, confident as ever, played for the line, and won his service game in love.

The first break in the see-saw struggle came in the next game when Johnson broke through his opponent's railroad service and won on beautiful placing for the side lines. On his own service Johnson was within a single point of winning the set, when, anxious to catch Tilden out of position, he walloped two balls into the net. This was a lifesaver for the defending titleholder, who continued his rally and took the next two points. With the score 8-5 in games the match was called.

WRANGLES OVER JUDGES FOR KILBANE FIGHT.

Cleveland Boxing Commission Refuses to Make New Decision.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 17.—The wrangle over judges for the featherweight championship match between Johnny Kilbane and Danny Frush was going on as fast time approached today. Promoters McGinty and Deutsch went ahead with plans for the main 80 to start at 1 P. M. Eastern standard time, believing Kilbane would not risk losing his $10,000 forfeit and $50,000 purse by refusing to fight.

Kilbane insisted that Richard Guy of Pittsburgh and Sam Hall, Chicago, visiting sport writers, be replaced as judges by Cleveland men. The Cleveland Boxing Commission already refused to make a new decision.

FIREMAN RISKS HIS LIFE TO SAVE PIGEONS IN FIRE.

Climbs Up Burning Doll Factory and Releases Them.

Fire, said by the police to be of suspicious origin, totally destroyed the plant of the Jago Doll Company, in Masspath, L. I., late yesterday, causing $25,000 damage.

Learning that eight pigeons were imprisoned by the flames, Fireman Harry Wilson, of Lingo Company No. 281, of Masspath, risked his life climbing to the top of the burning structure and releasing the birds.

ARBUCKLE GRAND JURY WILL INVESTIGATE ALLEGED FIXING OF PROSECUTION'S WITNESSES

Also Wants to Know About Medical Treatment of Film Actress.

ONE DOCTOR MISSING.

Accused Comedian Must Fight Liquor as Well as Murder Charge.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The County Grand Jury at its meeting Monday night is to consider evidence that certain witnesses were tampered with in the case of Roscoe C. ("Fatty") Arbuckle, accused of murder in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress. Harry M. Kelly, secretary of the jury, announced today.

"The jury also expects to clear up doubtful points in the medical attention given Miss Rappe," Kelly said. "The testimony of the doctors who attended her may be heard."

The witness-tampering investigation of the jury is fixed upon the failure of Miss Zey Prevon, one of the principal witnesses against Arbuckle, to tell the jury the alleged facts she detailed to the police and the District Attorney. As a result of her failure to testify, the jury was compelled to postpone for twenty-four hours a decision to indict Arbuckle, the District Attorney said.

The arraignment of Arbuckle in the court of Superior Judge Harold Loderback on the charge of manslaughter came up today, but was continued until Monday, Sept. 20.

(Special to The Evening World.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—Both the prosecution and the defense began preparations today for the trial of Roscoe C. ("Fatty") Arbuckle on a charge of murder.

To add to the film comedian's troubles, Robert H. McCormack, Special Assistant United States Attorney General, said today he would ask the Federal Grand Jury to indict Arbuckle for the alleged illegal transportation of liquor from Los Angeles to San Francisco in his automobile.

If the charge is upheld effort will be made to confiscate Arbuckle's $5,000 motor car.

District Attorney Brady's decision to prosecute Arbuckle on a murder charge was a shock to the prisoner, who was so sure he would be released.

(Continued on Second Page)

MRS. MALLORY VICTOR IN FINAL NET MATCH.

Defeats Miss Sigourney for Middle Atlantic Singles Title.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Mollie Burstedt Mallory, New York, today won the Middle Atlantic States tennis singles championship for women by defeating Miss Edith Sigourney, Boston, 6-4, 6-2, in the final round of the tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

The national women's champion was ahead throughout the match than her opponent, although at times she was pressed to extend herself to win a necessary point. Of the 119 points played, 68 went to Mrs. Mallory and 41 to Miss Sigourney, and of the fifteen games in the match, six went to deuce, Mrs. Mallory and Miss Sigourney won the doubles championship by defeating Miss Mary Brown and Mrs. Louise Willis, California, holders of the women's national doubles title 6-3, 6-4.

E. Gerry Lapham a Suicide.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 17.—E. Gerry Lapham, who committed suicide here yesterday, it is supposed as the result of a mental breakdown, was a son of the late Elbridge G. Lapham of Canaan, who was elected U. S. Senator and succeeded Roscoe Conkling when the latter resigned in 1881. Mr. Lapham was fifty-five years old.

PREMIER DECLARES PARLEY IS IMPOSSIBLE UNLESS IRISH ADMIT ALLEGIANCE TO CROWN

Lloyd George Says Conference on De Valera's Terms Would Be "Formal Recognition of Severance From King's Domain"—Hope for Parley.

LONDON, Sept. 17 (Associated Press).—Prime Minister Lloyd George, replying today to the communication of Eamon De Valera on Friday, says that so long as Mr. De Valera insists that the Irish delegates should counter as the representatives of an independent and sovereign state conference is impossible.

He says it is idle to say that a conference in which the British representatives had to meet the Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries as the representatives of an independent and sovereign state would be a conference "without prejudice."

The text of Mr. Lloyd George's communication follows:

"Sir: I have received the communication which you telegraphed me last night. It would be idle to say that a conference in which we had already met your delegates as representatives of an independent and sovereign state would be a conference without prejudice."

"To receive them as such would constitute formal and official recognition of Ireland's severance from the King's domains. It would indeed entitle you, if you thought fit, to make a treaty of amity with the King, but it would equally entitle you to make no treaty at all, to break off the conference with us at any point, and by the right which we ourselves had already recognized to negotiate a union of Ireland with a foreign power."

"It would also entitle you, if you insisted upon another appeal to force, to claim from foreign powers, by our implicit admission, the rights of lawful belligerents against the King, for if we dealt with you as a sovereign and independent state we should have no right to complain of other powers following our example."

"These would be the consequences of receiving your delegates as the representatives of an independent state. We are prepared, in the words of my letter of Sept. 7, to discuss with you 'how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British Empire can best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations.'"

"We cannot consent to any abandonment, however informal, of the principle of allegiance to the King, upon which the whole fabric of the empire and every Constitution within it are based."

"It is fatal to that principle that your delegates in the conference should be there as the representatives of an independent and sovereign state. While you insist on claiming that a conference between us is impossible, I am, yours faithfully,

"LOYD GEORGE"

RAID ON BUNGALOW OF SINGER IS TOLD BY WIFE IN SUIT

Found an Italian Woman With Him, Alleges Mrs. Cavellini.

A raid on the bungalow of Luigi Cavellini, a baritone known as Mario Laurenti, who is said to be a protégé of Scotti, the Metropolitan opera star, is told in papers submitted to Justice today in the divorce suit brought by the singer's wife, Angelina. Justice today allowed Mrs. Cavellini $150 a week alimony and $300 counsel fee.

Mrs. Cavellini says since their marriage on May 8, 1916, in Boston, she has been known by the name of Laurenti, a name chosen by her husband when he started out on his career. She says since September, 1919, they have lived apart. Both spend their summers at West Hurley, Woodstock, N. Y. Mrs. Cavellini's town address is No. 591 West 177th Street, and her husband's is No. 52 West 124 Street.

In applying for support for herself and four-year-old son Luigi, Mario Cavellini, Mrs. Cavellini says that following their separation her husband agreed in February, 1920, to give her $100 a month. This, while inadequate, she says, was given her until July 11 last. She says that she is now destitute and is forced to support herself and baby by doing sewing.

Mrs. Cavellini says her husband's income is over $12,000 a year from the Metropolitan, Scotti Grand Opera Co. and Edison records.

John E. Barnes of West Hurley, who is acquainted with the singer and his wife, tells of the raid made on the bungalow on July 11 last. It was 11 o'clock at night when Mrs. Cavellini and Barnes went to the bungalow, where Barnes alleges he saw Cavellini and an Italian woman. They saw the lights go out and Mrs. Cavellini and Barnes went to the door and knocked. Cavellini opened it, thinking that Barnes was a messenger. A fight followed, during which the singer struck Barnes with a cane, and he also, Barnes says, attempted to strike his wife, and then threatened to kill her companion. During the excitement Mrs. Cavellini went for assistance and the Italian woman escaped, Barnes asserts.

DOUGHNUTS AT 4 CENTS OVER 300 P. C. PROFIT.

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—Doughnuts sold in arm chair lunch rooms for four cents cost to the proprietors an average of 1.02 cents each, the State Commission on Necessaries of Life, which is investigating restaurant profits, reported today. The average weight of the doughnuts was placed at 2 1/4 ounces.

On a casual selling at 16 cents the lunch rooms make an average profit of 19.55 cents, the commission found.

Food prices in Rochester, N. Y., increased during the month 8 per cent; in Buffalo, 7 per cent; in New York and Philadelphia, 5 per cent; Bridgeport, Newark, New Haven and Washington, 4 per cent.