

IRISH AMERICANS OUT FOR CURRAN

League Lauds Him as Friend of Liberty and Says Hyland Regime Shameless

The Irish-American League, Nos. 168-170 East 60th Street, has sent out a formal letter of indorsement of the Coalition ticket. The letter declares that the Hyland Administration has made New Yorkers ashamed of their city, and calls attention to the revelations of graft and favoritism in the Police, Dock and Markets Departments.

"The name of Curran," the letter states, "should appeal to every man and woman of Irish birth or descent who loves liberty and freedom for which the forefathers of Henry Curran fought and died. The same red blood runs in his veins that imbued John Phillip Curran in his struggle for Irish freedom."

The letter charges that Mayor Hyland received the Prince of Wales and Admiral Beatty of the British Navy at Eamon De Valera until he had been in the United States a year and had visited every important city in the country.

The officers of the Irish-American League are: Dr. Joseph P. Brennan, President; M. J. Brown, Vice President; Christopher Casserly, Financial Secretary; John P. Hayes, Recording Secretary; George Smythe, Treasurer, and William Mulligan, Sergeant-at-Arms. The Executive Committee is composed of Hon. Christopher Murray, Chairman; Major Thomas F. Lynch, James A. Cavanaugh, John Kelly and Ed. Mullen.

AUTO HOLD-UP NETS
$15,000 IN ALCOHOL

Highwaymen Blind Truckmen, Spirit Away Their Cargo, Dump Them in Wilds and Escape.

A search is being made to-day by the police in lonely country sections about Scarsdale, Irvington and Dobbs Ferry for $15,000 worth of alcohol stolen yesterday from a truck by two masked highwaymen.

The truck, in charge of Herman Challer, of No. 220 Clinton Street, and George Breslin, of No. 28 East 13th Street, Manhattan, took aboard eleven barrels and twenty-three five-gallon cans of alcohol at the Fleischmann yeast plant in Peekskill on a regular permit.

Soon after leaving the plant the truck was stopped by the armed hold-up pair, according to the truckmen, and the latter were bound and hidden under the truck's tarpaulin covering. The vehicle was then driven through Tarrytown to the road leading to White Plains, where, in a wooded place, the alcohol was removed. Half an hour later the truckmen were dumped out near Dobbs Ferry and the highwaymen then drove off.

EX-EMPEROR CHARLES ON HIS WAY TO EXILE

Hungary to Depose Hapsburg Dynasty From Throne To-Morrow.

BUDAPEST, Nov. 2.—Former Emperor Charles was to-day on his way out of Hungary to begin what appeared to be permanent exile. He and former Empress Zita left Thany yesterday for Dunafoldvar, a town on the Danube below this city, and thence they went on board the British gunboat Glow-worm.

Preparations were being made here to-day for a special session of the Hungarian National Assembly to-morrow, at which time a resolution deposing the Hapsburg dynasty from the throne will be presented.

ROCHESTER ART CLOTHES
Tailored in New York

Recently we decided to go out of business. To preserve our name we offered our million-dollar stock of Rochester Art Clothes direct to the public—at prices less than wholesale—less than the retailer has been paying. And now, to speed up the clearance, we have cut prices still further. The values were astonishing before, but now they are greater than ever.

Why the Samuel Blum retirement? Because just now most clothing merchants are asking for a cheaper grade of clothing—which we've never made—and won't. Neither will we do business on a more limited scale. Our preference is to get out of the clothing business—and out we go as soon as our tables are clear. We've brought the end nearer by once more cutting our prices—prices that were already less than wholesale. Take advantage of this sterling opportunity. It's now or never—let it be now.

Every garment finely tailored—right down to the very last detail—and under the personal supervision of Samuel Blum, from start to finish. And the styles—well, you may be sure there's authority back of them—for they are the creations of one of America's foremost style artists—Frank Laura—who for ten years devoted himself to the exclusive trade served by Schanz and J. F. Lanigan, Fifth Avenue custom tailors. As for the woolsens, they're the kind you see in first class tailoring establishments everywhere—and in ready-to-wear shops of the better class. There are such fabrics as Caledon, O'Brien & Carr's Meltons, which come from across the Atlantic; and Worumbo, Hockanum, Princeton, Metcalf, Dunn's, Kunhardt & Standish, produced by dependable American mills.
