

HIGH PRICED JOCKEY TOSSED FIFTH RACE AWAY AND ADMITS IT

STEWARDS ONLY GIVE TURNER REPRIMAND FOR POOR RIDE

Famous Rider's Poor Handling Cause of Defeat of Registrar, Big Favorite.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BALTIMORE, April 20.—A querulous man regular rode home from Havre de Grace after the running of the feature yesterday. He was peevish particularly about the way the star rider, Turner, had tossed away a race on Commander Ross's colt, Registrar. He wanted to know why it invariably is one of the high salaried riders who are guilty of such mistakes and why it is the youngsters always ride their mounts out no matter how secure victory seems to be. Registrar should have won by three or four open lengths—he was beaten a nose by Sedgfield. Turner later admitted to the stewards that he had been to blame because he was not looking for Sedgfield or any other horse through the final eighth. He fortunately escaped with a reprimand.

A less famous jockey was guilty of a bad ride at Bowie and the professional stewards acting there suspended him for it. Ostensibly he was punished for abusing an assistant starter but it was the ride that brought about his temporary downfall. Turner was guilty of worse yesterday when he succeeded in having a heavily played favorite beaten. But instead of punishing him the stewards punished the public by allowing him to escape with a reprimand.

It is somewhat early in the season to begin punishing riders, especially the stars whose stables have such great need of their services in these days when horses are being educated for some of the spring season's valuable fixtures, but the public would have been better appeased had Turner been suspended for a few days for incompetence, a statute which appears to be reserved for the punishment of the lesser lights. Registrar cooled out very much quicker and better than Henry McDaniel, the colt's trainer, who was still stall-walking after darkness fell on the muddy track.

Some of the Maryland steeplechase system players, who in the event of a Lucky Find plowed his way home in the lead in the field event, Lucky Find paid the most generous return of the season, $64.50, so that the system players won $460.50 and their $18 investment. The system has been for the last few days an even one, with an eventful meeting at Pimlico, when several jumpers paying "Automobile figures" won, to buy a ticket on each candidate and then root for the first three choices to stumble, trip or fall in any event, finish behind something paying $20 or better. And the system isn't a whole lot loser.

Lucky Find is either a half or a full brother to Lucky Hour, the Lexington table's Derby hope. The latter's paternal side is a bit doubtful, he being registered as by either Perole or Hour. Their dams were in a line, such a highly bred nursery nutron who died in Kentucky last week. Lucky Find was a dismal failure on the flat and bolted or refused on his two outings through the field last season, but he may have gained courage with the year because he went to his hocks on the first day, despite the boggy condition of the field, and fenced cleanly. There will be a real chance to test his ability at Pimlico during the first two weeks of May. All the best jumpers of the country are assembling there because Pimlico will offer the only meeting ground for them during the month.

Gargan Absolves Fordham Players

The personal investigation by Frank Gargan, graduate manager of athletics at Fordham University, of the baseball game at Waterbury, Conn., on Sunday between the local Eastern League club and the "Fordham Collieries" led him to Waterbury yesterday in an effort to get to the bottom of the mystery.

He sent the following telegram to a member of the Athletic Committee last evening:

"I have been convinced after interviewing President John P. Bolger and Michael J. Moran, Secretary of Waterbury Baseball Club, regarding return of local papers and college graduates, who know members of Fordham team, that no members of present Fordham team appeared here on Sunday and played against Waterbury Eastern League team."

"It is well known that Haffarian, who played on Fordham last year, arranged the game with Michael J. Moran and advertised the same as 'Fordham Collieries.' Similarity of names was used for advertising purposes."

BOXER KIDNAPPED AND BEATEN

When he regained consciousness, he said, he walked to Peoria.

WESTERN GOLFERS TO GIVE NEW TRIAL TO STEEL CLUBS

Test Will Determine if They Give Any Advantage in Distance and Direction.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Trial by ordeal has been ordered for the steel shafted club by President Albert H. Gates, of the Western Golf Association, composed of some 300 golf clubs, in order to reach a just decision as to whether it should be barred as a mechanical contrivance, as decreed by the United States Golf Association.

The ordeals are to take place, according to the plans, with such famous golfers as Chick Evans, twice National amateur and once National open champion with the record low score of 288; Jack Hutchinson, British and former Western open champion, and Laurie Byron, a Scotch professional, trying out the steel shafts along with the ordinary hickory ones.

It is planned to have these golfers drive a number of balls on the Edgewater Golf Club links with their regular hickory shafted drivers and repeat the performance with steel cored handles to determine whether the steel gives any particular advantage in distance or direction.

Trials also will be made with irons of various types to decide whether one can cut an approach or control a long iron to the green better with the metallic shaft.

It has been the contention of Allen Lard, an ordinance expert, who perfected the steel stick that it was as resilient as hickory, but not more so; that it was more durable and more stable in its elasticity and that it was cheaper in first cost without counting its longevity. Hickory is growing scarce and it begins to deteriorate as soon as put in play in a golf club.

GREB AND TUNNEY EXPECTED TO SIGN FOR TITLE BOUT

Matchmaker Flournoy Angling for Jersey City or Garden Match.

Matchmaker Flournoy who intends to stage several important fights at Boyle's Acres in Jersey City during the months of May, June, July, August and possibly in September, was hoping that he would clinch the first of these contests yesterday. He wants Gene Tunney and Harry Greb of Pittsburgh to clash in a twelve-round no-decision bout in Jersey City on Saturday afternoon, May 27, or in the Garden next month in a fifteen-round contest for the light heavy-weight title. As Frank Bagley, manager of Tunney, wants the go to be held in Jersey City, the indications are that George Engel, who looks after Greb's interests, will agree for his battler, as he is confident that Greb can beat Engel either in a twelve or fifteen round scrap.

Manager Engel declared that he is ready to back the bout between Greb and Tunney, and should the negotiations fall through he will be ready to sign articles of agreement for Greb to fight Champion Johnny Wilson for the middleweight title in a fifteen-round bout at Madison Square Garden next month providing that Wilson will agree to battle Greb at 160 pounds, weight in at 175, which is the middleweight limit in this State.

Engel further declared that he will post a big forfeit for Greb to make 150 pounds for Wilson. Engel also has offers for Greb to fight in Boston on May 12 and at an open air show to be held by Charley Murray at a ball park in Buffalo on the night of May 29. He may accept both of these bouts in the event that Tunney and Wilson should not fight Greb.

The most important set of boxing bouts will be conducted by Freddy Hawling at the Ice Palace to-night. Former Bantamweight Champion Pete Herman of New Orleans fights Harry "Hitting" Leonard in the main go of eight rounds; Jack Sharkey of New York vs. K. Joe O'Donnell, Joe Lynch of New York vs. Jimmy Mendis, and Young Montreal of Providence vs. Joe Nelson in the other three eight-round contests. Herman takes the place of Champion Johnny Bluff against Leonard and is to receive a guarantee of $2,500.

For his twelve-round, decision bout with Tommy Ryan of Louisville, Ky., at the Southern A. C. of Louisville on May 12, the fight before the Kentucky Derby. Pete Herman of New Orleans is to receive a guarantee of $5,000, with an option of accepting 57 1/2 per cent. of the gross receipts.

Rice Expected to Go With Tilden and Richards

Laurence B. Rice may reconsider his determination not to go to California as a member of the lawn tennis team representing the East. This fact developed at a meeting of the officials of the New York Lawn Tennis Association held at No. 129 Broadway yesterday.

The officials communicated with Rice at Boston over the long distance telephone. The result was that it developed there was still the possibility that the Yale star might be able to make the trip. Anyway, William T. Tilden and Vincent Richards will go, leaving this city next Tuesday, April 25. Whether or not Rice joins the team as its third member will be decided to-morrow.

The management of the Eastern team, together with its selection, was left to a committee composed of Charles S. Landers, James W. Merriam and Louis B. Dooly. If Rice is unable to make the trip because of the slight operation to which he was recently subjected, the Eastern invasion of the Pacific Coast courts may be left to Tilden and Richards, who will play in the East vs. West matches at San Francisco on Saturday and Sunday, May 6 and 7, and the Pacific Coast championships beginning on Monday, May 8. They will return to this city about May 20.

At the meeting of the New York officials there was some discussion about securing a third member of the team to complete the efforts made to compensate with Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia, R. Norris Williams of Boston, Watson M. Washburn, Francis F. Hunter, the newly crowned national indoor champion, and Zozo Shimidzu, the Japanese star.

The two twelve-round main bouts to be staged at an upcoming show at Madison Square Garden on the night of May 2 has finally been clinched by Matchmaker Flournoy. Babe Herman of California meets Vincent "Popper" Martin in the main go and Tommy Noble of England fights Sammy Siegel of New York. The latter match was clinched to-day.

Pete Hoban, the welterweight champion of Europe, has been signed up to meet the best that can be secured in an eight-round bout at the Olympia A. C. of Philadelphia on Monday night. Phil Salvatore of California fights Alie Hart of Cleveland in the other eight-round feature contest.

Jack Clifford, the referee of Brooklyn who officiated in the bout between Young Montreal of Providence, R. I., and Danny Lee of Harlem at the Commonwealth Sporting Club of Harlem on Saturday night, has been indefinitely suspended by the Boxing Commission for failing to appear at the commission's meeting to-day and explain about the bout.

On account of the big boxing show in Philadelphia to-night the officials of the Trenton A. C. have postponed their regular weekly boxing entertainment from this evening until Friday night. The club figured that too many fight fans from Trenton would go to Philly to see the big show there.

Ray Moore of St. Paul and Pete Herman of New Orleans will figure in the feature bout at the Arena A. C. of Boston on Monday night. In the semi-final of ten rounds, Joe Burman of Chicago will take on Marty Collins, the game fighter of New York, in the other contest.

43 PREP SCHOOLS ENTER ATHLETES FOR N. Y. U. GAMES

Keen Rivalry Among Young Performers in Violet Meet Saturday.

New York University's twenty-third annual Prep School track meet, which will be held on Ohio Field Saturday, promises to be the greatest track and field carnival ever staged for the secondary schools by the Hall of Fame institution. Up to to-day, forty-three of the leading high and prep schools of the East had sent their entries to the Games Committee, of which Ellis Perlman, captain of the Violet track team, is the general chairman and Donald Frazier, Chairman of the Invitations Committee.

Individual entries numbered 497 of the best athletes of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut who will all be seeking to take home the medals for the winners of the thirteen events that are on the programme, and the fine trophy that goes to the school scoring the highest number of points.

Last year Suffield School of Connecticut barely nosed out Poly Prep of Brooklyn for the point honors by 21 to 20-2. Not until the last event was over did the Nutmeg State aggregation defeat the lads from across the bridge. This year Poly will make a determined effort to keep the trophy within the city limits, and has entered 25 of its most capable performers. The other large entries include Bridgeport High of Connecticut, which will invite the Gotham field with 55 athletes; Stuyvesant High of New York, and St. Benedict's Prep of Newark, both of whom are regarded as strong contenders, will rely upon the efforts of 49 students.

Erasmus Hall of Brooklyn and Harringer Prep of Newark, both with 28 stars entered, are also considered as likely possibilities for first honors. Suffield School, last year's winner, has only sent entries for a relay event, so that Poly Prep seems to have the inside track, as the majority of its strong squad are seasoned veterans who garnered second place last year. However, the other large delegations from the institutions mentioned above have enough first class athletes to extend the Brooklyn school to the limit.

SPAIN BEATS ENGLAND AT TENNIS.

BARCELONA, April 20.—The Spanish team won from the English in the lawn tennis tournament concluded here yesterday, ten matches to two.

In the doubles of the final day's play Gomar and Manuel Alonso, for Spain, defeated E. D. Macrea and F. G. Lowe 6-2, 2-1, 4-5, 6-4, 6-2; Gomar and Manuel Alonso won from C. N. Turnbull and J. P. Bantley 6-2, 6-4, 6-6, 7-5, and Lowe and Macrea vanquished Frazier and J. Alenzo 6-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

Only Thirty More Entries Needed To Reach Goal of 1,000 Teams

Looks Now as Though Evening World' Headpin List Will Even Pass That Mark.

Last night was another off night in the Evening World Headpin Bowling Tourney at Thum's alleys. No teams were scheduled in this classic, as the alleys were given over to the big tournament of the Greater New York Women's Bowling Association. Twenty-two teams are scheduled for tonight's "Headpin," and among this number appear several very good teams that will undoubtedly account for their share of the coveted Sterling Silver "World" medals.

The American Lithographic Company has scheduled five teams, Post Office Money Order Department, three teams; Seligberg & Co., Valley Stream, Tabor Court, Brooklyn, and Holoken Masonic, each two teams; Meyer No. 3, Canal, Brooklyn; Night Owl, Maywood, N. J.; Hartshorne and Battelle, Astoria No. 3 and Jackson Mantel and Grate, each one team.

Nine hundred and seventy teams is the official number of entries to date in this monster classic, as given out by the committee last night. Only thirty more entries needed to round out an even 1,000. "A thousand teams" was set as the goal to be reached this year and all indications are that the expectations of those in charge of the affair will be more than realized. This is an entry that New York may well be proud of, as it is a BOSTON, April 20 (Associated Press).—The best long distance runner in the country eleven years ago proved himself the best yesterday when Clarence H. De Mar of Melrose raced home a winner for the second time in the Boston Athletic Association's annual American Marathon road race.

Not only did he defeat a field of the fastest runners in the United States and Canada, including five other former winners of this event, but he set a new record for the distance. De Mar's time of 2 hours 18 minutes 10 seconds for the twenty-five miles of rolling roads was 47 1/2 seconds better than the record made by Frank T. Zann of New York (who was eighth to-day) in winning last year. It was 1 1/4 minutes faster than the time De Mar made as champion in 1911, which was itself a record.

N. Y. A. C. GUNNERS DEFEAT BOSTON A. A. MARKSMEN.

BOSTON, April 20.—The New York Athletic Club gunners, who lost Friday's five-men shoot to the Boston Athletic Association, 729 to 740, and also the ten-men shoot to the Unicorn Club gunners, 1,292 to 1,410, staged a brilliant comeback in the annual N. Y. A. Patriot's Day championship shoot at the Riverside traps. The New York A. C. gunners were in top form and won the first four places in the championship shoot, taking all except one of the diamond medals. Tracy Lewis made a remarkable score, breaking all of his 150 targets, but needing practically a perfect score in order to win over his clubmate, Fred Plum, who had 158 breaks.

An upset! Down to thirty

It's a spring of weather upsets and wealth upsets. But its oddest turn comes in clothes.

The situation here is unparalleled. Only the shift of prices and the drift of the times can explain it.

All reputable clothes, whether ready-made or custom-made, still start at the 1921 level—except ours. Ours begin at $30. And we are custom tailors.

To select your woolen in the piece, instead of the garment. To have it cut to your contour, instead of your classification. These are privileges for which men gladly pay more.

But this spring they are less—because one custom tailor's establishment is already on a back-to-normalcy basis.

The $30 woolens are in surprising variety—all of them all-wool, fast color.

Samples of materials will be mailed upon request.
